From the Rabbi's desk

Once again, I marvel at how quickly the year has gone. I can't believe it is 2024 already! We also begin a new book of the Torah—Shemot, or Exodus. When Exodus begins, it is a dark time for the Israelites, as a “new king arose in Egypt who did not know Joseph” and enslaved the Israelites. They are forced into hard labor, and for 400 years, seem to be forgotten. It is also the darkest time of the year for us, as the winter solstice occurs. It is cold, the weather doesn't always cooperate, we tend to stay indoors and are sedentary. On the other hand, the days are beginning to get longer, and we can see that it won't stay cold forever. Tu Bishvat, the New Year for trees, which I usually associate with February, falls on January 25 this year, and is a wonderful reminder that spring won't be far behind.

Tu Bishvat literally means, “the fifteenth of [the month of] Shevat.” This was the date that the rabbis of the Mishnah assigned in order to determine how old a tree was so that the tithe on its fruit could be calculated. This “holiday” came into disuse after the fall of the Temple, when it was no longer necessary to collect these tithes. However, the mystics in Safed sought to renew the practice because one of the S'phiroth, the emanations of God, is that of a Tree. According to Arthur Waskow¹, the fifteenth of Sh'vat “can be taken as the New Year of The Tree. That is, the fifteenth of Sh'vat can be taken as the date on which the Tree of Life, the Tree of the S'phiroth, renews the flow of life to the universe.

The mystics of course viewed this as an awesome moment, to be guarded and mothered by those adepts who understood the process. It is as if this day were God's own Rosh HaShanah. Just as we need God's presence on our Rosh HaShanah to help us renew our days, so God, as it were, needs our presence on this one.”

May God's presence be with you as we begin 2024, and that we renew our days once again and emerge from the darkness and cold of winter. Much is going on at TBS—please join us for Family Services on January 5 and on January 26 when we will install our new Board of Trustees and Officers.

Shalom uv'racha

From The President

To My Temple Family,

As we get ready to begin a new year, 2024, we wish blessings and only health and happiness to our entire Temple Family. 2023 was just about as wonderful for Temple as it ever was pre-COVID. May we continue to weather the storm and persevere!

I am pleased to say that we had an impressive Bazaar 2023. Our Temple Family came together as we have in the past and pulled it off again. As we say, we are a small but MIGHTY army. Everyone gave 150%, and when we could not do it alone, we dragged out our friends and family to help. There are so many people to thank, so please read our Bazaar article for all the news. But let me just say, thank you to my co-chair, Barbara Gandelman, and to the Basket Brigade (Beth Dulberg and Elana White)! Thanks to our great chef, Adam Gandelman, who ran the kitchen with the invaluable assistance of Louis Fevola, Don Nelinson and Brian Cavallo, as well as Adam Fertig, our As-Is Man!), and to all who assisted, collected gift certificates (special thanks to Barry Packer for all his hard work), worked tirelessly and to your families who helped and who had to do without you being at home. A special thanks to our "Angels" who made some incredible donations. Of course, to our custodial and office staff- thank you all so very much.

We continue to have wonderful hybrid Shabbat Services and having Akiva the Believer accompany Cantor has been special; please try to attend in person. The feeling of being together, as a community, in our sanctuary, is truly a feeling beyond words.

As you know we will be electing new Officers and Trustees to the Board, and I hope that you will attend the Congregation Meeting on January 24 to learn about our candidates and have your voices heard. We really need every member of our Temple Family to attend and take an active role in our ongoing efforts to keep our Temple strong and vibrant!

Again, I want to thank everyone for all that they are doing and continue to do for Temple so that we keep on keeping on. Remember to be kind to one another, stay positive, and stay healthy. As we say goodbye to 2023, I look forward to 2024 to work, celebrate and overcome our challenges together.

My family wishes you all a Happy, Healthy, and Peaceful New Year! See you all in 2024!

Your President,
 Joy A. Bobrow

Cantor's Corner

Another year has come and gone....and thankfully, we're still here. I don't mean just Temple Beth Shalom. I mean we Jews, we're still here.

As always, Chanukah was a treat for the kids. Songs were sung, gifts were given and received, and greetings were exchanged. But, as a result of the Israel-Hamas war, a level of fear, confusion and nervousness were unfortunately injected into the mix.

As we are all aware, the rising tide of dangerous antisemitism and Islamophobia is very disturbing.

To quote the late Rabbi Jonathan Sacks, "In dark times, there are those who curse the darkness and others who light a candle". These are very dark times my friends. Our country and people of good spirit around the world have plenty to worry about.

It was therefore very encouraging to read about something called "Project Menorah." The goal it promoted was to have non-Jews display either an actual menorah or a picture of one in their windows, along with their other decorations and lights. The basic aim is solidarity. Many non-Jews responded in a positive way.

At dark times like these, we should welcome every bit of light. I hope you each lit your menorah in your window. Yes, the years come and go, and we continue to fight, like the Maccabees, for our freedom and our right to live peacefully as Jews. May 2024 bring peace to Israel, to Ukraine, and to the world in general. May it be so in our day. All the best for 2024!

With affection,
Cantor Jerry Korobow

Bazaar 2023

Every year this is a long article, but I ask you to PLEASE read on!!! Bazaar 2023 was a success! Bazaar is a major fundraiser that helps sustain TBS. We were successful this year because several of our Temple Families gave so much time and effort in setting up Bazaar.

Adam Fertig and Stacy Kroun did a monumental job in setting up As-Is (thanks also to Al Eckman who always helps out!). Adam Gandelman, and his sous chefs, Louis Fevola and Don Nelinson (who also helped set up clothing!) prepared the food we all ate! Thanks to Brian Cavallo and Louis Fevola who helped Chef Adam shop for the food we all ate!! And our wonderful young adults who helped serve the food in the food court - they truly rocked!!! We hope more of our young adults and their parents will join us next year!!

It really takes a village to make a Bazaar and there are so many other people who really worked hard during Bazaar - too many to mention (Lori and Eric Lustig, Bonnie Wilichinsky, Karri Kaufman, Ellen Coleman, Iris Bass, Ilyne Rabinowitz, Dr. Fay Schildkraut, Geri Weiss - and behind the locked doors counting money: Robin Myers, Charlene Metz!) Please know that the entire Bazaar team so appreciates everything you do every year without being asked! Of course, there are so many volunteers to thank including Temple members, friends of Temple members (some of whose names we may not have gotten) to former Temple members (please think about rejoining!!) who worked in the booths, set up the booths, baked, cooked, shopped, got gift certificates, and worked so hard to make Bazaar 2023 a success.

Thank you to our "Angels" who do so without the publicizing of their names, but whose donations enabled us to cover some of the costs of our purchases.

A special thank you goes to Beth Dulberg and Elana White, for their creativity in assembling the baskets - Beth's signs, etc. added a real sparkle and light to the entrance of Bazaar. Thanks to Barry Packer for his unending efforts in obtaining gift cards.

Special thanks to Ron and Robin Myers and Melanie Tucker who graciously donated their Cash Raffle winnings back to Temple!

And, a special thank you to Natalie, Jose Urbina & Jose Santos - without their dedication and hard work, Bazaar would not be possible.

The topic for the Adult Discussion Group meeting on December 13 will be "Our Hopes for the New Year."

President Bobrow reported the next Food Pantry is Tuesday, December 19, 2023. Gail Tishcoff, Blood Drive Chair, reported we collected 28 units of blood at the November Drive. She thanked the Temple volunteers who helped make calls and man the drive throughout the day.

Barry Packer, Ways & Means Committee Chair, reported the Chicken Soup Cook-Off has been scheduled for Saturday, October 26, 2024. The vendors were willing to donate for raffles at Bazaar and were very generous.

Eric Bernstein, Adult Education Committee Chair, reported that on Sunday, January 14 at 10:00 am, Adult Education will have "Breakfast and a Movie" featuring Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat. This event will be in-person only with a suggested donation of $3.00 per person to offset the cost of breakfast. The Religious School has also been invited to attend. He continues to work on scheduling a lecture on men's health in late winter/early spring.

President Joy Bobrow, Bazaar Co-Chair, reported on this year's very successful Bazaar. All agreed the members of the Baskets Committee outdid themselves. Good & Welfare was shared, and the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
Gail Tishcoff, Recording Secretary

Adult Education

As I am writing this letter in December, I am hoping everyone had a joyous and eventful entry into the New Year.

On the very same day that I reached quinquagenarian status, I had the immense honor of serving as the Pulpit Officer for Matthew Cohen's Bar Mitzvah. Standing alongside Matthew, Rabbi Ballan, and Cantor Korobow on the bima for this momentous occasion was a privilege I will never forget. Matthew's superb and flawless reading was a testament not only to his talent but also to the support he received from the Temple Teachers, Temple Members, and especially his family, who were there to celebrate his success.

Matthew became the fifth Temple Beth Sholom student to celebrate a B'nei Mitzvah this past year. We eagerly await the upcoming year, knowing that other students will embark on their own meaningful journeys toward their Bar/Bat Mitzvahs, including my son Seth, demonstrating the ongoing commitment to this sacred tradition.

With several personal events in 2024 including Seth's Bar Mitzvah and Dara's High School graduation, I'm making health a top priority for 2024. I have been scheduling time for myself throughout my workday to find ways to stay healthy including cardio and metabolic training.

Mark your calendars for a special Adult Education event on Sunday, January 14 at 10:00 AM. We'll be hosting a breakfast followed by a screening of the musical Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat. This event is particularly meaningful as Matthew's Bar Mitzvah portion focused on Joseph's story, and this musical offers an engaging representation.

Thank you to everyone who has provided suggestions for Adult Ed. With scheduling and time constraints, I'm keeping your ideas in mind for the coming year.

May everyone have a healthy and prosperous year ahead.

Eric Bernstein
Chairman, Adult Education

Pulpit & Ritual

Our current Mi Shebayrach list has close to 70 names. Of course, we all pray for healing of our loved ones, but the list has too many to read aloud at services. The congregation has voted to have the list scrolled on the monitors in the sanctuary (for those in person at services). That list will be visible to those who Zoom into services as well, allowing ample time for silent, personal prayer.

Please remember that we will be starting a new Mi Shebayrach list for the New Year. You can email Rabbi Ballan (rabbi@templebethsholom.org) or Natalie (Natalie@templebethsholom.org) any time after December 30 to have names of your loved ones added to the new list that will be used for the first time on Friday, January 5, 2024.

Eric's Bowling Blog- There wasn't any bowling this past month due to health and conflict issues. We will soon be starting our 9th season. If anyone has any questions or concerns, please contact Eric Bernstein at ericdbernstein@gmail.com. Bowling will resume Thursday, January 4 at 8:00 pm at Jib Lanes.

Super Bowl Boxes are on sale!! Our annual Super Bowl 50/50 Pool has started! The big game is Sunday, February 11, 2024. Simply pick any of the 100 empty boxes (you can buy more than one) and buy it for $5 per box. After they are all filled, numbers for each row and column will be drawn randomly. The boxes then correspond to the scores at the end of each quarter (including the final score) to win cash prizes. Half of the money collected is donated directly to TBS. 1st Quarter prize is $37.50, the 2nd Quarter prize is $75.00, 3rd Quarter prize is $37.50, and the 4th Quarter prize is $100.00. For more information please contact Eric Bernstein at ericdbernstein@gmail.com.

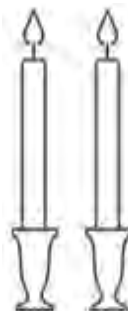

Lag B'Omer Softball will be back! We have secured the permit for the softball field which is available for us from 11:00 am until 4:00 pm.

The trip to the National Jewish Sports Museum originally scheduled for Sunday, February 11 has been canceled. Per the SYJCC, who houses the exhibit, they are trying to revive the museum by looking for the right person to head up the program that has been closed since COVID. Plans for a visit to Ellis Island on Sunday June 23 are still in the works.

Our apologies for no Egg Cream Booth in over 30 years! My wife, Elaine, had COVID and as I share her living space, and tested negative, I didn't want to potentially expose anybody to anything! We will be back and better than ever next year. I want to thank everyone who worked at the Bazaar this year. We appreciate the hard work of this congregation.

Happy New Year!! I hope that everyone had a joyous holiday season. Have a wonderful new year.

"A freshly pasted poster reveals a smile from the past." That is the 14th lyrical line from a 1995 song by New Zealand's group OMC that went on to win 1996's Single of The Year at the New Zealand Music Awards and in 2002 was named by VH1 as the 71st greatest one-hit wonder of all time---How Bizarre.

Or in the case of our own Temple Beth Sholom of Flushing---How Bazaar.

For 2023's first weekend in December had much of TBS's Bazaar back to how it had been in the past. And, yes, there were the immeasurable numbers of smiles from the past---from the leaders of this spectacular event---Joy Bobrow, Barbara Gandelman and Geri Weiss, to the amazing raffle basket creators in Elana White and Beth Dulberg; and from Chef Adam Gandelman and those on his kitchen staff to Jose, Santos and Natalie who, like all things Temple Beth Sholom, are the lifeline of our wonderful Home of Worship. Not to mention the plethora of delighted looks belonging to guests and vendors, donors and the TBS Family who partook in these special days.

Yet, there was also an endless supply of ear-to-ear grins from the present and future of Temple Beth Sholom. For the happiness and dedication, joy and eagerness of the White brothers---Aaron, Justin and Seth, the Bernstein siblings---Dara and Seth, along with Aviva Kaufman and Joseph Dulberg, as one complete team, helped make sure that the Food Court ran smoothly and responsibly, with courtesy and enthusiasm, efficiency and satisfaction. And, whether it was helping ready the area, taking orders, preparing said orders, handling finances, delivering food to the guests, or cleaning up at the end of the night, it was all done flawlessly and professionally, with the cheery, fun-loving attitude that is what our Bazaar is all about.

Fast forward to the next weekend; to Saturday, December 9 to be exact. For there, on the bima, during a morning filled with emotion, Matthew Cohen, was stellar from beginning to end, as a sanctuary filled with family and friends, and empty seats few and far between, celebrated his bar mitzvah. And, as Matthew ended the year of B'nei Mitzvah that included the likes of Damon Ehrlich, Emily Larkin and Scott and Juliana Lerea; and I reflected upon them and the outstanding jobs they did, and the young stars of Bazaar, I thought to myself, maybe OMC wants to rewrite their 14th line for Temple Beth Sholom as:

"A freshly pasted poster reveals endless smiles from the future."

Having been able to see up close what the future of Temple Beth Sholom looks like, OMC would have to change its title as well, as, while they are unique and individualistic, our youth are far from bizarre. So, while one of the antonyms of bizarre is traditional. And, as the present and future of Temple Beth Sholom is becoming immersed in, and loving our beautiful Temple traditions, I ask you, is there any other title for OMC's new hit song...

Tradition!

From the #1 New York Times bestselling author of It Starts with Us and All Your Perfects, a “brave and heartbreaking novel that digs its claws into you and doesn’t let go, long after you’ve finished it” (Anna Todd, New York Times bestselling author) about a workaholic with a too-good-to-be-true romance can’t stop thinking about her first love—soon to be a major motion picture starring Blake Lively and Justin Baldoni.

Lily hasn’t always had it easy, but that’s never stopped her from working hard for the life she wants. She’s come a long way from the small town where she grew up—she graduated from college, moved to Boston, and started her own business. And when she feels a spark with a gorgeous neurosurgeon named Ryle Kincaid, everything in Lily’s life seems too good to be true.

Ryle is assertive, stubborn, maybe even a little arrogant. He’s also sensitive, brilliant, and has a total soft spot for Lily. And the way he looks in scrubs certainly doesn’t hurt. Lily can’t get him out of her head. But Ryle’s complete aversion to relationships is disturbing. Even as Lily finds herself becoming the exception to his “no dating” rule, she can’t help but wonder what made him that way in the first place.

As questions about her new relationship overwhelm her, so do thoughts of Atlas Corrigan—her first love and a link to the past she left behind. He was her kindred spirit, her protector. When Atlas suddenly reappears, everything Lily has built with Ryle is threatened.

Please read the book
and come to our book club meeting with your opinions!

If you have a chance you can also read It Starts With Us by Colleen Hoover. There will be a movie coming out in February. Sisterhood is trying to plan to see it. Look for details as they become available!
