From the Rabbi's desk

As we march into March, so does the Hebrew month of Adar, the last month of the Hebrew calendar (it begins on March 1). The rabbis have a saying that "from the beginning of Adar, we increase our "simcha" — joy." [B. Taanit 29a]. This year it will be especially true because our first Shabbat in March begins with Shabbat Across America, on March 7. This is always a special time at TBS as we celebrate together with our Temple Family. It will be a Shared Shabbat, with special guest pianist David Close. Please note that the service will begin at 6:30 pm followed by the dinner.

But the real reason we increase our simcha or joy is the holiday of Purim. It follows on the heels of our Shabbat Across America celebration. We learn in the book of Esther, "And the month was turned from sorrow to gladness, from mourning to joy" [Esther 9:22]. Everything is topsy-turvy; overturned. This year we are doing things differently, since Purim falls on Friday, March 14 (and begins on the eve of the 13th). We will be celebrating on Friday evening, March 14 at 7:30 pm. Join us for our Megillah reading and Shpiel and a very silly Shabbat Service. Don't forget to come in costume and prepare for silliness!

Even though our Purim celebrations are light-hearted and full of levity, the actual story, if read literally, is a very dark one. After all, it is a story about an evil prime minister who vows to destroy the Jews. On Shabbat Zachor, (the Shabbat that precedes Purim) we are obligated to read the passage in the Torah about what Amalek did to us when we left Egypt (Deut. 25:17-19); how he snuck up on the Israelites and cut down the infirm and weak who were in the rear. It was an especially cruel act. Yet, we wonder why the Israelites let the infirm and weak to straggle in the back, unprotected. Perhaps it is a reminder that we must never forget those who are in need of support and help—the most vulnerable among us should always merit our protection. An important mitzvah of Purim is to send gifts to the poor. There are many ways to give matanot l'evyonim (gifts to the poor)—donate to a local food pantry; volunteer at a soup kitchen, give to a charity that supports the needy.

Shalom u'vracha,
Rabbi Sharon Ballan

From The President

I hope that you are all staying warm and safe. The snow and yucky weather are, I guess, what winter is all about. Last year, when I wrote my article, we had just had snow – well, I guess, we again had a winter wonderland!

Thank you to all who purchased Shalach Manot baskets for Purim and thank you to Geri Weiss and Lori Lustig and “company” for putting this together. Can’t wait to have the hamantaschen, we hope you all enjoy! I know that the Purim program will be wonderful, so please volunteer to be part of the spiel.

Shabbat Across America is almost upon us. I look forward to seeing you all there – thank you in advance to Lori and her team for putting together what I know will be a glorious evening.

And, don’t forget to RSVP to our wonderful 75th Anniversary Gala dinner. It will be lots of fun. The pictures being amassed by Eric Bernstein are phenomenal. You don’t want to miss the wonderful montage being put together by Jacob Fertig, and the food and dancing that will be superb. Please consider placing an ad in the Anniversary journal – maybe wishing TBS a very happy anniversary!

Please know that we so appreciate the efforts of all who volunteer to assist with all our wonderful various and sundry events at Temple. If you have IDEAS for events, and perhaps even spearhead the event, please let us know. Also, Sisterhood, Men’s Club and Adult Ed are always looking for new ideas so work with them and let the fun begin!!

Temple Beth Shalom is a family, and we want to work together so that we can be as vibrant and fresh as possible!

Again, I want to thank everyone for all of that they are doing and continue to do for Temple so that we keep on keeping on. Just a reminder that we want to be respectful of each other’s views. Remember to please be kind to one another and stay positive and stay safe. We are all in this together.

Your President,

Joy A. Bobrow

Cantor's Corner

Over the years, music has brought me many wonderful friends. Some I get to see and play with often. Others I cross paths with only once in a while.

I've told people again and again that music is one of those rare activities that you can participate in and enjoy for your entire life. Music is a magical thing that can keep you engaged. The issue of remaining engaged is a topic I've touched on before in this column. While I know many folks very much look forward to retirement, I believe it's very important to find activities and opportunities to remain engaged.

Very recently, an old musical friend of mine passed away at the age of 96. While it's always sad to lose a friend, I certainly consider this friend to have been a stunning example of remaining engaged. His name was Drew Smith, and he was a virtuoso on the Autoharp, an instrument some may remember from elementary school. I learned of his passing through a note written by his son on Drew's Facebook page. Here, I quote:

"This is Scott Smith (Drew's son) along with my sister Sue. Sadly, our dad passed away today at the age of 96. He led an amazing, adventurous, long life and if you asked him, he'd tell you all about it for hours on end. He loved telling stories. Riding his bicycle as a teenager from East 85th Street in NYC all the way up to Bear Mountain...racing his motorcycles in off-road competitions winning hundreds of trophies and medals. Many road trip adventures from NYC to California and a few times up and down the East coast to Florida. And of course his Autoharp travels to hundreds of gatherings and festivals including teaching overseas in Europe. His love of music took him all over the world. This is the community he loved the most".

"He was a tremendous artist and graphic designer who worked on Madison Avenue for years and later worked for a few pharma companies creating their package designs. Our dad had two kids, my sister Sue and I, and was a grandfather to six".

"We should all be so lucky to live 96 years and have a smile on your face every day. He really loved life. Rest in peace Dad".

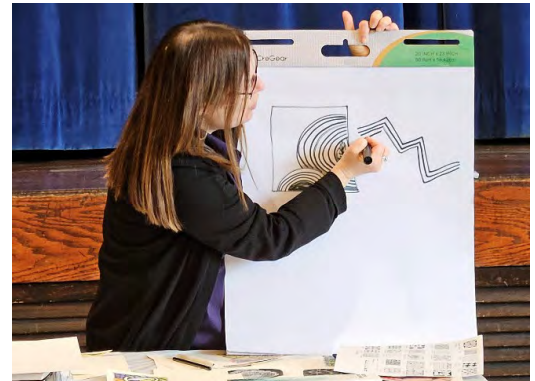

A sweet, touching tribute indeed. I met Drew when he was in his early to mid-80's, and he was still riding his motorcycle. And he was making music via Zoom, although homebound, until just a few weeks before his death. He truly remained engaged to the very end. We should all take a lesson from my old friend. And as his son so aptly put it, we should all be so lucky to live 96 years and have a smile on your face every day. Thanks for the friendship and for the music Drew-you're an example for us all!

With affection,
Cantor Jerry Korobow

Sisterhood "Zentangle" Event

Let's Hear it for Zentangle!
Thanks to Stacy Kroun, Sisterhood had an incredibly fun Sunday morning on January 26, 2025. She had us drop different colors of watercolor paints on a card, then blow through straws to make designs. When the paint dried, we learned different ways to draw zentangle art designs on the card.

Looking forward to "Part 2"!

Hundreds of synagogues across the continent will take part in an historic national Jewish event to celebrate that which unites all Jews- Shabbat! Everyone is invited... singles, couples, families, all ages. Let's celebrate together!

February Board of Trustees Meeting

The Board of Trustees met on Monday, February 10, 2025. President Joy Bobrow welcomed new Board members Larry Gold, Fran Goldman, Karri Kaufman, Andrea Odintz, Maxine Simon, and Geri Weiss. Per Temple by-laws she read Article III, Section 4 and stated that all Trustees need to be involved in at least one committee or Arm of Temple. President Bobrow asked all committee chairpersons to remain and continue their good work. With the assistance of Jim Kettig, Eric Lustig, Joe deLeon, and David Chenkin, we were finally able to complete the RFP for the security grant and we are hopeful that we will get a few good bids so we can complete the work by the September 2025 deadline. Service announcements will be edited for length. We need proofreaders for the Shabbat Program so that Geri Weiss has assistance. She thanked Walter Costanza for setting up remote access so that Robin Myers, Charlene Metz and Natalie can work remotely.

January minutes were approved by the Board as corrected. Robin Myers, Financial Secretary reported we currently have 110 member units. The outstanding dues balance as of January 31, 2025, is $7,032.94. Donation receipts and statements were mailed out at the end of January. Charlene Metz, Treasurer, presented the Financial Report which was accepted by The Board as presented.

Cantor Korobow thanked Natalie and said he is grateful for all her help. He again requested more in-person participation in the sanctuary. The Saturday morning Shared Shabbat went very well with nice participation by both students and adults. Rabbi Ballan welcomed the new Board Members. She reported services have been going well. Our Shared Musical Shabbat on February 8 morning was nicely attended with many people participating. The Religious School Tu Bishvat Seder was lovely. Purim is March 14; please volunteer to read or chant the Megillah. She is possibly planning another Adult Hebrew Class and will be sending out an e-mail shortly asking if anyone is interested.

Lori Lustig, Membership Committee Chair, reported on preparations for Shabbat Across America on Friday March 7, 2025. Catering for the event will be from Ben's. Donations for beverages and desserts and any other input would be greatly appreciated.

Geri Weiss, Pulpit & Ritual Committee Chair, reported we have been receiving donations for acquiring new technological equipment for Zoom capabilities. The Shabbat Morning Service was lovely. We look forward to Shabbat Across America and our Purim/Shabbat Service in March. There is a possibility of having a Tot Shabbat Service in the spring, to include the students in the younger grades who do not attend the Shared Shabbat and possibly open it up to the community. Please make sure to tell anyone who lets you into the building that you are from TBS as sometimes it is non-TBS people who are at the door.

Jim Kettig, House Committee Chair, reported we are waiting on a specific delivery date for equipment to start HVAC project sometime next month. In the meantime, we have advertised, as required by Homeland Security for the work we want to do under their grant. We received many responses from potential bidders, had a walkthrough at the building, and are in the process of responding to Requests for Information. Our goal is to complete that work by September 2025.

Andrew Larkin, Men's Club President, reported on the winners of the Super Bowl Boxes and said this earned $250.00 for Temple. He thanked Eric Bernstein for organizing this event. There was bowling last Monday, February 3. The next bowling date will be Monday, March 3 at JIB Lanes 8:30 pm. Barry Packer, Ways & Means Committee Chair reported on the Gala plans; invitations should be mailed soon, after the QR Code for the ad journal is revised. He requested coordination of carpools for the event. He reported on efforts to collect ads and journal checks.

Eric Bernstein, Adult Education Committee Chair, thanked Max Fevola for his informative and engaging lecture on "Financial Planning: Plan, Protect, and Prosper" in January. Good and Welfare was discussed, and the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Eva's Promise – A Holocaust Story

As this is the time of Holocaust remembrance, I recently watched an hour-long documentary on PBS titled "Eva's Promise." the Emmy Award winning documentarian Steve McCarthy, Eva's Promise tells the story of Eva, who promised her brother, Heinz Geiringer, that she would retrieve his paintings and poetry, hidden under the floorboards of the attic where Heinz and his father were hiding, if he should die in the concentration camps.

The documentary retells the story of how their ordinary lives were changed and how they ended up living in Amsterdam across the street from Anne Frank and her family. The program continues with Eva and her mother separating from her brother and father to go into hiding, and how they were eventually found out and sent to Auschwitz toward the end of the war. There is a lovely twist that happens after the war back in Amsterdam.

The presentation of the historical events and interviews were easy to follow and moving. It is not too dramatic to be inappropriate for teenagers to watch. This film showcased Heinz's artistry (Eva's brother), and Eva's dedication to be able to finally share his story.

It may be watched using the PBS Thirteen Passport under featured programs and is available on Direct TV. There are a lot of YouTube short videos, but I could not locate the full documentary anywhere else.

This link will take you to a nice 2-minute video: <https://ryanreddingtonmcca.wixsite.com/evaspromise>

75th Gala News

If you've read any of my 84 Scoop's Schmooze columns, you know that whether it is my Boston sports teams or my Team Chicken Soup, teamwork leads to championships.

And, with our Temple Beth Sholom 75th Anniversary Gala about two months away on May 3, Team Gala comprised of Eric Bernstein, Joy Bobrow, Joe deLeon, Beth Dulberg, Jacob Fertig, Suzanne Fertig, Karri Kaufman, Roger Opstbaum, Fay Schildkraut, Geri Weiss, and Elana White, have all formed a winning combination. For as I am writing this, I know the beautifully crafted invitations were mailed today, appropriately on February 14; as our hearts will all come together.

Of our 110 families, we would love for everyone to be there; to relish in TBS's past glories and with hope, look ahead to our next 75 years.

And what could be a better way to do this than having delectable food and drink prepared by our friends at Marbella; along with music, dancing, guest speakers, and a retrospective video to be shown throughout the night. And, while we are doing it offsite so everybody including Natalie, Jose and Santos can be there without working; if there are people who have difficulty driving at night, we will coordinate commuting efforts so everyone can attend.

This memorable night will be played out in a fabulous ad journal. Buy a one-line greeting, a full-page ad or anything in-between. As a challenge, reach out to one family member or friend and see if they would match your donation.

Either way, celebrate with Team Temple Beth Sholom---the team made of heart and soul.

CHOCOLATE SEDER!!

Every year at Passover, we hold a seder (a meal with an “order”), retelling the story of the hardships the Jewish people faced in their escape from slavery to freedom.

Our Chocolate Seder is a special way to get ready for Passover and reminds us that freedom is sweet. The seder has 15 steps, and we are going to practice each one, substituting sweets for the traditional Passover foods!

And we plan on having lots of silly fun doing it!

Join us on Thursday, April 3
In the ballroom for our first ever
Chocolate Seder!

Come at 6:30 pm for a light pizza
dinner and appetizers
$5.00 per person

At 7:00 pm we begin our Chocolate Seder (dessert!)

Please return this slip or contact the Temple office or Karri Kaufman (prektrainer@aol.com) to RSVP!

TBS Parents' Association 2025 Zoom Passover Cooking Event

Saturday, April 5, 2025 6:00 PM

RSVP to Parentsassociation@templebethsholom.org to get the Zoom information by Wednesday, April 2, 2025

Ingredients

- 2 $\frac{3}{4}$ Matzo squares
- 1 cup unsalted butter
- 1 cup packed brown sugar
- 12 oz semisweet chocolate chips
 - Sea salt to taste

Instructions

- 1. Preheat the oven to 400 degrees and line a rimmed, 10x15-inch baking sheet with parchment paper. Place the matzoh on the sheet in a single layer.
- 2. In a medium saucepan over medium-high heat, melt butter and brown sugar together and bring to a boil. Stir occasionally until combined and sugar is melted. Continue boiling, undisturbed for 5 minutes. Remove from heat and pour caramel mixture over the matzo layer. Spread out with a spatula to evenly cover the matzo.
- 3. Transfer the sheet to the oven and bake for 5-6 minutes, or until just bubbly.
- 4. Remove the sheet from oven and sprinkle immediately with chocolate chips. Return to the oven for 2 minutes until the chocolate begins to melt and becomes shiny. Remove from oven and spread the chocolate out over toffee with an icing spatula. Sprinkle with salt before the chocolate sets.
- 5. Transfer the sheet to the freezer until the chocolate is firm, about 30 minutes. Break into pieces and store in an airtight container in the fridge for up to 1 week or in the freezer for up to 3 months.
