From the Rabbi's desk

Shalom,

For the first time in a long while, all of the High Holy Days as well as the chagim (Sukkot and Simchat Torah) fall in October. Also approaching is October 7. A year ago, I couldn't imagine that our hostages would still be imprisoned. But here we are. As you may have noticed, there is an Israeli flag draped over one of the chairs on our bimah. This empty chair represents those who are still missing. Each week I will be telling some of their stories.

As we look inward, and try to make peace with our own families, friends and each other, I also ask that we pray for peace in Israel and around the world. We are living in difficult times. Recently, my seminary, The Academy for Jewish Religion<sup>1</sup>, published a High Holy Day supplement specifically for October 7. I will be adding some of these meditations and readings during our services this year. I offer this poem, "Survival," by Reb Cantor Lisa Levine:

*Violence and rage
became the news today
the peace of Shabbat shattered with a click
we held our breath
and prayed that the borders of a holy place
could sway the actions
of terror gone astray.*

*Trauma hit hard
a collective gasp
we have been here before with guns pointed at our heads
set ablaze
generations of pain
rousing us
from our beds.*

*A blink of an eye
washing away
hope and freedom
and still we wait
our courage and faith
stretched to the brink
standing strong,
we still proclaim
we are here.*

L'shanah Tovah u-metukah
tikateivu, May you be inscribed for a good and sweet New Year,

Rabbi Sharon Ballan

From The President

As we say goodbye to the old year and begin our celebrations for the new, I cannot help but feel enormous gratitude for our continued accomplishments.

We have been able to hold our own and enter the New Year with the ability to keep our Temple Family and building strong; we continue to need your generosity and support!!

Our children are back in school, and they are happy. Our membership is holding steady, we have had several new members join over the past year and we are all refreshed and ready to start the New Year. None of this would be possible without the hard work of our Rabbi, Cantor, schoolteachers, Board of Trustees, officers, committees, office, and custodial staff. Of course, the greatest credit goes to you, our Temple Family. You have been a rock giving your encouragement and support throughout the year. Thank you!

We look forward to a very spiritual and joyous High Holy Day Season. The Rabbi and Cantor are diligently preparing, as they do every year. Thank you in advance to all who participate in the services – your blessings are our blessings. And thank you to Geri Weiss for ensuring that all our bases are covered.

While it has been a mixed year for us as a Temple Family, some have had great sadness and others incredible joy, the important thing is that we shared them together. We are entering the New Year stronger than ever as a united family.

We must work to keep TBS alive and vibrant for the next generation the way the previous generation did for ours. Let us all make a commitment to take an active role in our Temple. Let us stand together and make this New Year the best one ever at TBS.

A happy, healthy and safe New Year to you and all your loved ones. May this be a good and sweet year for us all.

L'shana tova from my family to all of you!

Your President

Cantor's Corner

"Really fun service last night!" That was part of the email I received from Geri Weiss on Saturday, September 7, the day after our Open House dinner and service at Temple.

The good Ms. Weiss was writing to remind me I'd be making music on the first day of Religious School the next day. I already knew about school, but when I saw the comment about the service, I thought to myself "yeah, it really was fun."

Of course, a big part of the fun for me was having our guest musicians "along for the ride." Maestro David Close, who I've known for many years, is not only a masterful musician, but a delightful human being. It's always a privilege for me to make music with him. And our friend Akiva "The Believer" Wharton always brings great fun along with all his instruments and percussive implements.

But I'd be greatly remiss if I didn't mention a huge factor in the success, enthusiasm, and fun of the evening. That factor was the large number of folks who attended the service in person. Many were members of our congregation, and quite a few were guests. We also had significant attendance via Zoom. All in all, it was a terrific turnout. There's nothing like us worshipping together—that's what community is all about.

I'd like to also extend my gratitude to Eric Lustig for getting the sound so well taken care of, along with the entire tech crew.

And of course, thanks to my dear colleague, friend and singing partner Rabbi Sharon Ballan. There's no one I'd rather share a Bimah with. You know what? I think it's going to be a great year!

With affection,
Cantor Jerry Korobow

It's getting close! Our annual Election Day Rummage Sale is coming soon! Set-up will be Sunday, November 3 at 10:30 am. The Sale is Tuesday, November 5 from 9:30 am - 2:30 pm. We need volunteers for one or both days!

Pulpit & Ritual Committee

While we are in the midst of the High Holy Day observances, the committee has been looking at how to enhance Shabbat Services to improve in-person attendance. There is the steady few who attend almost every week. Why not rearrange your routine to join them once or twice a month?

Celebrating a special occasion, or observing a yahrzeit? Don't wait to be asked to do an honor of lighting the candles or blessing the Kiddush. Call the office to arrange the date and honor.

Rabbi has changed the prayer for Israel. It is shorter, and more relevant. We anticipate securing David Close or Akiva the Believer for services during the year.

We are looking at doing our appetizers before Shabbat Service again. There will also be an early start Shabbat Service, 6:30 pm, in November, with a light spread afterwards!

Please watch for such special treats in future issues of The Voice or the Monday morning email blasts from the office.

See you at services!

September Board of Trustees Meeting

The Board of Trustees met on Monday, September 9, via Zoom.

After Rabbi's invocation, she led the Board in a reflection of what Temple Beth Sholom means to each of us.

President Joy Bobrow acknowledged the recent return of six Israeli hostages murdered by Hamas with a moment of silence and a prayer for a speedy resolution of peace in the region. She discussed outreach for upcoming High Holy Day Services open to the public. She thanked Lori Lustig and the Membership Committee, Chefs Adam and Don, and all who contributed to the recent successful Open House and Shabbat Service.

August Board Meeting minutes were approved. Treasurer Robin Myers reported we now have 110 member units. Statements were mailed out to members who have outstanding balances and are not on a payment schedule. Financial Secretary Charlene Metz reviewed the August financial report, which was accepted as presented.

Rabbi Ballan welcomed everyone back from the summer and reported last week's Open House was wonderful. It was great to have so many in the Sanctuary in person. She will be starting classes with the seven post b'nei mitzvah students who will lead the Children's Services during the High Holy Days. She and Cantor are busy planning those services and are looking forward to an exciting New Year.

Cantor Jerry Korobow read aloud his upcoming Voice article, adding a personal reflection about his childhood shul's sense of community and welcoming in relation to the Board's thoughts about what TBS means to us all.

Pulpit & Ritual Committee Chair Geri Weiss reported on High Holy Day plans and that she is in contact with past-member Lee Temares to arrange permission for her Florida temple to use our prayer book. Past President David Chenkin reported the new Security Team is in place and consists of himself, Larry Gold, Michael Gross, Joesph deLeon, Raymond White, Eric Lustig, Matthew Dulberg, Ron Myers, and Sam Rosenberg, as well as Temple Gates of Prayer Office Manager Samantha Eller. He is in the process of getting Temple to become a CSS Synagogue. Hopefully, the additional training required should be completed the week after the High Holy Days.

Membership Committee Chair Lori Lustig reported approximately 70 people attended the Open House and potential new members attended. She thanked Adam and Don for their wonderful food; as well as all the people who contributed food, time, and effort. She presented Saul and Hannah Daiell, whom the Board unanimously approved.

Parents Association Co-President Erica Bernstein reported on upcoming holiday and fund-raising events and Religious School plans. Academy students will lead Children's High Holy Day Services. Students will decorate the Sukkah the afternoon of Wednesday, October 16, followed by Pizza in the Hut at 6:00 pm.

Sisterhood President Barbara Gandelman reported Virtual Bingo is Thursday, September 12 at 8:00 pm. The Paid-Up Sisterhood event is Sunday, September 22 in the ballroom and is a challah baking event. The next Book Club meets on Sunday, November 17 at 10:30 am. The Adult Discussion Group is Wednesday, September 11 and the Women's Discussion Group is November 13, both facilitated by Deirdre Weliky. Volunteers are needed for set-up and sales for the Election Day Rummage Sale on November 5.

Jim Kettig, House Committee Chair, reported on imminent arrangements for asbestos removal and work on the cooling system that should be completed prior to this next spring and work on the boiler, which can hopefully be finished by December. Current cost estimates indicate there may well be sufficient funds remaining to replace the cooling tower.

Eric Bernstein reported Men's Club is looking for a new bowling alley so they can resume bowling. They are working on the upcoming Veterans Day Service and breakfast in November. Deirde Weliky, Caring Committee Chair, spoke about the ongoing outreach and upcoming Adult Discussion Group to discuss personal impacts of the 2001 September 11th attacks.

President Bobrow reported the next Food Pantry is on September 17. Barry Packer, Ways & Means Committee Chair, spoke about the Spring Gala plans. Eric Bernstein, Adult Education Committee Chair, reported that on Sunday, September 15 at 10:00 am, Adult Ed presents "Beyond Plastics," a lecture on the NYS Packaging Reduction & Recycling Infrastructure Act, the impact of plastic on climate change, and how we can work together to reduce plastic pollution. President Bobrow reported Bazaar continues to collect donations. Beth Dulberg said that they need restaurant gift cards for the "trees" raffles and volunteers to work the BJ's Membership table and fund-raising project.

Good & Welfare was shared, and clergy excused. The Board discussed Jose Urbina's contract proposal and agreed to offer him a 3-year contract with a 1-1/2% increase in his annual salary. The meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
Gail Tishcoff,
Recording Secretary

- The government is also trying to phase out single-use plastics by 2035.

Pizza in the Hut- Wednesday, October 16 at 6:00 pm. This is one of our favorite events during the year. We enjoy seeing our Temple Family, celebrating Sukkot, and eating pizza in the Sukkah. We hope that you can make it!

Panera Bread fundraiser: Monday, November 4 from 4:00 – 8:00 pm. This has become a great fall event for PA.

Both events are great ways to meet up with your Temple Family, eat great food and support PA. Please see flyers for more details.

The next PA Meeting will be held on Sunday, October 6 in-person and via Zoom at 10:00 am. We hope to see you there.

We hope that everyone has a Happy and Healthy Rosh Hashanah and an easy fast.

FLUSHING JEWISH COMMUNITY COUNCIL/QLICS

The Flushing Jewish Community Council, which is housed at Temple Beth Sholom, operates its food pantry there and recently has served 1,295 people including 1,060 people in Rockaway Park while continuing to attract more people each month.

In June and July, the FJCC worked with the Flushing Interfaith Council Initiative, of which we are a founding member, on an initiative funded by the Robin Hood Foundation. We received funding for some of our counseling services ($5,000 received plus $500 administrative) and recommended the distribution of $6,500 to 15 individuals and families in need. (In 2011, shortly before 9/11, the FJCC organized such a council that lasted for a few years after we worked with the rabbis of our congregations in meeting with other diverse clergy in Flushing and beyond.)

The Queens Long Island Community Services (the FJCC counseling program) continues to operate either by telephone or video conferencing. This includes individual, couple, family therapy, and one group, "Coping with Life's Changes in a Covid-19 World," that meets weekly on Monday at 5:00 pm. Please visit our website, FlushingJCC.net, or our Facebook pages under both names. You may also contact us by email at FlushingJCC@gmail.com and QLICScounseling@gmail.com; or by phone at FJCC 718-463-0434, QLICS 718-461-6393, and 516-547-4318.

Scoop's Schmooze

As I sat like a deer looking into headlights, watching the 9/11 ceremonies this past Wednesday morning on television, the bells rang; as has become customary at 8:46, 9:03, 9:45 and 10:10. The solemn reading of the names of the dearly departed included three people who touched my lives, either directly or indirectly. Michael Horn worked for Cantor Fitzgerald and was the younger brother of one of my close friends, Christine, in the mid to late 90's and early 2000's. At that same time, Carlos Dominguez's wife, Maureen, was a member of the New York Sports Club that I oversaw in East Meadow. For three years, Carlos was an independent contractor for Marsh & McLennan---eerily, on September 10 he became a permanent employee. And, when I was eight-years old in 1970, my Boston Bruins won the Stanley Cup. Garnett "Ace" Bailey was a member of that team that broke a 29-year championship drought.

As 9/11 is always such a somber and meaningful day, a date in Israel that has been looked at as a comparable equivalent, is mere days away. As 10/7 is upon us, it is amazing that a year has passed since the horrific attacks on that Shemini Atzeret Shabbat. And, as just under 3,000 people perished on 9/11, and 1,300 on 10/7, what has been determined is that in comparing the populations of Israel and the United States, is that approximately a mind-boggling 40,000 people would have died if the Israeli attack took place here.

The two biggest Jewish populations are in Israel and New York. As Jewish people, we all must protect ourselves from the hateful antisemitism that is reaching alarming new heights. As Renee has several relatives living in Israel, who when we have communicated with them during the past year, many of those conversations have taken place while they have been in their safe rooms. Our Temple Beth Sholom's former President, David Chenkin, took the initiative, conducted extensive research and has put together a security team made up of our TBS members to make sure we are all safe.

While we lived through the horrors and tragedies of 9/11 and 10/7; and, according to the ADL, the rise in antisemitism throughout the United States following the attacks in Israel that has skyrocketed by an alarming 360 percent, there is hope as we close in on our High Holidays.

At a recent Temple Beth Sholom meeting, a question was posed about the meaning of TBS. Among the responses that were given included "family, community, and genuine and unconditional relationships."

However, if one wants to really look into an exact meaning, please consider the following. The translation of Beth Sholom is House of Peace. With regards to our Temple Beth Sholom Family, there could never have been a more appropriate name that rings so true.

Bar Mitzvah

Walter Lothammer is an extremely dedicated eighth-grader at the Queens School of Inquiry. He began attending classes at TBS just two years ago. He has loved immersing himself in the world of Judaism and being a part of the TBS Community. Morah Beth has been an incredible teacher and guide in Walter's Judaic studies.

He is an avid reader who loves to act, cook and practice TaeKwon Do. He is currently a purple belt and rehearsing to be Prince Eric in a production of The Little Mermaid. In his free time, he loves to watch shows like Iron Chef and Nailed It. His favorite subjects in school are math and science. He truly enjoys observing how things work and is thinking of becoming an astrophysicist in the future.

Walter has a tight group of friends and enjoys playing video games and spending time with them. He also enjoys spending time with his brother, Trevor, whether it's talking about a video game, helping him with a task or just relaxing. He has the most giving heart and is a true treasure. He has decided his Mitzvah Project is to raise funds for St. Jude's Children Hospital.

We are so proud of how dedicated Walter is as he gets closer to becoming a Bar Mitzvah. We wouldn't have come this far without the help of Morah Beth, Geri Weiss, Rabbi Ballan, and Cantor Korobow, so thank you for continuing to further his love of learning and for your unwavering support.

NATIONAL BESTSELLER • “Historical fiction of the highest order . . . an absolute joy of a book, warm and romantic, and with so much to say about the lives of women in the years following World War I.”—Ann Napolitano, bestselling author of Hello Beautiful

A timeless comedy of manners—refreshing as a summer breeze and bracing as the British seaside—about a generation of young women facing the seismic changes brought on by war and dreaming of the boundless possibilities of their future, from the bestselling author of Major Pettigrew's Last Stand

It is the summer of 1919 and Constance Haverhill is without prospects. Now that all the men have returned from the front, she has been asked to give up her cottage and her job at the estate she helped run during the war. While she looks for a position as a bookkeeper or—horror—a governess, she’s sent as a lady’s companion to an old family friend who is convalescing at a seaside hotel. Despite having only weeks to find a permanent home, Constance is swept up in the social whirl of Hazelbourne-on-Sea after she rescues the local baronet’s daughter, Poppy Wirrall, from a social faux pas.

Poppy wears trousers, operates a taxi and delivery service to employ local women, and runs a ladies’ motorcycle club (to which she plans to add flying lessons). She and her friends enthusiastically welcome Constance into their circle. And then there is Harris, Poppy’s recalcitrant but handsome brother—a fighter pilot recently wounded in battle—who warms in Constance’s presence. But things are more complicated than they seem in this sunny pocket of English high society. As the country prepares to celebrate its hard-won peace, Constance and the women of the club are forced to confront the fact that the freedoms they gained during the war are being revoked.

Whip-smart and utterly transportive, The Hazelbourne Ladies Motorcycle and Flying Club is historical fiction of the highest order: an unforgettable coming-of-age story, a tender romance, and a portrait of a nation on the brink of change.
