What is a Mitzvah?

At the core of Judaism is a Hebrew word, mitzvah. Literally, it means commandment. But what does it mean to be commanded, and what does it mean to be commanded as Reform Jews? Our first real encounter with being commanded occurred at Mount Sinai. Under the thundering and smoking mountain our people heard the voice of God. "All the people saw the thunderings (kalot) and lightning, the sound of the shofar and the smoking mountain..." In a midrash, Rabbi Yochanan wonders why the word kalot (which is the plural for "voices" or "sounds" and translated as "thunderings") was used, since there was only one voice. He explains, "Because God's voice mutated into seven voices, and the seven voices into seventy languages, so that all the nations might hear it."

Over the millennia, Jews have struggled, argued, and disagreed with one another about what was heard at the foot of the mountain. Today, we continue to wrestle with Torah. The Voice was One, but each of us can understand it in different ways. We each have the power to interpret it, but we have to be open to hearing it.

A mitzvah can be viewed as an obligation, or as a good deed. Every week, it is a mitzvah to observe Shabbat; every day we have the opportunity to perform mitzvot by providing for the poor, helping others, or doing acts of loving-kindness. On Sunday, May 3, join us once again for our annual Mitzvah Day and Blood Drive. Come and support our Religious School students; make sandwiches for the homeless; save a life or two by donating blood. Activities begin at 10 am.

At the end of the month, we celebrate the receiving of Torah on the holiday of Shavuot, the last of the three major Jewish festivals. We will have a Shavuot and Yizkor Service on Sunday, May 24th at 9:30 am. Finally, please make every effort to attend our annual Confirmation Service on May 29th at 8 pm. Almost 200 years ago, early Reform Jews created a new Jewish life cycle ceremony, "Confirmation" and linked it to the festival of Shavuot.

There might not be a smoking and thundering mountain, but nevertheless it will be an exciting moment as our confirmands, Emily Costa, Joseph Gandelman and Adison Lemmon lead us in prayer, read the 10 commandments from the Torah, and demonstrate their commitment to Judaism. I hope you will come out in full force to witness our youngsters reaching this milestone.

Shalom Uvracha,

Rabbi Sharon Ballan

Jarett is a 7th grader at MS 74. His parents, Stacy and Eric, and his sister, Allie, are so proud of him and love him very much.

In addition to playing sports and performing in school plays, he's been on an "Odyssey of the Mind" team that has won three New York City Championships and one New York State Championship.

Jarett spends his summers in the Catskills at Camp Lakota. This summer will be his eighth summer there, so needless to say, he lives ten months for two.

He is trying to decide if his future plans involve careers in professional soccer, rocket science, medicine, architecture, or all of the above.

April Board of Trustees Meeting

The Board of Trustees met on Monday, April 13, 2015. The Board passed the March Financial Report as presented by Treasurer Mike Temares. A generous donation was made to Temple, by the Estate of Leonard Richeimer in his memory and the memory of Rabbi Herschel Levin, to be used for our Adult Education Programs. Our current number of membership units is 138. Reports were made to the Board concerning all the recent and upcoming events and services at Temple. A lengthy discussion regarding the growing need for a way to provide transportation to Temple for members who do not drive resulted in several ideas which will be followed up. Invitations have been designed and will be mailed for Temple's 65th Anniversary Shabbat service and Luncheon scheduled for June 13th. This year's honorees will be Bernice Berman and Dr. Roger Opstbaum.

Respectfully submitted,
Gail Tishcoff

From the President

Adam Gandelman

As we count down or count up to the final days of the omer, we celebrate at the end of this period with the holiday Shavuot. Shavuot is celebrated with our Confirmation ceremony. Confirmation has been a long tradition of this Temple and pictures of each of the past 64 Confirmation classes line the walls of the religious school hallway. There are three special teens that chose to commit to further their Jewish education and to become confirmands. We should be proud as a congregation and show our support to Emily Costa, Joseph Gandelman and Adison Lemmon by attending the Confirmation Service on Friday May 29th I hope to see many of you at this joyous occasion. I know personally that there will be a special oneg to follow.

On May 2nd the Temple will be holding its first Donation Day. Bring your donations and your help as we sort and organize for Rummage and Bazaar. Your help will be greatly appreciated. May 3rd is Mitzvah Day. All the arms of Temple as well as the Religious School will come together as we beautify the Temple, make sandwiches, and raise money for Temple in the Walk a Thon. We will also be doing a mitzvah by donating blood. It will be a very exciting day. The Congregational meeting will be held on Tuesday, May 19th at 8 pm. I hope to see you at this meeting.

Don't forget to mark your calendars as we honor Bernice Berman and Roger Opstbaum and celebrate the 65th anniversary of our very special Temple Beth Sholom. The luncheon will be held on Saturday, June 13. We are all looking forward to celebrating this occasion as a Temple family.

I consider myself very lucky living in a country where we have freedom to express our personal beliefs without being persecuted. This freedom has been paid by the ultimate sacrifices of our dear ones in service of our country. As we run our Rummage Sale, BBQ, Shop, or attend a parade Memorial Day weekend, please take a moment to honor those who sacrifice their lives to allow all of us the freedom that blankets our county.

Shalom!

Well, I guess I spoke too soon - April started out too cold, but May is better - Spring is finally here. May brings so many happy occasions. It is the month of music, flowers, commitment, and finally, warmth.

There are two major events I want to tell you about, and urge you to attend. On May 15, Nefashot will return to Temple Beth Shalom. If you missed their two previous Shabbatot because of weather, please come on May 15 at 7:30 PM. We PROMISE that it won't snow! We're making it an earlier time, so that all can participate. This is a fun and moving service, with electric guitars, piano, drums, and at least five blended voices, plus yours, of course!

May 31 is the Cantor's Cabaret. This will be a fun Sunday afternoon (the week after Memorial Day weekend) at 4:30 pm. We will all gather in the Ballroom. The audience will sit around tables, dinner theatre style, and the performers will regale you with song, comedy, and wonderful and funny choir music. The participants include Renee Katz-Packer, Carole Cox, Valerie Levy, Dan Harkavy, Ed Weissman, Chuck Sachs, and Cantor Barr. Afterwards, a light repast will be served, and there will be things that kids can eat, as well as a few gluten free options. Please see both flyers in this issue. Reservations are required by the 27th, so we know how much food to prepare.

Our Junior Choir returns on May 8th, for a combination of a Men's Club Shabbat and a Family Service, with the K-2 class participating as well. We also have Confirmation on the 29th. We have three Confirmands this year. They write the service, and it is very special. These young people have worked very hard, so let's all come out to support them!

See you at Temple,
Cantor Kathy Barr

Religious School News

Hallelujah! It's finally spring...and we have so much to do! May is full of wonderful activities for Religious School students and their families. First some reflections and thank you's!

We had a beautiful model seder, which wouldn't have been possible without the help of our AMAZING PA parents! They are also the backbone of our Junior Congregation game nights and all of our special programs. They will be bringing you our amazing Shul-in and Lag B'omer picnic this month. You won't want to miss either one!

In April our grade 3-4 class led us in prayer at family services. This month our K-1-2 will join with Men's club at Shabbat services on May 8. TBS is really one big family from generation to generation!

Teachers are traditionally honored on Lag B'Omer, and who teaches us more than our mothers? Join us for our picnic on May 10 to honor our Religious School teachers and our mothers ...pack a festive picnic and come ready for fun!

Our programs for this month highlight all ages in our school: from K-1-2 to our oldest class who will be confirmed on May 29! Come join them as they lead services, read Torah, and make us very proud.

We will be wrapping up a great year of Jewish Start this month as well. We look forward to seeing those smiling young faces in Hebrew School on Sundays next year!

TBS Sisterhood presents:
General Meeting and Book Club - May 2015
"People of the Book" By Geraldine Brooks

Date: Sunday, May 17, 2015

General Meeting begins at 10:30 am

Book Club begins at

Inspired by the true story of a mysterious codex known as the Sarajevo Haggadah, People of the Book is a sweeping adventure through five centuries of history. From its creation in Muslim-ruled, medieval Spain, the illuminated manuscript makes a series of perilous journeys: through Inquisition-era Venice, fin-de-siècle Vienna, and the Nazi sacking of Sarajevo. – Geraldine Brooks

By SatisfiedVirginian "Joran" on December 10, 2014:

This book moved me, not only with its emotional and sometimes tragic characters, but with the illumination of history, class, religion and faith as seen through this amazing book! This is a book I read slowly on purpose, drawing out the beauty and immersive windows into the past each historical chapter presented. I wish it had been longer honestly, but that's just indicative of how engrossing the story was and how involved in it I became. I will highly recommend this book.

Please come to our meeting to vote on the Sisterhood 2015-2017 Slate of Officers!
Stay for our book club meeting so we can hear your opinions and comments.
Breakfast will be served.

From the Men's Club

Shalom. I am composing this article on my iPhone sitting in the park on a beautiful Sunday afternoon while my kids are playing in the playground. I can finally make this bold statement: Spring has finally arrived.

Spring was transparent on April 5th at our "Walk Away the Matzo" Event. It was terrific weather and a great way to work off the Seder. We would like to thank the families who had joined ours as we walked around Little Neck Bay. We look forward to having future outside events during the year.

Spring also reminds me of baseball season which started this past week; maybe this is the year that the team from Queens makes it. Speaking of baseball, the Men's Club has some exciting news. TBS Men's Club is proud to present a day at the ballpark with the Long Island Ducks. Please join us on Sunday, August 9th which is Jewish Heritage night. Please invite your friends and family to this wonderful family friendly night out at the ballpark. Tickets are only $12 per person and parking is included. Please see the flyer in this month's voice for more details. Let's have a full temple turnout at the game and celebrate Our Jewish heritage along with some great minor league baseball.

On Friday, May 8th, the Men's Club will be leading a joint Men's Club/Family Service also led by the kindergarten, first, and second grades. Join us and support the Men's Club and children.

The next Men's Club meeting will be held on Sunday, May 17th, at 10:30 AM. We hope to see you there and discuss the upcoming events for the summer and fall season.

The Men's Club would like to thank everyone who continues to support Temple Beth Sholom and Men's Club. Please visit us on Facebook at the Temple Beth Sholom of Flushing Page and Temple Beth Sholom of Flushing Group to keep up to date on events.

If you have any questions, please e-mail MensClub@TempleBethSholom.org.

We will come together to sort and organize donations for Rummage and Bazaar. Hope to see you at this event on Saturday, May 2, 2015. Don't forget to bring your gently used clothes and your donations for Bazaar.

The festivities will continue on Sunday, May 3, during our annual Mitzvah Day and Blood Drive. Come down to Temple and participate in this wonderful event.

We will have a Book Club on Sunday, May 17 at 10:30 am. We will be discussing People of the Book, by Geraldine Brooks. We will also be voting on the upcoming Sisterhood slate of Officers.

Our Rummage sale is approaching. We need volunteers to make this a success for our temple as this is our biggest fundraiser. If you are able to donate a few hours of your time, it would be greatly appreciated. If we all give just a little of our time, we are certain that it will be a success once again. Please contact Joy Bobrow or call the office with your availability.

Our Sisterhood service will be held on Friday, June 12, 2015. We will be installing the new slate for the 2015-2017 term. I hope to see you all at this service.
