Maimonides writes, "At a time when the Temple does not exist and we have no altar for atonement, we have only Teshuvah. Teshuvah atones for all transgressions (against God). Even one who has sinned all his life and has only turned at the end, nothing of wickedness is remembered of him, as it is said, 'And as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not stumble thereby in the day that he turns from his wickedness.'" (Ezekiel 33:12)

As I write this article, it is almost Tisha B'Av, the commemoration of the destruction of the first and second Temples in Jerusalem. We turn inward, as our "official" entry into the High Holy Day period begins in the Hebrew month of Elul. The beginning of Elul to the end of Yom Kippur is a 40-day period of reflection and introspection. Our tradition, according to Pirke derebbe Eliezer, an 8th century Midrashic work, links this 40-day period with that of the 40-day period in which Moses ascended Mount Sinai a second time to receive the Ten Commandments. That same period begins on the first of Elul, which just happens to fall on September 3rd this year. Just as we look for reconciliation, forgiveness and renewal, so too does the second set of tablets represent the reconciliation of God and Israel after the sin of the golden calf. We hope, just as God forgave the Children of Israel, that God will forgive us as well.

Forgiveness and reconciliation is not easy. So, how do we begin the process? There are many traditions that help us prepare during this period. One such ritual is the Selihot service, which takes place on the Saturday evening that precedes Rosh Hashanah. According to the Machzor Vitry, an 11th century work describing the yearly cycle of observances and prayers, it is customary on that night "to rise early to the synagogue before the sun rises and beg for mercy" It was originally thought that the most propitious time to petition God was just before dawn. The person in charge of prayers in the Jewish villages of Eastern Europe would make the rounds and knock on each door to summon everyone to services. Eventually, it became a custom to hold this very important Selihot service at a time more convenient to the masses—at midnight. Nowadays, even midnight is difficult for most of us, so in order to entice you to come, we are doing something a little different this year—"Dinner and a Movie" — before our Selihot service on Saturday evening, September 24. We hope that in addition to being "fun", it will provide food for thought (pun intended!) and help prepare us for the upcoming High Holy Days. The movie is "Ground Hog Day." Although billed as a comedy, it has a universal message uniquely tied to Teshuvah. If you haven't seen it (or even if you have) come join us for a pasta dinner, the movie, and a discussion afterwards. Our Selihot service will follow at 8 pm. Please see the

August Board of Trustees Meeting

The Board of Trustees met on Monday, August 8, 2016 for the July/August meeting. Financial Secretary Gail Olenick reported we now have 131 Membership Units. The Board passed the July Financial Report presented by Treasurer Charlene Metz. The Pulpit and Ritual Chair Geri Weiss, and Rabbi Ballan, extended thanks to all Summer Lay Leaders.

The July 22nd Summer Service featuring Betty Zimmerman's very informative oral history and symbolic significance of design elements of the Temple Sanctuary, was filmed and edited by Lisa Olivero. DVDs are available for members upon request. Thank you, Betty.

Various needed repairs were discussed. House Committee Chair Jim Kettig reported on the status and estimated costs of repairs to the A/C compressor, need to repair or replace the refrigerator and replace the dishwasher. Roof repairs appear to be holding.

Barry Packer of the Ways and Means Committee presented on the impressive progress toward the Chicken Soup Cook-Off, scheduled for October 15th. We are all looking forward to this event.

Respectfully submitted,
Gail Tishcoff
Recording Secretary

Bazaar 2016 News

The summer is just about over so a hearty welcome back! It is that time of year to remind you to make sure you mark your calendars as we have been planning for Bazaar 2016 for the past few months. Bazaar 2016 will be held the first weekend of December 2016, Saturday, Dec 3rd, Sunday, December 4th, and Monday, December 5th. We feel like broken records but please do not forget that your help is urgently needed in obtaining new merchandise for ALL of our booths - children's clothes, women's clothes, men's clothes, health and beauty, toys, the country store, "as is", women's boutique, jewelry, and one of a kind. We can sell anything and everything, especially bric a brac and BOOKS !!!!!

Please remember to ask your local merchants for donations when you patronize their stores. Think about all of the shops and restaurants that you visit and ask for donations of gift certificates and any leftover merchandise. Also, because we can sell anything, don't forget to look through your closets, kitchen cabinets, garages, etc. and donate what you know you won't use!

Please remember that Bazaar is Temple's biggest fundraiser and we need volunteers to chair some of the booths and help in displaying, setting up, and pricing the merchandise. Of course, we also need volunteers to work in the booths when Bazaar is open. Please call the Temple office and let Carole or Rita know that you are interested! We really need ideas to try to jazz up Bazaar so please.....all ideas are WELCOME!!

We sent out our Bazaar packets in July which included two raffle books and a letter of introduction for you to present to your local merchants when you ask for merchandise or gift certificates or....The sky is limit!! Please don't forget to sell the raffle books and mail us back the "stubs" and the money!!! For those of you who were kind enough to already return your two sold raffle books, you are entitled to a "free" raffle book which we will complete in house and we will send you the "stubs" so that you will know your potential winning numbers!

Also we included a letter requesting your financial assistance in the form of "Angel Money" so that we can maximize our resources and minimize the costs for any merchandise/food etc. that we have to purchase.

We would like to make Bazaar better every year. Please help us make Bazaar 2016 the best one yet!

Thank you.

From the Parents' Association

It's that time again... Welcome back! There were so many successful events last year; now we can build on those ideas and make sure to get everyone involved. With that, a name you will be seeing more of is our good friend Elana White. As many of you know Lauren moved this summer and was very emotional about leaving. Her dedication and thoughtfulness have been a huge part of our success, and we are very sorry to see her go. She plans to come to events throughout the year. Elana has always been there every step of the way and thankfully she will be stepping into the role of Co-President.

As usual, September comes in a flurry this year. There will be an Open House/Welcome Back BBQ on September 9 at 6:00 pm; we're hoping to see you all there. School begins September 11, and we hope that your kids are ready to learn! Our first PA meeting is September 18 at 10:00 am; we're hoping everyone comes with ideas! We will be celebrating July, August, and September Birthdays on September 23 at 7:30 pm. Going forward, all Family Services and Simchat Shabbat Services will start at 7:30 pm, while all other services will start at 8:00.

Come October, we start the High Holidays with the Rosh Hashanah Children's Services on October 3 at 2:00 pm and Yom Kippur Children's Services October 12 at 2pm. Our first Junior Congregation Service takes place on October 14 at 7:30 pm. For anyone who hasn't attended, it's a fun night with our kids singing along, playing games, and eating yummy desserts. Sukkot festivities begin on October 16 at 4:00 pm. We will set up the sukkah, have holiday services at 5:00 pm, and then celebrate with our "Pizza In the Hut". Again we have Tot Shabbat on October 21 for our little ones. We finish off October with our annual Simchat Torah Potluck on October 23. Emails will go out at the beginning of the month with more details. Flyers will be sent out requesting the $25 PA dues to help support the Hebrew school. Looking forward to spending time with my temple family, making this another great year at TBS!

From The Pulpit and Ritual Committee

Thanks to all the summer Shabbat Service leaders: the Gandelman family, the TBS Ladies (Geri Weiss, Robin Myers, Karri Kaufman, Vicky Belsky, Gloria Shapiro, Gail Olenick), the Fertig/Bonne families, Betty Zimmermann (and her enlightening talk on the meaning of our Sanctuary), Morgan Schnitzer, the Bernstein family, the Lustig family, the Schecter/Lonborg family, and Harkavy family.

We are getting ready for our busiest time of the year! I am pleased to announce that those participating in the High Holiday Services represent our congregation's diversity. They include new and longtime members, as well as younger and more mature members! I thank you in advance. I thank the Pulpit and Ritual Committee members for their support in my new role as Chair, I am also looking ahead to another workshop to be given by Sofer Neil Yerman on Sunday, October 23rd at 4:00 pm before Simchat Torah Service,

I wish all of you a Shana Tovah, a happy and healthy new year.
Geri Weiss

From the Men's Club

Welcome back Temple Families,

We hope that you had a productive and healthy summer and are ready to begin a festive fall and New Year. As I am drafting this letter before the Long Island Ducks game, I am hopeful for last year's weather and seeing the large turnout of temple members.

If you haven't been a Men's Club member in the past, we would like to take this opportunity to welcome you and to hope that you become an active participant.

This past year, Men's Club hosted many great events. Some of those events included Match Game, Dinner out at Katz Deli, and a Defensive Driving Program. We hope to keep the rhythm persistent this year.

The bowling league has remained vibrant. While David Chenkin is leading with the highest score in the league, Mike Shapiro is leading with the number of games won since our start in January. If you want to be involved in this friendly competition, join us for our next bowling event on Thursday, September 1st. The cost is $15 which gives you 2 games, shoes, and great comradery.

For current and newcomer participants, the Men's Club will have monthly meetings on Sundays and will have an additional meeting on Wednesdays on alternating months to accommodate all schedules. Our first Kick-Off Meeting of the season will be held on Sunday, September 18th where breakfast will be served.

And now to upcoming events:

- On Friday, November 4th to start off the month of recognizing Veterans, the Men's Club will be running their annual service. If you are a Veteran, Men's Club member, or a member of the Temple and want to participate in the service, please reach out to Mike Shapiro or Eric Bernstein.
- For the past few years we have had the tradition of honoring Veterans at our annual Veteran's Day Breakfast. This year, we will continue to honor Veterans on Sunday, November 13th. We are looking for speakers for our event to discuss their involvement, accomplishments, and sacrifices that they or their family had endured while serving. If you are interested in participating, reach out Shalom!

And welcome back to Temple, for those of you who were away. It's been a long, hot summer (except when it was monsooning.) Sometimes I just wanted to go for a drive for the air conditioning in my car!

September is a very exciting month at Temple Beth Sholom. We have our first formal service with Rabbi and Cantor on September 2, an open house and barbeque the following Friday, and the opening day of Religious School that Sunday. We have picnics planned, and trips, and special services, and another special day with our second newly restored Torah - there are so many wonderful things, that I can't mention them all here. Check each issue of the Voice and our online calendar, as well as our facebook page, for all the exciting things happening here.

Of course, all through October, we have High Holy Day services, Sukkot (including Pizza in the Hut) and Simchat Torah, when we unwrap one of our newly restored Torah scrolls around the Sanctuary and chant from each of the five books.

See you at Temple!

flier in the Bulletin for more information and to let us know if you are coming.

Looking ahead to after the holidays, we are anxiously awaiting the return of one of our sefer Torah scrolls that has been out for repair. We will be holding a special Simchat Torah celebration and dinner on October 23. Sofer Neil Yerman will put the finishing touches on our Torah and teach us all about how a Torah is made. The Torah is our most precious ritual object. I hope you all will join us – to participate, celebrate and “be” Torah!

May you all be inscribed in the book of life for goodness, health and prosperity.

Religious School News

The Hebrew month of Elul, which is just beginning is a time of intense preparation and introspection. In traditional synagogues the shofar is sounded at weekday morning services, in order to remind us of the upcoming Days of Awe, Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. We, the families, faculty and students of the TBS Religious School, look at this month as our time to prepare for the holidays as well.

While we have begun to settle into our secular school routines, we look forward to returning to our Jewish and Hebrew studies to reconnect with friends, classmates, and teachers. We will be sorry to have said good-bye to some, and will look forward to meeting new people. We wish Sara Nasirov good luck in her new position in Austin, Texas. We eagerly await Shirin Shaban's good news upon the birth of her first child this fall. We also wish the Lazarus-Sokol family good luck in their new home! All of you will be missed!

The new school year will bring expanded use of interactive online components to our Hebrew Studies. We will continue to have family education programs for the holidays. Additionally, this year, we will have a regular rotational schedule for music, prayer, and library periods for all of our Sunday classes.

This new year promises to be one of new adventures in learning and sharing for all of us after what I hope has been a wonderful summer vacation for all of you, I look forward to seeing you all at the start of classes on Sunday, September 11, 2016, at 10:00 a.m.

From the President

Welcome Back!

As the summer comes to an end and autumn is right around the corner, we will gather soon to celebrate the Jewish New Year. Soon the halls will be filled with the children during Religious School and Hebrew school. There will be many planned activities, where I hope to see many of my Temple family.

But as we plan for this coming year, I personally like to evaluate the past year before Yom Kippur. I look at what I accomplished and what I further need to accomplish. I think about the people in my life, including my family, my friends and my temple family as well. I reflect on the people that I have wronged or mistreated and ask for forgiveness. But most importantly, I also forgive the ones that have wronged or mistreated me. I remember the good times and the sad times.

I want to take the time to thank those who work so hard to keep Temple such a wonderful place for all of us. It really takes a community to keep the Temple's doors open. Whether you volunteer or are able to donate any amount of money, Temple Beth Sholom needs your help and appreciates everything you could do. Please think about volunteering or getting involved in the many aspects of our Temple.

The Temple is always looking for fundraising ideas; please don't hesitate to contact the Temple office or myself (718-428-0349) with these ideas.

L'Shana Tova to my Temple family. May you all be inscribed in the Book of Life.

Adam Gandelman

to either Eric Bernstein or Mike Shapiro.

Keep an eye out for upcoming events for this next temple year including another Katz outing and a Murder-Mystery event, and a Scotch and Seder during the month of April.

As it is a new school year, the time starts now for paying your Men's Club dues. Your dues allows Men's Club to sponsor hreakfasts and other Men's Club Temple events throughout the year. Dues will be $25.00. Please be sure to complete the enclosed Men's Club Membership Form and submit the form along with the dues at the Men's Club Meeting.

We are looking forward to seeing everyone at the events planned for the coming year.

Thank you everyone for your participation.

Barbara Gandelman

President

I would like to take a moment and thank everyone who volunteers in Sisterhood and all other Temple members who support Sisterhood in so many ways.

The Annual Auction was held on Tuesday, August 2 at Ben's. Thank you to Iris Bass for all of her hard work to make this event a success. Thank you to Dan Harkavy for his wonderful auctioneering skills. We all had a great time and we raised money for Sisterhood as well!

Save the Date!!! Our annual event will be held on Sunday, October 30. This year, it will be a Paid Up Brunch. If you have not already paid your Sisterhood Dues, please send the $36 to Geri Weiss. Look for more details about this event.

Rummage is coming. Please donate your clean, gently used clothing. Please save the dates: Set up will be Sunday, November 6. Rummage will be held on Tuesday, Election Day, November 8. Rummage will be held on only one day. We are hoping that we can make this Rummage Sale as successful as the Memorial Day Rummage Sale. We were able to donate another $3,000.00 to Temple from the proceeds of the last Rummage Sale. If you are able to volunteer, please leave a message at the office for Joy Bobrow. Any help is greatly appreciated.

We will be having a Book Club Meeting on Sunday, November 13 at 10:45 am. We will be reading Firefly Lane and Fly Away, by Kristin Hannah. Diane Shtulman has arranged for copies to be available at the Fresh Meadows Library. I hope you can attend the Brotherhood's Veteran's Day Breakfast before our Book Club Meeting.

Please support our Sistergrams. Sharon Katz has taken on this job. Thank you to Sharon for saving this tradition that we all enjoy.

I hope to see you at our upcoming Temple events.

From the Financial Secretary

This is just a friendly reminder to our members to kindly pay their membership dues for this year. A letter was sent to those of you who have a balance, outlining that payments may be made in installments (July 31, October 31 and January 31), may be paid monthly or in full. Should you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me at the Temple Office on Friday mornings or at 917-734-1086.
