Shalom!

Every time I get to November, which usually coincides with the Jewish month of Cheshvan, I take a sigh of relief. Why? Because all of the chagim (Jewish holidays) are over! Ironically (at least for me), Cheshvan is often referred to as "mar cheshvan" or the "bitter" month, for Cheshvan is the only Jewish month without any Jewish holidays in it. Yet November is a busy time on the secular calendar. A very important Presidential election is coming up (please make sure to vote!) at the beginning of the month with Thanksgiving at the other end. It is also a busy time for us at TBS. We have Men's Club Shabbat, Rummage & Pancake Breakfast, just to name a few events!

At the time of this writing, I am looking out at my Sukkah. Sukkot was the Pilgrims' inspiration for our modern holiday of Thanksgiving. What better way celebrate their survival and their harvest than to model it after Sukkot, our fall harvest festival in which we give thanks to God?

Judaism however, does not reduce "thanksgiving" to God to just one holiday per year. In Deuteronomy 8:10 we read "V'achalta v'savata uverachta et Adonai Elohecha al ha'aretz hatova asher natan lach. When you have eaten and are satisfied, you shall praise Adonai your God for the good land God has given you." This verse is the reason we say Birkat Hamazon, the blessing after meals. We express our appreciation for the food we have eaten and sustains us.

Gratitude is imbedded in our tradition—every day, three times a day, we pray in the Amidah, "Baruch atah Adonai, hatov shimcha u'l'cha na-eh l'hodot. Blessed are You, Adonai, Your name is goodness and You are worthy of thanksgiving." We thank God for what we have, for keeping us alive, and sustaining us.

L'hodot—to thank—is the root for the word Yehudi. Jew. To be a Jew is to be obligated to give thanks. I hope that you take the opportunity to say some words of blessing and thanks before eating your Thanksgiving meal—for health, safety, friends and family, and for the abundance we have. We also have an opportunity to say thanks with our fellow congregants and the community of Auburndale at our Annual Interfaith Thanksgiving service. This year, it takes place right here at Temple Beth Shalom, on Monday, November 21 at 7:30 pm. Please offer to help make the service a success. We need people to bake and provide for the collation as well as people to act as greeters and ushers.

Shalom u'vrachah,
Rabbi Sharon Ballan

A Note of Appreciation

A warm thank you to Geri Weiss, Pulpit and Ritual Chair, for the incredible job she did in coordinating the High Holiday Honors. It is an extremely difficult task and we so appreciate her hard work! We also want to thank Gail Olenick and her wonderful team, Rita Bellock, David Chenkin, Carole Cox, Barbara Gandelman, Fran Goldman, and Fay Halpern Schildkraut, for ensuring that the High Holiday sign in and ticket issuance went so smoothly. Thank you to Eric and Erica Bernstein for ensuring that there were apples and honey on Rosh Hashanah, and to Gail Tishcoff and Jim Kettig for the challah and orange juice to break the fast on Yom Kippur. And of course, to Fred Shapiro to his thought provoking discussion on Yom Kippur!

And last, but certainly not least, thank you to the Rabbi, the Cantor and Chuck Saks for our inspiring High Holiday Services.

The amount of work that goes on behind the scenes to ensure that our High Holiday services run smoothly and are motivating and thought provoking is quite immense, and we appreciate everything that was done by our entire temple family to make it happen this year. And of course, a warm thanks to Fred Shapiro for all his help.

Barry Packer Souper Bowl Chair

Whether it is "Mm Mm Good," or "Soup is Good Food," "Chicken Soup is Good for the Soul." All of that rang true on Saturday night, October 15 at Temple Beth Sholom's First Annual Chicken Soup Cook-Off.

The event, a fundraiser with all of the proceeds, remaining in, and going towards many facets of TBS, was a first of its kind in the Metropolitan New York area. For, as opposed to individuals participating, which happens in many cooking competitions; this one had vendors from restaurants and specialty food shops competing for awards. There were the "People's Choice Awards," selected by a vote of the approximately 150 individuals attending the event. First, second, and third place prizes were also awarded based on voting by a panel of five esteemed judges for International and Traditional categories.

That is why when Senator Avella, one of our judges. was leaving for the night, he said that he was thrilled to be a part of this event, that Temple Beth Sholom should be very proud of itself and that he will be back next year,

So remember, the 2nd Annual Temple Beth Sholom Chicken Soup Cook-Off is less than a year away. Get your tickets early and save your appetite!

From the Parents' Association

While we were thinking about all of last month's activities, a common theme kept resonating, TEAMWORK. What a wonderful group of parents we have! They are always running, doing, schlepping and offering to help with anything that is needed. Pizza in the Hut and Simchat Torah were such great successes because along with the Rabbi, Cantor and Karen, many families were there every step of the way. Simchat Torah brought about an unexpected revelation; not only are many of our members great helpers, but WOW can they cook! The Potluck was a great success with so many delicious dishes; a special thanks goes to Erica for organizing.

This month our PA meeting will be held on Sunday, November 6th at 10:00 am, and Junior Congregation will be held on Friday, November 11th at 7:30 pm. We hope to see many of you there. Thanks to all of those that have joined the Parents Association. If you have not submitted your membership form and $25 dues, we would greatly appreciate the contribution. We are striving for 100% family membership and want to celebrate with a bagel party for all the kids!

Board of Trustees October Meeting

The Board of Trustees met on Monday October 10, 2016. Financial Secretary Gail Olenick reported we now have 128 Membership Units, reflecting one resignation and the addition of 3 new members who were approved by the Board. The Board passed the September Financial report presented by Robin Myers for Treasurer Charlene Metz. The Pulpit and Ritual Chair Geri Weiss reported on upcoming special events associated with the High Holidays. TBS will be hosting this year's Interfaith Thanksgiving Service on Monday, November 21st at 7:30 PM. Barry Packer of the Ways and Means Committee presented on the impressive progress toward the Chicken Soup Cook-Off, scheduled for this Saturday, October 15th. Five members of this year's Nominating Committee were elected from the Board: Eric Bernstein, Sharon Katz, Jim Kettig, Maxine Simon, and Lee Temares. Six members will be elected during the Congregational Meeting on Tuesday, October 25th.

Respectfully submitted,
Gail Tishcoff
Recording Secretary

From the Men's Club

Well the High Holidays came and went. We here at Men's Club hope that everyone had a healthy and festive new year. We would like to take a moment to thank Jeff Cohen, Larry Schwarz, Fay Schilkraut, and Christina Weinberg for ushering during the High Holidays.

Please join us during the month of November as your Men's Club has some exciting programs for you to enjoy.

We invite you to join us at temple on Friday November 4th for our annual Men's Club Shabbat Service; there are still parts available. If you would like participate in the event, please contact Eric or myself.

On Sunday, November 13th, please join us for our Veterans' Day Breakfast: Men's Club will continue the tradition of honoring veterans at this event. Active military members will be answering questions via a recorded video and members from the Jewish War Veterans and Veterans of Foreign Affairs will be speaking at the event.

Dec 7th: Guess who eats together at the Carnegie Deli? It's your Men's Club. Please join us for a dinner out at the deli which will be closing its doors at the end of the year. Help us say goodbye to this New York landmark. We will meet there at 6:30 pm for food, drinks, and conversation. The Deli is a cash only business so please bring your paper money.

Return to your High School Prom on January 21st: A 80's Prom reunion with a night of murder. Please e-mail mensclub@templebethsholom.org if you would like to participate in the show. If you want to just watch the show, just complete the enclosed flyer.

Shalom!

It may be Cheshvan, the month with no holidays or fasts, but we're very busy here at Temple Beth Sholom. We have a Kristallnacht commemoration, the fall Rummage Sale, and the Pancake Breakfast among other things - and don't forget the bazaar coming up next month! Please look through this issue and check our website regularly for all the exciting things happening here.

Last month, as part of my high school class reunion, we had a chance to visit the Holocaust Center at my alma mater, the Bronx High School of Science. It is quite a comprehensive center with posters, maps, lots of books, interactive displays and other memorabilia from that black time. It was the dream of Stuart Elenko, z"l, a history teacher at Bronx Science. Part of the social studies curriculum, is to study at the Center. Students also have the option to study the Holocaust in depth, as a non-credit elective. You would be surprised to learn that many of the Holocaust "specialists" are not Jewish. One of the things that I was told, is that some groups including groups from area synagogues come to view the exhibit. I would like to organize a group from Temple Beth Sholom. It will be on a weekday morning (unless I can get special permission from TBS to go on a Sunday morning.) We would leave from the temple, and carpool. We could then have lunch and return to the Temple. If you are interested in going, please send me an email within the next few weeks at (cantorbarr@templebethsholom.org) and indicate whether you are available to go on a weekday, or whether it must be a Sunday. Admission to the museum is free.

Religious School News

All and all, our school year has gotten off to a wonderful start here at Temple Beth Sholom! We began with a special prayer service with Rabbi Ballan and Cantor Barr. We also distributed the first part of our family handbook, and established a regular schedule of music, library and prayer services on Sundays. Our new texts have arrived, and by the time you receive this issue of the Voice, we should be up and running in the Behrman House online learning center.

We prepared for the High Holidays with a family workshop that began with special Selichot prayers, a lesson on teshuva, repentance, making tzedaka boxes and learning home prayers together to help to ensure us a good new year. We followed up with a little music, some poetry about repentance ala Dr. Seuss, and a re-enactment of a tashlich ceremony with our own artificial Lake Beth Sholom in which we threw our written resolutions/ I'm sorries, that will be returned, still sealed, to their authors, at the end of the school year. Apples and honey ended the day. Our first Junior Congregation was well attended and greatly enjoyed by old and new friends welcoming Shabbat together, enjoying yummy snacks, and playing board games. See you at the next one! We ushered in Sukkot with music with the Cantor, great fun making and hanging sukkah decorations, shaking the lulav, and eating pizza in the hut! By the time you read this, we will have danced with the Torahs on Simchat Torah after another visit from Sofer Neil Yerman.

Here's wishing one and all a wonderful Thanksgiving surrounded by the ones you love.

Karen

We work on the sukkah together

We welcome family and friends to join us

From the President

It was a pleasure to see you over the High Holidays. Thank you to Rabbi Ballan and Cantor Barr in leading us in prayer and song.

Just over one month ago I underwent Bariatric Sleeve surgery. This was a decision in the making for some years. Since January of this year, I had many tests and preparation for the procedure.

When you call a person who's ill, wishing a friend a happy birthday or anniversary, or comfort someone that suffered a loss of a loved one, sometimes you don't understand or realize the powerful impact of this kindness until you receive it. The caring, love, and support that I continue to receive from my family, and my Temple family, is overwhelming. So far so good. The procedure went well, and the surgeon is pleased with my recovery so far. I'm feeling much better and recovering well. I want to thank you for your phone calls, prayers and well wishes. A special thank you to Rabbi Ballan who visited me and Barbara in the hospital while I came out of surgery for her prayers and support.

Please support Temple in any way that you can. You can donate to the High Holy Day Appeal. Volunteer at our fundraisers like Rummage and Bazaar. Or just support Temple by attending our events.

Talking about events, last month the Chicken Soup Cook- Off was an extraordinary event. The time and effort that was put into creating and executing this event was an enormous task. I want to thank Barry Packer and the wonderful and dedicated team who put together an amazing night. I had an incredible time and the buzz was exciting from the vendors who participated down to all the guests that attended. I can't wait till next year.

Don't forget our kickoff to Bazaar is Pancake Breakfast which will take place on Sunday, November 20, 2016. Please also volunteer to support Temple at our annual Bazaar. Any help is valuable.

I would like to wish each and every one of you a good and healthy New Year.

Adam Gandelman

Sisterhood Corner

We have finished celebrating the Jewish Holidays and are well into the New Year at Temple Beth Shalom. Our Sisterhood event was very different this year. We went to Manhattan and had a brunch at LIPS NYC. Thank you to Geri Weiss for making the arrangements so that everyone could have a good time. Our next big event will take place on Tuesday, April 25, 2017 where we will again be welcoming "Gathering Time". Look for the details as the event gets closer.

Our Rummage Sale is coming up on Tuesday, November 8 from 9:30 to 4. Thanks to Joy Bobrow and Adam Fertig and their tireless team of workers who set up and run this event twice a year. It would be wonderful if you were able to donate an hour or two, to help with the set-up of the Rummage Sale which will take place on Sunday, November 6th at 10:30 am. It would also be greatly appreciated if you are available on Tuesday, November 8th to help during the Rummage Sale. If we all help out during these events, these fundraisers can continue to survive. The Rummage Sale is Sisterhood's biggest fundraiser and we all need to help to make sure that it will continue to be a tradition in our wonderful Temple.

We will be holding a Book Club on Sunday, November 13 at 10:30 am. We will be discussing the book Firefly Lane and Fly Away, by Kristin Hannah. Please join us after the Men's Club Breakfast for a lively discussion.

We encourage all of our Sisterhood members to join us at our annual Pancake Breakfast on Sunday, November 20, at 9:30 am, where we all come together as one Temple Family. Look for the flyer in the Voice. We hope to see you all at Bazaar! This year Bazaar will take place on December 3, 4 and 5. Please try to obtain gift certificates from the places that you go to all the time. If you are able to volunteer at Bazaar, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Barbara Gandelman, Sisterhood President
