Shalom:

No, I'm not talking about the NCAA tournament, rather our celebration of the holiday of Purim! The story and customs of Purim are paradoxical. On the one hand, as we learn in the Talmud (Megillah 7b) "Rava said, 'It is a person's duty to intoxicate themselves on Purim until they cannot tell the difference between 'cursed be Haman' and 'blessed be Mordecai.'" We dress in costume, and we are permitted to be silly. The story itself can be viewed as farce, as everything is larger than life. Yet, on the other hand, it is very serious. It is a story (whether or not you believe it actually happened) about a plan to exterminate the Jews. And, as we approach the holiday in preparation, we are obligated to read the passage in the Torah about what Amalek did to us when we left Egypt (Deut. 25:17-19); how he snuck up on the Israelites and cut down the infirm and weak who were in the rear. This is Shabbat Zachor, the Shabbat of Remembrance that occurs on the Shabbat preceding Purim. I often wonder why there are so many 'opposites' in this story. But perhaps that is the point. Life is a series of opposites as well. We are forced to laugh in the face of sorrow, pain and even fear. In the words of Bobby McFerrin, "Don't worry, be happy!"

Perhaps, as well, the masks that we wear have dual purposes as Nina Beth Cardin writes, "They can both conceal and create. They hide what we choose to hide and show what we want to reveal... Costumes permit us to assume styles that might otherwise clash with the persona we normally project. Properly selecting and acknowledging our daily masks is a hard-won skill of the well-adjusted. On Purim, we are allowed to push the envelope even further."

At this time of year the weather can also waffle between winter and spring. One day it will snow, and the next day it may be 60 degrees outside. Hopefully it won't get in the way of TBS' Purim celebration which falls on Saturday evening, March 11. Come down at 6:30 pm for the Megillah reading and silly service, and stay for the Purim Ball. Our kids will have a chance to party it up at their own Purim dance on March 5, and a Purim Spiel on March 12. Details are in this month's bulletin.

Shalom Uvracha,
Rabbi Sharon Ballan

From the President

With this issue of the voice comes Spring. Spring! Spring! Spring! Spring! It's been some winter. Thank you to Jose and Santos who braved the harsh elements this winter and kept the walk way cleared all around the building.

Shabbat Across America (SAA), which will take place on Friday, March 3rd and The Purim Ball, which will take place on Saturday, March 11th, are turning out to be the new social events of the year. It's crucial to understand how important these two events have become. Both events gather not only a large percentage of our Temple family, but they also bring the community together as well. They showcase how truly amazing Temple Beth Sholom is, and reinforce our mission to provide a place for worship, education, and social events. SAA and The Purim Ball are a central part of the true meaning of who we are as a Jewish people. We pray, eat, sing, dance and rejoice together. Hope to see you at both events.

There aren't many times you could say that having a fever is a good thing, But.... Spring training for Major League Baseball is on its way, and soon opening day will be here and before you know it, you're catching baseball "fever", especially for Yankee fans! (Met's fans too!)

Personally for me, I get that same "fever" when I enter Temple and see so many of my Temple family and friends. It's a good fever to have and hopefully very contagious.

Do you remember a children's show during the 70's called "Wonderama." Its theme song was "Kids are People Too". Well.....our P.A. is having the fun filled Kids-Family Dance/Carnival. It's on Sunday, March 5th. The P.A. article and flyer will have all of the fun facts and information.

I leave you with this quote from Charles Schulz, "The people who make a difference in your life are not the ones with the most credentials, the most money...or the most awards. They simply are the ones who care the most." Pass this on to those people who have either made a difference in your life, or whom you keep close in your heart, as I did.
Adam Gandelman, President

We would like to invite you to a special Oneg Shabbat on March 24th in honor of our daughter Danielle becoming a Bat Mitzvah. Adam and Barbara Gandelman.

On Friday night, March 3, 2017, hundreds of synagogues across the continent will take part in an historic national Jewish event to celebrate that which unites all Jews—Shabbat! Everyone is invited...singles, couples, families, all ages. Let's celebrate together!

Join us for Shabbat Family Service at 6:30 pm, with dinner to follow You have a choice of the traditional kosher meal at $25 per adult, $8 per child over 5 years old OR bring a dish for the potluck to serve 8.

There is limited dinner seating so please reserve early!

Yes! We'd love to join in the celebration! Tear off this form and send it to: Temple Beth Sholom, 171-39 Northern Blvd., Flushing, NY 11358, attn: Fay Schildkraut, SAA Chair. You can contact Fay at fayschild@gmail.com or (917-509-1664) or call Elaine Larkin at 646-270-3428 after February 24th.

February Board of Trustees Meeting

The New Board of Trustees had its first meeting of the Fiscal Year on Monday, February 13, 2017. After President Adam Gandelman welcomed new and veteran Trustees, Lee Temares reviewed the basics of Robert's Rules of Order. The Temple Bylaws had been distributed via email and, per the Bylaws, President Gandelman read Article III, Section 4 to the Board. Financial Secretary Gail Olenick reported that our current number of membership units is now 124. The Board passed the January Financial report as presented by Treasurer Charlene Metz. Rabbi Ballan and Cantor Barr reported on recent and upcoming services and Purim holiday events. David Chenkin will Chair a Bylaws Committee that was formed in response to the need to propose amendments to the Bylaws to have fewer Trustees serve on the Board. Lee Temares, Jim Kettig, and Barry Packer will be on this committee.

The Board considered the request by Paul Engel, Executive Director of the Flushing Jewish Community Council (FJCC), that the Temple building be the site of a monthly food pantry. The food (all non-perishable) would be delivered on an afternoon, and on the following day there would be a FJCC volunteer staff available for security and to manage distribution of food from the Ballroom. Distribution would take from two to three hours. This request was approved on a trial basis.

Jim Kettig, House Committee Chair, presented updates on Cooling Tower maintenance and ongoing required testing, the leaks in the Skylight over the Bimah, and decisions regarding the replacement of all Temple lighting to LEDs. Karla Bonné reported that analysis of the last two years of electrical bills demonstrate a significantly higher bill to Viridian than Con Edison. Joy Bobrow will follow up with Cantor Sandy Goodman, the Viridian representative.

During her report, Cantor Kathy Barr clarified to the Board that she is now in a position to negotiate a new contract. The Board, however, voted not to enter into negotiations with Cantor Barr. There will be a Special Congregational Meeting called in order to present this recommendation to the Congregation. Options were discussed, and will be further explored by the sub-committee, to bring to this Special Congregational Meeting.

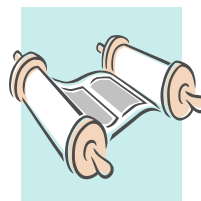

Respectfully submitted,
Gail Tishcoff
Recording Secretary

March 25, 2017*

Danielle is in 7th grade at MS 67 in Little Neck. She has been involved in Service League and the Student Organization in the school and Girl Scouts outside of school.

Danielle gives back by volunteering her time at school, at Temple, and also for the Beautiful Me project sponsored by the Hance Family Foundation. She has even donated her hair twice in the past four years to be able to help children who are receiving cancer treatments.

She has many aspirations for the future including continuing her involvement and dedication to Temple. This is evident because she always volunteers at Bazaar and has joined the Membership committee. She is also looking forward to continuing her Jewish Education.

We are very proud of her accomplishments and wish her good luck in the future.

Notes
From Cantor Kathy Barr

Shalom!

March brings Purim, the story of one of our greatest triumphs over tyranny. On Purim, we are commanded to hear the Megilah read. A megilah is a scroll, and there are actually five of them. They are Ecclesiastes, Esther, Song of Songs, Ruth, and the Lamentations of Jeremiah. Each are read on different holidays - Sukkot, Purim, Pesach, Shavuot and Tisha B'Av, respectively. The one we read on Purim is the book of Esther. It is also the one we customarily read from a scroll. There is a special trope for Esther. It is very different from the regular Torah trope we hear on Shabbat, or haftarah trope, or High Holiday Torah trope. There is as well a special trope for Ruth, Ecclesiastes and Song of Songs, known as RES trope, and another one for Lamentations. In Esther, we have what are known as detours. These are certain passages that are sung differently, such as 1:7, and 2:6, where these passages are rendered sadly, reminiscent of the trope used in Lamentations. Others are exultant or agitated. There are all in all eighteen detours in the ten chapters of the book of Esther.

This Purim, I will be chanting from Megilah Esther in Esther trope, from our Megilah, which we keep in the display in the upper lobby. Megilahs are very often kept in a special canister, and the attached scroll rolls out of the canister, like ours. I've seen them made out of silver and wood. The scroll, like the Torah scroll, is handwritten by a sofer, on parchment made from Kosher animals. Other ways of making megilot are simply rolling up the scroll and placing it in a canister. I encourage you to come see the Megilah and to hear it chanted on Saturday night, March 11th, before the Purim Ball. We will also be having a Purim service for the religious school the next morning, during which I will chant from the scroll again. Then, the children will present the Purim spiel. This year, it is called Peter Pansky. The children are having a lot of fun, and it will be a very enjoyable morning. Come hear the silly melodies of the prayers too, as on Purim, we are supposed to be irreverent and have fun.

On March 17th, we will present a Pop Shabbat. Most of the melodies of the prayers will be pop tunes you

Religious School News

If Tu Bi Shevat has passed, then Purim must almost be here!

I am still basking in the glow of our amazing Tu Bishevat Seder! When life dealt us lemons, and the FSG room was not available, our amazing team of volunteers and I shifted gears, with Jose's help, and turned our school hallway into a festive site for celebration!

Students in all grades planted parsley seeds which should be ready for harvest for Passover, in their classrooms. They then joined their parents for a participatory and tasty celebration of the New Year of the Trees. Our fruity feast included persimmons from Israel that many of the participants, including Rabbi Ballan had never tasted, so we added the shehechyanu blessing to our service.

Cup of tea at her side for her sore throat, Cantor Barr still managed to lead us in a few songs, while I filled in for the songs included in the seder itself. Rabbi Ballan led the proceedings, while calling on parents and students to join in the readings. Teamwork, the hallmark of TBS, made it a wonderful morning. Thanks especially to the PA who worked so hard for us as always!

I can hardly wait to bake hamantaschen, hear some megillah, have a wonderful Purim party, and see our students perform a fantastic Purimspiel under Cantor Barr's direction! Remember to check your calendars for all the dates!

People may disparage March as a month of wicked weather...but for me it's TIME TO BE HAPPY....IT'S ADAR!!!!

From the Men's Club

Well spring is almost upon us and that means baseball. Men's Club is starting spring with educational lectures and outdoor activities to get you ready for the nice weather that is approaching.

First up is Sunday, March 28th at 10:00 am with breakfast at 9:30 am. Part 1 of the Jews in Sports Series features Alan Freedman, Founder & Director of the Jewish Sports Heritage Association. He will speak about the onset of Jewish athletes in boxing, basketball, baseball, and football and their challenges and triumphs throughout their careers.

Or make it a double play, and meet us on Sunday, April 16, at 10:00 am at Little Bay Park for our Annual Matzo Walk to help burn off those Matzo carbs. Bring a ball and glove to have a catch or bring your dog for a walk; it's a great time with great scenery.

You could hit a triple and come to Temple for our 2nd part of the Jews in Sports Series, Sunday, April 23rd at 10:00 am. Breakfast is at 9:30 am. Come hear Mike Silver, Author of Stars in the Ring: Jewish Champions in the Golden Age of Boxing. Learn about the popularity of Jewish boxers from 1901 to 1939 and the fascinating stories of 29 Jewish world champions.

For those really competitive types you can hit for the cycle and come bowl with us at our monthly Bowling Club on Thursday March 2nd at 8:00pm at Jib Lanes.

Also, be on the look in this issue of The Voice for our flyer for our 3rd annual outing to the Long Island Ducks on Sunday August 20th to help them celebrate Jewish Heritage Night.

May you all hit homeruns this spring.

I will also be teaching one new melody to you – and the words are lai lai lai. We will be joined by Chuck Sachs on keyboard, Don Fast (who you may remember from when Nefashot has joined us) on guitar, and maybe even some surprise guests!

Sisterhood Corner

I hope that you are enjoying the unpredictable weather that we are having this winter. Whether it is snowing or spring like, Temple Beth Sholom is always warm and cozy.

We held our Book Club on Sunday, February 5, 2017 where we discussed My Grandfather Would Have Shot Me, by Jennifer Teege. Thank you to Diane for always making sure that we have books reserved at the library. We will be reading The Ice Cream Queen of Orchard Street, by Susan Jane Gilman for our next book discussion. Look for details to follow.

Shabbat Across America will take place on Friday, March 3, 2017. There will also be the annual Purim Ball on Saturday March 11. Although these are not just Sisterhood events, they are nights where we all come together to enjoy Shabbat and the holiday of Purim. Please let Fay Shildkraut know if you will be a part of these most enjoyable evenings.

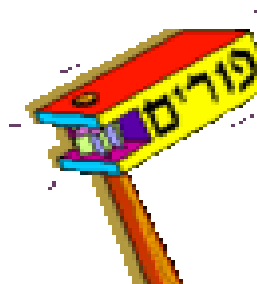

Please join us on Sunday, March 19, at 9:30 am for a Sisterhood's Breakfast with the Rabbi. Bring your questions about Judaism and enjoy breakfast with your Temple family. All are welcome.

Our Dinner, and Concert with Gathering Time, will take place on Tuesday, April 25 at 6:15 pm. Please read the flyer and RSVP if you will be able to attend this event. It is certain to be an exciting time where we will enjoy dinner, dessert and music. There might even be some dancing!!

Rummage is coming!! Please donate your gently used, clean items so that we can sell them in May. We will also need volunteers for set up and for the sale itself. Please let Joy Bobrow or myself know if we can count on you for this fundraiser for Temple.

Please read the Voice and check your emails for all details.
