From the Rabbi's Desk

Passover, like our other festivals (Sukkot and Shavuot) is dual in nature. That is, we have both an historical component as well as a seasonal or agricultural aspect to our celebration. Historically, we recall the Exodus from Egypt. We physically act out the story of Passover during our seders. For me, the very act of cleaning, cooking and preparing for the holiday enables me to feel a little bit like it must have been to be a slave!

All kidding aside, experiencing both slavery and freedom is what Passover is all about. Passover is also known as "Zeman Heiruteinu" the "Time of our Freedom." Sometimes external forces enslave us—we become slaves to our environment, our surroundings and entrapments, but sometimes we can be our own worst enemies and we enslave ourselves. Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel taught that true freedom "is the liberation from the tyranny of the self-centered ego."

Agriculturally, we learn in the Torah that Passover must take place in the month of Aviv (spring), and is also referred to as Hag Ha-Aviv. Alas, as of this writing, it doesn't feel much like spring, as there is still half a foot of snow in my yard!

Is there a connection between "Hag Ha-Aviv" and "Zeman Heiruteinu?"

The Israelites, who were enslaved by Pharaoh, and seemed destined for degradation and perhaps annihilation, break forth out of Egypt into a new life towards the land of milk and honey, just like new growth bursts forth from the hard, cold ground into the warmth of spring.

Rabbi Michael Strassfeld writes in The Jewish Holidays, "The watchwords of both spring and Pesach are rebirth and hope. Thus, the spirit of renewed optimism aroused by the sights and smells of spring are reinforced in a Jewish context by Passover with its trumpeting of the possibilities of liberation. Passover reminds us annually that no matter how terrible our situation, we must not lose hope."

I know I saw a few crocuses popping up out of the snow. I am not losing hope that there will be a spring, rebirth and growth!

Walt and I wish you a joyous and zissen Pesach!

Rabbi Sharon Ballan

From the President

Henry Ford said, "Coming together is a beginning. Keeping together is progress. Working together is success."

The Temple had three fantastic events last month. These events take months of planning and volunteers to help put them together.

The First was Shabbat Across America. Thanks to our vice president, Dr. Fay Shildkraut, for orchestrating this event. The food was delicious; the service was fun. Thank you to Rabbi and Cantor. Thank you to all who cooked food and to our BBYO kids and everyone that helped make that night so special.

We danced the night away at the Purim Ball. What amazing dancers we have. Thank you to Fay Shildkraut and her team of volunteers who put this wonderful event together. I can't wait until next year.

What an amazing Purim Dance Temple had for our children. Thank you to our P.A. co-presidents Elana White and Kari Shapiro for putting together the Purim event, and to the families of the P.A. who volunteered and helped out. Lots of fun was had by all, especially the children.

May you have a healthy and happy Passover.

"Destiny is not a matter of chance, it is a matter of choice. It is not a thing to be waited for. It is a thing to be achieved." Winston Churchill.

Adam Gandelman,
President

Last Month's Purim Fun!

The children's Purim Spiel was very cute. There were lots of laughs and merriment. Many parents took pictures as well. The cast was Alyssa Shapiro as Peter (Mordechai), Danielle Gandelman as Wendy (Esther), Aaron White and Sabrina Shapiro as Michael (Mi-cha-el) and John (Yochanan) - we don't know who was who - and Ella Manziello as their maid whom we called Esmerelda Megillacuddy. Seth White was Smee (King Achashveirosh), Justin White as Bigtan (a pirate), Aaron White as Teresh (a pirate); Hannah Slomovicz as Vashti, Ben Slomovicz joined as as one of the lost boys (Israelites of Shushan) and a huge shout out to Aviva Kaufman, who at the last minute did double duty, playing the parts of Tinkerbell and Captain Hook (the evil Haman.) Sabrina Shapiro was the Crocodile, who took Vashti, Bigtan and Teresh and Haman away. Thank you to everyone who helped, Rabbi, Karen and all the parents, as well as Eric Bernstein who provided the capes and the crown for the King and Esther.

Fun at the Purim Ball!

March Board of Trustees Meeting

The Board of Trustees met on Monday March 13th, 2017. Our current number of membership units is now 123. The Board passed the February Financial report as presented by Robin Myers for Treasurer Charlene Metz.

The Board discussed the recent resignation of Office Assistant Carole Cox and its implications. The Pulpit Committee reported on some changes planned for this year's High Holiday services and a flowering plant was sent to Past-President Carol Lowenstein for her 100th birthday.

Rabbi Ballan acknowledged with sadness the burial of Adele Robbins this afternoon. She reported on Purim services and events and on upcoming services. She will be facilitating Holocaust Survivors program at the Kupferberg Holocaust Center on April 7th and on April 5th she will be giving a benediction/blessing at the Flushing District Attorney's Crime Victims Advocate Program's National Crime Victims Ceremony.

Cantor Barr reported on Purim fun and upcoming Simchat Shabbat service, which will be the "Pop" Shabbat. Cantor's Cabaret is scheduled for Saturday night, April 22nd.

Jim Kettig reported on financial and structural analysis of the skylight in the Sanctuary and much needed work required on the Sanctuary ceiling.

Fay Schildkraut reported on the successful Shabbat Across America services and dinner, attended by 92 people. The Purim Ball was a lot of fun and netted $1,000.00 for Temple.

Reports from Sisterhood, Religious School, Men's Club, and the Parents Association reviewed recent and upcoming events.

Jeff Cohen reported that Men's Club will be doing the next Book Sort on April 6th - for ongoing efforts to sort the thousands of books we have in advance of the next Bazaar set-up.

Library News

New Books are in the Ackerman Memorial Library!

Thanks to Andrea Odintz for donating many children's books, some about the different holidays, others with Jewish themes.

TBS congregant Sharon Haimer has donated two books written by her mother, Frances Daitch. In "The Well Among the Cherry Trees," Mrs. Daitch writes about her youth in Poland through short stories. In "Parting with Yesterday," she puts together a collection of essays written about leaving her life in Poland, and her new life in America. There is even a page written about her granddaughter Debra's Bat Mitzvah at Temple Beth Shalom!

Betty Zimmerman has donated a signed copy of "Ketchup is My Favorite Vegetable: A Family Grows Up With Autism," written by former Temple member Liane Kupferberg Carter. This is the best kind of memoir because it is an honest and forthright portrayal of how one family learned to grow and thrive with autism.

Pulpit & Ritual Committee

There is an amazing opportunity to support Temple, attend Shabbat services, and share a simcha all at the same time! You can host an Oneg Shabbat, (for a fee), the coffee hour following a Friday night Shabbat service to celebrate a family event, (birthday, anniversary, birth, wedding), or to pay tribute to a family member who has passed away. Sisterhood provides the refreshments for the Oneg Shabbat. You are welcome to bring a specially inscribed cake or other items such as fruit, nuts, candy, etc. Interested? Contact Martha Hirsch at 516-829-9108.

Notes From Cantor Kathy Barr

Shalom!

April brings Spring (hopefully), warmer weather and lots of flowers. It also brings Pesach. Pasach means to pass over, as the Angel of God passed over the houses of the Jews in Egypt, sparing them the last plague, the slaying of the first-born. There is a special trope for the Song of Songs, which we read on Pesach. It is reserved for the three festivals, and is known as RES trope, or Ruth, Ecclesiastes and Song of Songs. Each scroll we read instead of the haftarah on the designated day of the festival is chanted in this special trope. As Pesach begins on the first full moon of the New Year; the month at that time of Aviv (Spring), it is appropriate to sing of flowers and love. During Pesach, we also repeat the readings from the Torah about the first Passover, and the flight from Egypt.

Pesach is my favorite holiday. I even love Matzah! When I was a little girl, our seders went on forever. We always had at least one scholar, a few religious school teachers, and as much family and friends as we could fit (it was really tight!). Most children would be hiding under the table, but I loved every second. Hearing our friend, Jean Moldovan, sing some of the prayers, is what inspired me to become a cantor.

April 22nd also will be the Cantor's Cabaret. This time, it will be on a Saturday night. We will of course be serving dinner, have a cash bar, and it will be lots of fun. This is definitely NOT a "cantorial" concert! There will be torch songs and love songs, rock songs and Broadway songs, solos and ensembles — comedy and sing-alongs too. All the fun starts at 7 pm. Hail, hail, the gang's all here! Join us!

Happy Spring,
Cantor Kathy Barr

Religious School News

What a month of Adar we had here at TBS! From Shabbat Across America to our second annual PA Purim DJ Party and Carnival for our Hebrew School students and friends, to the Megillah Reading and Purim Ball for adults and the Purimspiel and service for our students, it was truly a joyful time to remember! Kudos to all of the students who participated in the Spiel and to Cantor Cathy Barr for making it happen. Our PA outdid itself once again for the benefit of our kids, and we are grateful!

Now that Purim is a happy memory, we have jumped right into Passover preparation. Students are polishing up their Four Questions, reviewing the story and the meaning of the holiday, and preparing for both our Model Seder and their own family celebrations. Our youngest students began by hearing the Passover story, singing songs, coloring pictures, and watching video clips that told the story in many different ways. They all expressed their fondness for matzah, "just plain."

As part of our Passover prep, we must acknowledge the hard work of Geri Weiss, who organized the annual Passover candy sale, bringing a handsome profit to TBS Religious School, along with some tasty Passover treats!

We are also gearing up for our Mitzvah Day programming, our annual field trip, and the Lag BaOmer picnic. April will bring class led services by our seventh grade class, followed by grades 4, 5, and 6 in May, and our youngest students will join in leading Junior Congregation Shabbat in June. Please mark the dates below on your calendars and join us for as many of these events as you can. More information will be forthcoming.

- April 7: Grade 7 Shabbat
- April 9: Model Seder
- May 5: Grade 4, 5, 6 Shabbat
- May 7: Mitzvah Day
- May 14: Lag BaOmer Picnic
- May 21: Field Trip
- June 9: Closing Exercises, Junior Congregation Shabbat, and Grade 2-3 Shabbat.

From my family to yours, please accept good wishes for a wonderful and meaningful Passover and a Seder surrounded by those you love!

From the Men's Club

A healthy spring and Pesach to everyone.

Passover is the optimal time for dehoarding:

Dehoard the house by donating new or slightly used items to Bazaar or Rummage. As the seasons will be changing so will your wardrobe. We have our rummage sale Monday, May 29th.

Dehoard the calories at our annual "Walk Away the Matzo" event on Sunday, April 16th at 10:00 AM at Little Bay Park (underneath the Throgs Neck Bridge). Just like our ancestors walked out of Egypt, we can walk away the matzo and feel healthier after that big Passover Seder. This opportunity provides the opportunity of fresh air, healthy exercise, and time to reflect what you have accomplish this year and your goals for the remainder of the year.

Dehoard your mind and the temple grounds on Sunday, May 7th during "Mitzvah Day". Help Religious students plant flowers for the warmer seasons. At the same time members can do their part in keeping the grounds clean by collecting the litter around the temple.

Don't forget the other events happening the rest of the year:

- Join Men's Club and Adult Education on Sunday, April 23rd for Part two of the "Jews in Sports" series. Mike Silver, Author of "Stars in the Ring: Jewish Champions of Golden Age Boxing" will be discussing the popularity of Jewish Boxers in the early 20th century.
- Tickets are already on sale for "Jewish Heritage Night" at the Long Island Ducks on Sunday, August 20th. Spend this comfortable summer evening at Bethpage Park with other Temple Members at we honor this annual event.

Join us at our next Men's Club meeting on Sunday, April 2nd at 11:00 AM.

If you have any questions, concerns, or ideas, please feel free to e-mail us at MensClub@TempleBethSholom.org.

Sisterhood Corner

Welcome to Spring! We have turned the clocks ahead and are looking forward to sunny days and blooming flowers!

We will be hosting a Sisterhood Dinner and Concert featuring "Gathering Time" on Tuesday, April 25, 2017. Please bring your family and friends to this fun filled evening. The flyer is in this issue of the Voice. Please RSVP to Iris Bass with your reservations.

The Religious school is sponsoring the sixth annual Mitzvah Day which will take place on Sunday, May 7, 2017. Please join the school on that day and do a Mitzvah!! Look for details in the flyer about sponsoring a child or a class for the walkathon to raise money for Temple and the Religious School. We will also be honoring the Temple members that have passed away this year. All monies that are donated benefit the school and Temple.

Speaking of May, don't forget to donate your gently used, clean clothing for our annual Memorial Day Rummage Sale which will be held on Monday May 29 at 9:30 a.m. We also need volunteers for the set-up and the actual sale. Please contact Joy Bobrow @ maxjolo@msn.com or call her at 917-535-9496 or Barbara Gandelman @ adbarb1@aol.com or call at 718-428-0349 if you are available to help with this event.

We will be reading the book "The Ice Cream Queen of Orchard Street" by Jane Susan Gilman. We will be discussing this interesting book on Tuesday, May 23, 2017 at 7:30. I hope to see you all at this event.

Please don't forget to keep the Sisterhood funds in mind when you want to honor a loved one. We appreciate the support by the other arms of Temple and are looking forward to working together on many more events.

Hope to see you at our upcoming activities.

As a child, Malka Treynovsky unwittingly helps her father dupe her mother about their destination when they flee the Russian pogroms for America, thus starting a life of deception that would become second nature. After her father abandons the family and her mother loses her mind, Malka is hideously crippled in a bizarre accident. In a scene straight out of Dickens, the orphaned invalid is adopted by an ambitious Italian ice-cream vendor who renames her Lillian and transforms her into the image of a dutiful Catholic daughter. When she falls in love with the movie-star-handsome Jewish immigrant Albert Dunkle, Lillian is cast out of the family, but not before learning everything about the ice-cream business. As she and Bert build an empire that catapults them, Forrest Gump-like, into the twentieth century's biggest events, Lillian assumes the self-proclaimed role of America's Ice Cream Queen and vows to do whatever it takes to survive. Travel memoirist Gilman (Undress Me in the Temple of Heaven, 2009) presents an ambitious and lavish immigrant rags-to-riches-to-rags first novel rife with humor and moxie. —Carol Haggas
