From the Rabbi's Desk

"Journeys and Milestones"

On the secular calendar, it is the month of June. On the Hebrew calendar, we move from the month of Sivan to Tamuz. In our cycle of Torah reading, we move from the book of Leviticus, to the book of Numbers. In Hebrew, this book is called B'midbar, "in the wilderness." In this book, the Children of Israel spend thirty-eight years in this wilderness, wandering.

What was the purpose of this wandering, and why the wilderness? The desert is a difficult place. There are no landmarks to indicate how many more miles to go. It is a challenging place; basic needs are hard to come by. Perhaps that is the point—in times of difficulty and challenge we can experience the most growth. The Children of Israel developed into a nation in this vast, empty desert.

Like the Israelites' journeys in the desert, we learn that the most important things in life are neither simple, nor trouble-free. Sometimes we need to live 'in the wilderness' where things are challenging and uncomfortable, and even mundane.

But, although the wilderness might feel like a lonely, forbidding place, we are not alone. We have family, friends, and most importantly, our TBS community, sustaining us on our journey.

Unlike "midbar," the wilderness, the month of June does contain milestones and markers. We have journeyed in time to complete a school year; there are graduations and celebrations. On June 2 we will celebrate with Justin Rossman and his family as he becomes Temple Beth Sholom's newest confirmand. Mazal Tov to him and his entire family!

June 9th marks the end of our Religious School year. The Junior Congregation will help lead our Shabbat service and the Religious School will hold their closing exercises. Please celebrate with Sisterhood on June 23rd when they lead us in prayer and install their 2017 Board.

Finally, I would like to wish Cantor Kathy Barr all the best as she leaves us at the end of the month. Good-byes are so difficult. I never thought about it before, but perhaps that is one reason that there isn't a separate word for 'good-bye' in Hebrew. When we say good-bye (shalom) we are really wishing one another peace, and that everything will be all right. So, I wish Cantor Barr shalom rav, much peace.

B'Shalom
Rabbi Sharon Ballan

From the President

There have been many Temple events this past month. It was great to see the temple family come together at Mitzvah Day and at the blood drive. These events are truly an indication of what we can do as one Temple family.

It was an honor to be the pulpit officer as one of our own students led us at his Confirmation ceremony. He read with confidence and showed us all how important this event was to him and to his family. Confirmation holds a special place in my heart. It reminded me of the first time I came to Temple Beth Sholom. Many things have changed but the warmth that I felt that first night still remains. We have a very special place where all are welcome.

Thank you to everyone who came and volunteered at Rummage. Over the next few months, we will be concentrating on Bazaar. If you would like to help at this important fundraiser for temple, please let me know.

I would like to thank Cantor Barr for her years as the cantor of Temple Beth Sholom. The last service in the sanctuary before the summer will be on June 23. We will be honoring the cantor at this service.

I hope that you all have a restful summer. There will be Temple events and I hope to see you all at Summer Services.

Adam Gandelman
President

May Board of Trustees Meeting

The Board of Trustees met on May 8th. Our current number of membership units is now 122 families, after past President Carol Lowenstein's death. March and April financial reports were accepted by the Board, as presented by Treasurer Charlene Metz. Rabbi Sharon Ballan reported on recent and upcoming services and Adult Education events. She urged all to attend the Confirmation of Justin Rossman on June 2nd. Cantor Kathy Barr reported on recent and upcoming Bar/Bat Mitzvah students through June, and Jr. Choir events. She expressed how much she has enjoyed working with and teaching the students and Jr. Choir participants. The Food Pantry continues to distribute on the 3rd Tuesday of the month. Sisterhood, Religious School, Men's Club, and the Parents Association reviewed recent and upcoming events. Jeffrey Cohen reported the bi-monthly book sort has now sorted 7,000 books in advance of Bazaar. Jeffrey Cohen has been elected to be the new Men's Club President. Erica Bernstein and Elana White have been elected to be Co-Presidents of Parents' Association. Sisterhood will hold its elections on May 23rd. Sisterhood Shabbat will be on June 23rd and Cantor Kathy Barr will be honored at that service. The Board of Trustees reviewed the one-year contract negotiated with Jerry Korobow to provide Cantorial services, and the Board voted to present this contract to the Congregation for ratification at the May 16th congregational meeting. The Board also approved a motion to create a Contract Review subcommittee to review all TBS contracts to assure they reflect current practice and meet existing law. The Board approved a motion to authorize additional funds to the Membership Committee to fund a mass mailing for the Sept. 8th Open House and Membership Drive. House Committee Chair Jim Kettig emailed a detailed report on the dire condition of our cooling tower and the immediate steps that have been taken to rebuild it and to perform ongoing required maintenance. Rebuilding cost has been estimated at $15,000.

Respectfully submitted,
Gail Tishcoff
Recording Secretary

Lt. Marvin Ackerman Memorial Library News

The Library acknowledges Lee and Mike Temares' donation of the following book in memory of Carol Lowenstein: The Flag with Fifty-Six Stars by Susan Goldman Rubin. It was written for children but a great story for all to read. The book is an inspiring account of the liberation of the Mauthausen concentration camp, and how a group of prisoners sewed scraps of sheets and jackets together to make a U.S. flag.

Mazel Tov to Our June Bar Mitzvah Evan May June 10, 2017

Pulpit & Ritual Committee

There is an amazing opportunity to support Temple, attend Shabbat services, and share a simcha all at the same time! You can host an Oneg Shabbat, (for a fee), the coffee hour following a Friday night Shabbat service to celebrate a family event, (birthday, anniversary, birth, wedding), or to pay tribute to a family member who has passed away. Sisterhood provides the refreshments for the Oneg Shabbat. You are welcome to bring a specially inscribed cake or other items such as fruit, nuts, candy, etc. Interested? Contact Martha Hirsch at 516-829-9108.

Notes From Cantor Kathy Barr

Shalom!

Shalom is the word used in Israel to say hello and goodbye. It means peace and well-being and completeness. I use it here in all of its senses. The past three years have been very special. I have gotten to know a warm and nurturing congregation. I will miss you all; I have been with you for the joys, the sorrows, the laughter, the delicious food, the community events...I have watched and joined when this community came together for each other when someone was in need, when a simcha was being celebrated, or for an evening of entertainment.

I have especially enjoyed working with the children. We have sung together, laughed together, and made lots of chicken soup (with some very strange ingredients). Watching them grow has been a great source of joy and amazement. Training the students for bar and bat mitzvah has been very rewarding as well. I have marveled at how talented and enthusiastic they can be. I have loved leading the Junior Choir, Shir Chadash. What a group of special young people!

The Purim spiels have been great fun, and the kids did a fantastic job, whether it was for a Lion Queen, an homage to Sesame Street or Peter Pansky. The Cantor's Cabarets were also great fun, and some very talented singers got to show off what they could do.

But most of all, I will miss being your cantor; leading services with Rabbi Ballan, teaching you new melodies, making prayerful song with you. Thank you to Rabbi Ballan, Karen Feit, Jose Urbina, Santos, and everyone who has given so much of their time and talents to Temple Beth Shalom, be it as Board members, parents, sisters, brothers, Ritual/Pulpit members, or all of them! I wish you Shalom.

Cantor Kathy Barr

Religious School News

On Sunday May 7, we had the most amazing Mitzvah Day! Despite a damp and cloudy day outside, there was light and joy and high energy inside the building. While the Blood Drive went on in the FSG room, our students were busy taking turns planting flowers to beautify the Temple grounds, decorating lunch bags for the River Fund, packing grown-in-Israel clementines in the lunch bags, and making PB&J sandwiches to complete the lunches!

Thanks to Eric Bernstein for helping our planters! For the second year in a row, our sandwich makers were ably instructed and assisted by our wonderful Hebrew School moms. Thanks to Karri Kaufman, Stephanie Rosenberg, Leora Kaufman, Jeri Gilbert, Andrea Odintz, and anyone else whose name I have forgotten...Our students also got to snack on the fruit from Israel and make the bracha borei pri ha-etz. Thanks to all those who supported our walkers who concluded the morning with the Walkathon! This year we raised over $700!!!

So sorry that our Lag B'Omer picnic was cancelled...all goes to show us that weather forecasting is a highly inexact science.

Kudos to our grade 4,5,6 class and the Junior Choir for the exceptional way they led our May family service! I heard all kinds of compliments from Congregants! Our Junior Congregation Shabbat and Closing Exercises on June 9th will feature Junior Congregation regulars along with members of the grade 2-3 class.

Our second annual field trip on May 21 continued the learning that started last year when we learned about immigrants arriving at Ellis Island. We learned about immigrant life on the Lower East Side and toured the Eldridge Street Synagogue, then went on to a Greek Jewish Street Fair sponsored by Kehilla Kedosha Janina, the only Romaniote synagogue in the Western Hemisphere. We also got to tour the Synagogue and its museum.

Please be in touch to register your students for Religious School next year. We need to begin our planning process ASAP! Forms are available in the school office, and will be sent out electronically as well. Let your Jewish friends know what a wonderful program we have here at TBS, and encourage them to sign up too!

Mazal tov to our beloved teacher Rob Shimonov, his wife Mariya, and their son Liam on the birth of baby Adam!

Wishing all of you a Hag HaShavuot Sameah! (Happy Shavuot!)

From the Men's Club

Mitzvah Day was a success. Students helped with planting some greenery outside the temple. We thank all the students who participated to make the grounds cleaner and greener. A special thank you to Sam Rosenberg and Superior Florists for their donation of the plants.

Just as soil needs rotation for growing new plants, so does the Men's Club for fresh ideas. After this term, Mike Shapiro and Eric Bernstein are stepping down as Men's Club Co-Presidents. Jeff Cohen has volunteered to be the new president. Jeff has demonstrated his devotion to temple with his involvement in the Chicken Soup Cook-off and book collection for the annual Temple Bazaar. Mike and Eric will continue their involvement in Men's Club and support Jeff through his term. Eric will stay on as treasurer and will also be focusing on chairing the Adult Education program and arranging additional programming. Both Mike and Eric appreciated everyone's involvement in the Men's Club events, and we look forward to seeing more activities and participation.

Men's Club looks forward to continuing Veteran's Day Breakfasts, Jewish deli visits, and game show nights. Eric is grateful to have worked with Andrew Larkin and Mike to share his passion of game-shows and the '80's with the temple membership and also for teaching him a thing or two about sports. Eric humbly admits that previously, his only sports focus was the 1986 Mets.

Last month Men's Club and Adult Education welcomed Mike Silver to speak as part of our new "Jews in Sports" series. Join us for part three of "Jews in Sports" at Jewish Heritage night with the Long Island Ducks at Bethpage Park on Sunday, August 20th. The first pitch is at 5:05 pm. There is still time to purchase tickets for this traditional event. If you are interested in taking family and friends, please contact Mike Shapiro.

Ending on a good note, congratulations to Mike Shapiro who holds the new high score for the league of 177, breaking Jeff Cohen's eight-month high score. We also welcomed Mike Temares to our league last month. Please join us for our next bowling night on Thursday, June 1st at Jib Lanes at 8 pm.

Until next month,

Mike Shapiro & Eric Bernstein
Men's Club Co-Presidents

Sisterhood Corner

We hope you are enjoying Spring! The grounds around the Temple are beautiful thanks to all of the people who helped to beautify them during Mitzvah Day. Thank you to Sam Rosenberg for donating the flowers. Thank you to Men's Club for helping the students to plant the flowers. Thank you to Karen Feit for picking up the ingredients to make the sandwiches. This Temple event was an example of everyone coming together to make our Temple a more beautiful place. Thank you to everyone who donated and participated in the Walkathon.

We had our Book Club on Tuesday, May 23rd. We had a general meeting before the book club where we voted on our new slate for the 2017-2019 term. I would like to take a moment and thank Diane Shtulman for making sure that the books for our book club are reserved at the Fresh Meadows library. Thanks to everyone who participated in this event.

Our Rummage sale was again a success thanks to everyone who came to volunteer their time for the set up and for the actual sale. Your support was appreciated. A special thank you to Adam Fertig and Joy Bobrow who continue to make sure that this event is a success. I would also like to thank everyone who donated their clothes and their time for this event.

Don't forget our Sisterhood service which will take place on Friday, June 23rd. We will be installing our new Sisterhood board as well as honoring Cantor Barr. Please come and join us at this special service.

We are looking forward to our annual auction which will take place during the summer. Look for details in the summer Voice.

Please send in your dues for the upcoming year. The dues are $36. In case you did not know, anyone can be a Sisterhood member. If you are not a member of our Temple, the dues are $76. Please let your friends from other congregations know this little tidbit.

Thank you to everyone who continues to support Sisterhood and Temple Beth Shalom.

Scoop's Schmooze

This is a monthly column by Board of Trustee member, Barry "Scoop" Packer, with the topic for this month being all that Temple Beth Sholom has to offer everyone.

There are two old adages and one phrase that come to mind as I write this column. The terminology is "House of Worship," while the sayings are "What came first, the chicken or the egg?" and "Home is where the heart is."

During its heyday, the synagogue that I grew up in on the South Shore of Boston, which is a handful of years younger than our own Temple Beth Sholom, had 400 families and between 1,100 and 1,200 members. There was a well-attended religious school, Friday night, Saturday and holiday services, weekly Bingo, plays and concerts, USY, and other activities. Unfortunately, the altering demographic in the community and the congregation's changing population led to Temple Beth Am having to shutter its doors and sell its facility. And within the past month, they relocated the remaining congregants, clergy and artifacts to another synagogue in a neighboring town; where, for now, they will co-exist as individual entities and then, in the future, quite possibly merge with that congregation.

And, as all this was taking place a couple of hundred miles away, I pondered how we could make sure this doesn't happen with our synagogue. I reflected on the most recent Board of Trustees and Membership Committee meetings, where the question was raised as to how we increase our membership population, and looked through the last couple of editions of The Voice. This led me to the axiom of the chicken and the egg. For, while there is something for everyone at TBS; do people join and remain members for many years because of the plethora of activities that are there and the family-like atmosphere or do you need more participating congregants to help initiate and grow these and other ventures?

While in its current state, our house of worship is considerably smaller than my former temple was at its peak; the fact of the matter is that no matter the depth of your Jewish beliefs and practices, or what your interests are, TBS has something for everybody. Just look at April, May and beyond.

For the children, the synagogue's future foundation, there has been and will be family services, a religious school seder, the Lag B'Omer picnic, a Shul-In, and a trip to the Lower East Side. For those who have an affinity for music and the arts, Sisterhood has its book club meeting and presented a dinner with the musical group, Gathering Time. There was also the Cantor's Cabaret and the meet-and-greet performance audition of TBS's cantor-in-waiting, Jerry Korobow. Our Rummage Sale, Blood Drive and Food Pantry work not only for the benefit of TBS, but the community of Flushing and vicinity. Those of us who are sports fanatics have seen presentations from Alan Freedman of the Jewish Sports Heritage Association and boxing aficionado Mike Silver, participate in a monthly bowling completion, and are looking forward to Jewish Heritage Night at minor league baseball's Long Island Ducks. Coupling all of these with past and future events like the Purim Ball and the Chicken Soup Cook-Off, and the possibilities are endless.

And, whether it is Shabbat and holiday services, Simchat Shabbat, Bar and Bat Mitzvahs or the way difficult personal situations are overcome, Rabbi Ballan's motivation, inspiration and compassion help make all of these special and unique to the TBS family.

So, it is plain to see that TBS still has its solid foundation. It has its activities. It just needs for people from all over to be informed and engaged so it can still and again flourish, instead of going in the opposite direction, as my former synagogue unfortunately did; and for people to realize that Temple Beth Sholom of Flushing is actually a "Home of Worship," for, as the saying goes, "Home is where the heart is."

Thank you to Gloria Shapiro for donating the painting "Zion" by Emanuel Schary. Please look for it in temple downstairs on the wall opposite the Judaica Shop!

We are trying to update our membership records to reflect the correct email address, preferred telephone(s), occupation/skills and birthdays of all of our Temple members. Please send an email to Rita Bellock at Rita@templebethsholom.org with your information.

Mitzvah Day 2017

Blood Drive News

This past May 7th, Mitzvah Day, we had our annual Spring Blood Drive. We had 40 registered donors and a total of 37 units donated.

Thank you to high-school student Lexi Herz, and to Joy Bobrow who worked with me in the morning, as well as to Iris and Eric Bass, Deirdre Weliky, and Jim Kettig who took over in the afternoon. Thanks also to Jim Kettig, who helped with those pesky recruitment phone calls, and to Madeline Lo, our energetic and effective New York Blood Center Account Representative. We extend our heartfelt gratitude to the NYBC staff for working so hard all day, and to all our donors (accepted and deferred) for coming in to donate the gift of life.

Gail Tishcoff,
Blood Drive Chairperson
