From the Rabbi's desk

After the gates of repentance close, and we hear the last blast of the shofar, we are commanded to immediately build a sukkah, the fragile hut in which the children of Israel lived during their forty years of wandering. Sukkot is my favorite holiday, probably because I get to relax and enjoy nature and experience gratitude for the beauty surrounding me. It enables me to be a little creative with my decorations, and I get to play hostess and invite my friends and family into my temporary home. Sukkot provides us with the opportunity for gratitude, hospitality and to experience nature—all beneficial for healing. Yet our little sukkot are tenuous, and that too reminds us of how vulnerable the world around us is.

Our sukkot also remind us of our responsibility and commitment to change our ways with regard to our environment. The period right before the High Holy Days was devastating, as hurricanes Harvey and Irma swept through Texas, Florida and the Caribbean. May this Sukkot holiday encourage you to reach out to those in need and work towards protecting our planet.

Why else do I love Sukkot? In each generation we may find different reasons to build our fragile huts. I love Rabbi Lewis John Eron's poem, based on the Sukkot song, "Lama Sukkah Zu" (Why This Sukkah?).

"Why have we built this sukkah?" the little child asks.

"So that we can play in it forever," his smiling daddy replies.

"Why have we built this sukkah?" the adventurous boy asks.

"So that we can explore the earth together," his caring dad replies.

"Why have we built this sukkah?" the questioning youth asks.

"So that we can remember the hungry and homeless," his loving father replies.

"Why have we built this sukkah?" the young man asks.

"So that we may recall our youth and our love," his wistful old man replies.

"Why do we build this sukkah?" the new father asks.

"So our dreams may last forever," the proud grandfather replies.

May our stay in our sukkah give us a deeper appreciation for ourselves, community and the world around us.

Shalom Uv'rachah,

Rabbi Sharon Ballan

September Board of Trustees Meeting

The Board of Trustees met on September 11, 2017. As of this date, our current number of membership units is 120 family units. Financial Secretary Gail Olenick reported at this time 65% of all members have paid their dues in full. The August Financial Report was accepted by the Board, as presented by Treasurer Charlene Metz. Geri Weiss, Pulpit & Ritual Committee Chair submitted report that the Torah Yad made by past member Len Samelson has been given to his family, who have donated funds to replace it. They are considering having a Yad dedication, as well as a fund raiser to repair/replace missing and broken Torah crowns. Rabbi Sharon Ballan reported on recent services which were wonderful and well attended. She described some new school programming for the older students modeled on Chai Mitzvah program. Cantor Jerry Korobow commented on how nice it is to have such well attended services. Dr. Fay Halpern Schildkraut thanked Chef Adam Gandelman and his Sous-Chef Barry Packer and their crew for the BBQ at the Open House last Friday. She now has 33 families interested in membership, 12 of whom attended the service/open house. The Board approved new members: Laurie and Neil Kwait (and children), Norman and Liza Lerea (and children) and Leonard Seasonwein & Jackie Davis. She reported there are 3 more families in the process of joining. Cards have been sent to homebound and sick members. Past President David Chenkin reported for the Bylaws Committee, who presented 8 motions for consideration. One motion, which clarifies an error in the original Bylaws, was accepted unanimously. Another motion, which proposed changes to the numbers of Trustees and Officers on the Board was discussed but was withdrawn for further consideration of the subcommittee. Religious School Board Chair Barbara Gandelman reported there are 3 classes on Sunday and 2 classes on Wednesday. Sisterhood President Barbara Gandelman reported on upcoming Fall Sisterhood events. Men's Club President Jeff Cohen reported they have now sorted more books this year than last year at this time. PA Co-President Elana White reported on upcoming fall events. Barry Packer, Ways & Means Chair, reported on progress on the November 11th Chicken Soup Cook-Off, and the Board approved a motion to permit that committee to spend up to $400 for a banner and advertising. Ilyne Rabinowitz presented flyers for an October 8th OFA-NY "Syria Supper Club" at TBS. This will be an event involving Syrian food and music, in order to support recently settled Syrian refugee families. Eric Bernstein, Adult Education, reported there will be a Breakfast and Movie ("Yentl") on Sunday, October 22nd.

From The President

It was a pleasure to see everyone over the High Holidays. Thank you to Rabbi Ballan and Cantor Korobow for leading us in prayer and song. Thank you to those who worked so hard and dedicated so many hours to prepare the Temple for the High Holidays, including all of the members that participated in the services.

Temple has many dedicated members who help to make Temple the wonderful place that it is. These people work hard, especially during the summer months when the Temple is "on vacation" and we are preparing for the High Holidays and the new school year.

Bazaar is around the corner. It seems that we mention Bazaar a lot, and it should be accordingly. The bazaar has always been the primary fundraiser for Temple. Bazaar also does something that you can't put a price tag on. It brings Temple together. It's truly the one function that pulls together everyone from their busy schedule for a few days in December to volunteer and to have fun supporting Temple for a common goal. Once upon a time, I was told that the Bazaar was held outside in front of the building in the frigid weather. That must have been really fun and crazy. In order for it to be successful, we all must pitch in.

If you have any resources for getting merchandise and vendors, now is the time to let us know. We also need members to help set up and to run the booths. The more members that help, the smoother the Bazaar would run.

There are letters in the office to ask vendors for donations. I personally go to stores that I frequent and ask for a donation. If everyone can get a donation or two, we will have many donations for the Bazaar. Don't forget about the congregational meeting on Tuesday, October 24, 2017.

Adam Gandelman
President

Sisterhood Corner

I hope that you all have a very happy and healthy New Year.

We are gearing up for our membership event which will be a paid up Wine and Paint night held on Thursday October 26, 2017. We will be painting a set of water glasses and enjoying dessert. Bring your friends and your favorite wine to enjoy. It should be a great event. If you have not already joined Sisterhood, you can still send in your $36 dues to Geri Weiss. Please send in the flyer and RSVP to Iris Bass as soon as possible.

We will be holding our book club on Sunday, November 5 at 10:30 a.m. We will be reading Distant Shores by Kristin Hannan. Please join us at this event and stay after to help us set up for rummage immediately following our book club.

Our Rummage sale is coming! Please donate your gently used clothing to Temple so that we can use it for the Rummage Sale. Please help Temple by volunteering at this event. Rummage set up will be Sunday, November 5. The Rummage Sale will take place on Tuesday, November 7 from 9:30 to 4. Please note that we will only be holding the Rummage sale on one day. Please call the Temple office if you can volunteer. There will also be a bake sale on that day. Proceeds will go to the victims of the hurricanes and our own temple. Please buy something when you visit the rummage sale.

Please remember that Bazaar is coming!!! We need your help to make it a success. Look for details!!!

Bazaar 2017 News

Our monthly reminder that Bazaar will be here before you know it! Please remember that Bazaar is a major fundraiser for Temple. It takes lots of hard work to put Bazaar together, but is also a great deal of fun to be a part of it! We need EVERYONE'S help in order to make it a success. Please mark your calendars for Bazaar 2017 which will be held the first weekend of December: Saturday, December 2nd, Sunday, December 3rd, and Monday December 4th. Book sorting is continuing! Look for emails announcing them. If you are available, please contact Jeff Cohen at mrjeff2000@aol.com or Lee and Mike Temares at tembooks@aol.com. We can use donations of health and beauty, toys, the country store, "as is", jewelry, and one of a kind! Please remember to ask your local merchants for donations when you patronize their stores – maybe they will even donate "reduced for clearance" items!! Shops and restaurants that you patronize might be willing to give you donations of gift certificates and any leftover merchandise. Also, don't forget to check your closets and garages. We can sell anything!!!! We have chairpersons for most of our booths but we still need volunteers to chair some booths. We will also need help in displaying, setting up, and pricing the merchandise. Of course, we also need volunteers to work in the booths when Bazaar is open. Please call the Temple Office and volunteer!! You will all receive letters of introduction to present to your local merchants when you ask for merchandise or gift certificates or...Remember, the sky is the limit!! Don't forget we also need your financial assistance in the form of "Angel Money" so that we can minimize the costs to Temple for any merchandise/food etc. that we have to purchase. Remember, our Pancake Breakfast, the official kickoff for Bazaar, is coming up on November 19th and we hope to see you there. Please return your sold raffle books (and money!!) as soon as possible! Also, additional raffle books will be available at the Congregation meeting on October 24th. Please don't forget to attend the meeting and pick up additional books and sell, sell, sell! Please help us make Bazaar 2017 the best one yet! Thank you.

Men's Club

Happy New Year from Men's Club!

By the time you receive this edition of The Voice, leaves should be changing color. And so are the children, who unfortunately lose their summer tans as they headed back to school.

Meanwhile, we have a new high score in bowling. Mike Shapiro rolled a 177 in May, only to be quickly upset by Eric Bernstein with a 178 in September. Barry Packer still holds the overall high average of 119 per game. Men's Club hosts monthly sessions at Jib Lanes in Flushing, the first Thursday night every month at 8 pm. For $15, you get two games of bowling (free shoes) and the opportunity to interact with members of the congregation – bowling is not strictly for men's club membership! The next bowling session is Thursday, October 5.

The next Men's Club meeting for will be Sunday, October 15 at 11 am. We will discuss the upcoming Men's Club Shabbat service (Friday, November 3) and Veteran's Day breakfast (Sunday, November 12). All active members are also encouraged to attend. Men's club membership for 2017-2018 is a mere $25. Incoming new members receive complimentary first-year membership in Men's Club. Looking past Bazaar, we have our annual Deli Outing coming on Wednesday, December 6!

Speaking of the Bazaar and Book Sale, it is just around the corner (no peeking). Last year, membership sorted 22,000 items (books, CDs, records, DVDs, and video games) to put out for buyers. This year, we have sorted 19,251 items. An e-mail will be sent with information about the next book sort in October. This will be the next-to-last sort, as Bazaar is almost upon us!

Adult Education

L'shana tovah families,

I hope that everyone had a sweet and healthy New Year and a meaningful fast. As we turn the hourglass over for the new year, it is important to set resolutions (either new or attempted) that are achievable in the year ahead. Resolutions can fall into multiple categories: health, family, personal growth, and spiritual. It is just a matter of finding an achievable resolution and I am confident of everyone to find a resolution that they can commit to.

As a reminder we will be having our first Adult Education "Breakfast and a Movie" event on Sunday, October 22nd with the screening of "Yentl". The breakfast will begin at 9:00 am followed by a brief discussion and the movie which will be starting at 9:30.

I look forward to seeing members at the upcoming events.

Cantor's Corner

As you read this column, we've made it through the High Holy Days together! But, I wanted to take just a moment to look back and reflect upon a wonderful time we had here at Temple in early September.

I'm referring to our Open House BBQ on Friday, September 8, which preceded our Family Service celebrating Grandparents' Day. We had a great turnout, and it was truly a delight to have so many grandparents and grandchildren in the same place.

Rabbi Ballan did a terrific job gathering peoples' grandparent/grandchildren photos, and weaving them into a video presentation. This created the perfect platform for me to teach my "Grandma" and "Grandpa" songs to the very enthusiastic congregation. It was fun, sweet and touching.

What really topped off that experience was continuing to honor the grandparents in and/or involved with our congregation by inviting them to our first day of Hebrew school on Sunday, September 10. We learned about Jewish genealogy, did projects, and sang together. It was terrific working with our school principal Karen Feit, who, like the Rabbi, is an excellent singing partner. To my great amazement and satisfaction, quite a few of the kids had already learned the "Grandma" and "Grandpa" songs, and sang them right along with me, helping teach them to the grandparents. The Junior Choir is alive and well my friends!

Many of you whom I've already met have heard me speak about the tremendous importance of community. I firmly believe that that's what a synagogue is really all about. And community, in all its richness and sweetness, is exactly what I saw on our Grandparents' Weekend. In a word, it was GREAT! Let's create more such opportunities to commune together. I know I had a "blast"-I hope you did too.

All the best in the New Year,
Cantor Jerry Korobow

Religious School News

It was a real joy to welcome back our Hebrew School families at our special Grandparents' Day celebration on Sunday September 10, 2017. We began with prayers and blessings led by our wonderful new Cantor Korobow. We welcomed parents, grandparents, teachers, and two new families: the Kwaits and the Lereas. Jewish genealogist Chuck Weinstein talked to us about why family history is so important and how to preserve names and memories and even do family research. We honored our grandparents with Cantor Korobow's special songs and flowers for the grandparents. Time to interview our special guests individually, to make grandparents day cards or to, begin to create family trees was followed by time to enjoy cookies and juice and mix and mingle. A great time was had by all. We look forward to a new year full of wonderful experiences ahead!

Our Hebrew program is in the process of revision. Students have all been tested for their level of Hebrew proficiency and have been divided into classes on that basis. This will enable us to address each student at the appropriate learning level. Students will be re-evaluated throughout the year to make are they are grouped appropriately. We will once again use texts as well as online learning materials. If you have a tablet or laptop, you can donate to the school for classroom use, it would be greatly appreciated.

Rabbi Ballan is launching an innovative new Academy Plus program to bring our post b'nai mitzvah together to study and to socialize.

Don't forget to join us for children's services on Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur.

This month brings our Lulav and Etrog field trip after Sunday School on October 1, sukkah decoration, Pizza in the Hut and services on October 4, Simchat Torah dancing with the Torah on October 11, and Junior congregation on October 13. It's going to be a busy month filled with learning, fun, and celebration! I can hardly wait!

Looking forward to seeing you in school and at services!

B'shalom,
Karen Feit

Scoop's Schmooze

120 hot dogs in just over an hour!!!

If one were to read the above statement, he or she would have thought that the likes of Joey Chestnut, Matt Stonie, Takeru Kobayashi, or Sonya Thomas just lost their July 4th Nathan's Hot Dog Eating Contest championship belt to a new contender at the corners of Surf and Stillwell Avenues on Coney Island.

And, in a sense, you would actually be right; except for the fact that this champion was crowned during the beginning of September on Northern Boulevard in Flushing. And the hot dogs were Hebrew National as opposed to Nathan's. And, this winner is not an individual, but has been a champion in a wide array of ways for decades.

For the numbers that came out at Temple Beth Sholom of Flushing's Open House, Family Shabbat and Grandparents' Day celebration were mind-boggling. Start with the fact that there were more than 100 people in attendance at a non-holiday Shabbat service. And, along with the franks, they consumed 80 hamburgers, 48 veggie burgers, 10 pounds of cole slaw, a barrel of pickles, two sheet cakes, and two watermelons! Yet, it was not in as much about the delectable edibles that were prepared by TBS President Adam Gandelman; it was more so about the plethora of people who came, and what took place in the sanctuary.

Whether the people who were there were at Temple Beth Sholom from the very beginning of its existence or they were guests looking to become new members; whether they are current members who have made their impact over the years or are those who have been a part of TBS for a brief time; or whether it were the children who gleefully flooded the bimah and gazed with pride and amazement into the open arks at the beautiful torah scrolls as the aleinu was being chanted, in its entirety, it was an event to behold.

For being able to sit back and take it all in was nothing less than a true pleasure; as the new team of Rabbi Ballan and Cantor Korobow spoke and sang and played together like they have been doing it for years. Their inspiration and passion were felt throughout the pews as the congregants and the guests joined in with emotion and joy; and comments of enthusiasm and excitement were spoken by many days after the event.

The fact of the matter is that while so many congregations are unfortunately closing, it is vital for each member of the Temple Beth Sholom of Flushing family to partake in all of the activities to keep our synagogue and our Jewish heritage and traditions alive; especially to come to services, to attend and participate in Rabbi Ballan's torah study and to be proud to be bestowed with honors on Shabbat or during the holidays. And, while the previously stated activities are vital to the lifeblood of Temple, it is important to join in the other goings-on as well: to be a part of Bazaar or the Purim Ball or the Chicken Soup Cook-Off, or the Blood Drive; to do things with Sisterhood or Men's Club or have your children get involved in religious school and everything else that is available to them.

For those who were there on Friday night, September 8, just take a moment to pause and reflect and realize that what you may hear in the back of your mind is Nathan's Hot Dog Eating Contest's Master of Ceremonies, George Shea declaring: "the winner, and still champion is Temple Beth Sholom of Flushing!"

TBS SISTERHOOD PRESENTS:
BOOK CLUB – NOVEMBER 2017

“Distant Shores”

By Kristin Hannah

Date:

Sunday November 5, 2017

Time: 10:30am

All Volunteers are welcome and encouraged to help for an hour or so with our bi-annual Rummage Set Up!!!!

In her remarkable New York Times bestseller, Summer Island, Kristin Hannah struck a chord in readers and critics alike with her portrayal of the bittersweet reunion between an errant mother and her unforgiving daughter. Now Hannah once again reveals the fragile ties that bind a family in transition, as two people choose to escape the limits of their ordinary lives and reach for the extraordinary promise that lies on Distant Shores.

Elizabeth and Jackson Shore married young, raised two daughters, and weathered the storms of youth as they built a future together. But after the children leave home, they quietly drift apart. When Jack accepts a wonderful new job offer, Elizabeth puts her needs aside to follow him across the country. Until the sudden death of her father changes everything.

Grieving and alone, she retreats to an isolated beach house where she packs away the last remnants of her parents' lives. There, the pieces of a past she never knew unfold to reveal a tender story of lasting devotion, the kind of steadfast commitment that Elizabeth admits is missing from her own marriage. Faced with her own disillusionment, she makes a terrifying decision, risking everything she has for a second chance at happiness.

Please read the book and come to our book club meeting with your opinions and comments.
