From the Rabbi's desk

On the heels of Sukkot and Simchat Torah, the Jewish month of Cheshvan gives us a break from holidays, which is why our rabbis and sages refer to it as "Marcheshvan," or sad Cheshvan—there are no Jewish holidays at all in this entire month!

On the secular calendar, since the holidays were over by October 1, I would say that October should be "Mar October!" But seriously, the most important holiday on the Jewish calendar occurs every week, and that is Shabbat. We also start reading the Torah from the beginning again, and that is always exciting. After everything is over, after we have made amends and have forgiven, we start fresh. It is a little ironic that at the same time we are learning about creation and re-birth, outside the leaves are turning colors, and the earth is getting ready for the dormant winter. Maybe that is intentional. Life and death are always around us, reminding us how fragile life is.

We don't need to wait for the High Holidays for renewal, however. Each day gives us an opportunity. Our daily prayers begin with a blessing for the renewal of our souls. "Elohai neshamah, shenata bi t'hora hi. My God, the soul you have given me is pure. We wake up with a clean slate, and another chance. In a midrash from Tanna devei Eliyahu Zuta (1:5) we learn, "Every day a person is formed by God, every day a person is born; every day a person lives, every day a person dies; every day a person's soul is taken from them (during sleep) and deposited with the soul's True Owner; every day a person is fed out of the fruit of their deeds, just as the infant is fed out of their mother's breast."

One of the ways I experience renewal is by learning new things. There are many possibilities for learning here at Temple Beth Shalom. I encourage you to join us for another year of Chai Mitzvah learning. This year we will be exploring mussar, a Jewish path of character development and spiritual growth leading to awareness, wisdom, and transformation. The first class begins on Wednesday, October 3 at 8 pm and meet once a month. No Hebrew or prior Jewish education is necessary, just an open mind.

Shalom u'vrachah,

Rabbi Sharon Ballan

September Board of Trustees Meeting

The Board of Trustees met on Thursday, September 6th, 2018. President Fay Halpern Schildkraut opened the meeting with update on A/C repairs to be ready for next summer and announcement that Ballroom Dancing will restart on Wed, September 26th, from 7:00–8:00 p.m. Gail Olenick, Financial Secretary, reported that we have 119 member units; $23,000 still owed. A letter was sent to families with children in Religious/Sunday School that School Dues are due by registration on September 16th, 2018.

The August financial report was approved by the Board as presented by Treasurer Charlene Metz. Cantor Jerry Korobow reported the recent Selichot Service went well but with a low turnout; he recommends trying to find other congregations to team up with, as this is a common issue among temples at Selichot. Shirathon will be held Sunday, October 28th at the Flushing-Fresh Meadows Jewish Center. After discussion regarding the number of special events in late October/early November, it was decided to postpone the Jazz Shabbat on November 2nd to a later date. He and Karen Feit have coordinated dates for events with the religious school.

Rabbi Ballan reported she and the Cantor are looking forward to inspiring High Holy Day Services. Sukkot falls on Sunday evening, September 23rd —join us for Pizza in the Sukkah. She is planning on going to Main Street on that Sunday afternoon to buy Lulavs and if anyone wants to join her, let her know.

The following Sunday, September 30th is Simchat Torah. Watch for e-mails for the upcoming Chai Mitzvah program. Pulpit & Ritual Committee Chair Geri Weiss thanked Rabbi for the Selichot service—about 30 attended. She requested to all committees when planning an event with food – please arrange for the food to be either dairy or meat, not a combination of both.

The Board approved 4 new family units: Debra Leffe, Laura Goldsmith, Sharon Miller, and Salena and Jason Ehrlich and son Damon. Parent's Association, Men's Club, and Sisterhood all reported on upcoming events. Jim Kettig, House Committee Chair, reported on updates concerning the air conditioning and replacement to the front entry mats.

Eric Bernstein, Adult Education Chair, reported Game Night (for adults) will be returning on the 2nd Wednesday of the month with the exception of October, (Tuesday, October 16th). He has scheduled a two part lecture by Paul Rabinowitz (Founder and Executive Director of Arts by the People) on Sunday, October 21st at 10:00 a.m. - Jews of Catalonia, Spain and on Sunday, October 28th at 10:00 a.m. - Origins of Jewish Cuisine.

Barry Packer, Ways & Means Committee Chair reported on plans concerning the Chicken Soup Cook-Off to be held on November 10th, from 6:30–9:00 p.m. The Vendor Showcase, scheduled for Wednesday, Oct. 24th from 4:00–9:00 p.m., has 8 vendors expressing interest. A Cabaret Night will be held on Saturday, November 3rd, from 7:00–9:00 p.m. to include snacks and drinks, followed by Renee Katz's show. VP Joy Bobrow, Bazaar Committee Co-Chair, reported on plans concerning Bazaar.

Respectfully submitted,
Gail Tishcoff
Recording Secretary

From The President

We have just had a very spiritual and joyous High Holiday season.

My thanks to our Rabbi, Cantor, Karen, Geri, our office and custodial staff. Your hard work and preparation were evident.

Thanks also to all who participated and those who attended services. For those of you who were unable to attend please know that you were in our thoughts and we missed you.

It was so good to see all of you, some of you I see on a regular basis, others I had not seen in a while and some I met for the first time.

All of our services were well attended but the Yizkor service took the prize, our synagogue was full. As I looked at the congregation and shared in our children's services, I became more convinced than ever that TBS has a cherished and well needed place in our community.

We must work to keep TBS alive and vibrant for the next generation the way the previous generation did for ours. Let us all make a commitment to take an active role in our Temple. Let us stand together and make this New Year the best one ever at TBS.

A happy, healthy and safe New Year to you and all of your loved ones.

Your President,
Fay Schildkraut

Bazaar Corner 2018

Our monthly reminder that Bazaar will be here before you know it! Please remember that Bazaar is a major fundraiser for Temple. It takes lots of hard work to put Bazaar together, but is also a great deal of fun to be a part of it! We need EVERYONE'S help in order to make it a success.

- Mark your calendars for Bazaar 2018 - the first weekend of December: Saturday, December 1st, Sunday, December 2nd, and Monday December 3rd.
- Book sorting is continuing! Look for emails announcing them. If you are available, please contact Jeff Cohen at mrjeff2000@aol.com.
- We can use donations of health and beauty, toys, the country store, "as is", jewelry, and one of a kind!
- Please remember to ask your local merchants for donations when you patronize their stores - maybe they will even donate "reduced for clearance" items!! Shops and restaurants that you patronize might be willing to give you donations of gift certificates and any leftover merchandise.
- Don't forget to check your closets and garages. We can sell anything!!!!
- We need a sous chef to assist Chef Adam, as our indubitable Fran Goldman will be unable to be sous chef this year.
- Don't forget to bake, bake, bake!!!! If possible, please individually wrap your baked goods.
- We have chairpersons for most of our booths but we still need volunteers to chair some booths.
- We need help in displaying, setting up, and pricing the merchandise and of course, we also need volunteers to work in the booths when Bazaar is open. Please call the Temple Office to let us know when you will volunteer!!

At the October Congregation meeting, you will receive the famous Bazaar packets of information including:

1. Letters of introduction to present to your local merchants when you ask for merchandise or gift certificates or...
2. Reservation forms for Pancake Breakfast, the official kick-off for Bazaar, on November 18th!
3. Raffle books!
4. A request for your financial assistance in the form of "Angel Money" so that we can minimize the costs to Temple for any merchandise/food etc. that we have to purchase.

Please don't forget to attend the Congregation meeting on Tuesday October 23rd at 8:00 pm so you can pick up your envelopes and learn what has been going on at Temple. Please help us make Bazaar 2018 the best one yet!

Thank you!

and Joy A. Bobrow (maxjolo@msn.com)
Bazaar Co-Coordinators

Adult Education

I hope that everyone had a healthy and festive Rosh Hashanah and a meaningful Yom Kippur.

Game night is going well and I welcome members and their friends and families to attend. Our October game night will be on Tuesday, October 16th at 7:30 p.m. The cost is $5.00 and food and drinks will be provided. It is an affordable and fun way to spend an evening out with temple members.

On Sunday, October 21st and Sunday, October 28th at 9:30 a.m., Adult Education will be bringing back Paul Rabinowitz for a breakfast and double lecture on the topic of "Jews in Spain" and "Jewish Foods". If you had not had the opportunity to attend one of Paul's lectures at our temple, they are very insightful and not to be missed.

After your big Thanksgiving Meal, you can burn off the carbs with other Temple Members on Friday, November 23rd at our second annual "Turkey Trot". We will meet at Little Bay Park (under the bridge) at 10:00 a.m. Please e-mail me if you are interested in walking at ericbernstein@gmail.com. After improving your health, you can have the opportunity to help temple at Bazaar setup taking place that Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. Every bit of help makes a difference.

May you have a healthy and productive month ahead.

Adult Education Chair

How Can I Contribute to TBS without Spending?

1. If every TBS member and their family and friends open a new, non-interest bearing checking account at TD Bank, you can get $25 AND Temple Beth Sholom will receive $50 for every new checking account opened (that remains open for at least one year). TBS will also receive a small percentage of participants' annual average balances. If you are already a TD Bank customer, Temple will receive $10 for every existing checking account. Visit any one of TD Bank's locations and ask to have your balance included as part of Temple Beth Sholom's Affinity Membership Program, or call the Whitestone branch at (718) 357-4310 for more information. Our code in the program is AF637.
  2. When you make a purchase through Amazon, make sure you use Amazon Smile by signing up for Amazon Smile (you don't lose your Prime benefits!) and select Temple Beth Sholom.   3. Lastly, if you are considering purchasing Judaica items, consider buying from the Judaica Webstore: <http://templebethsholom.org/judaica/> as Temple Beth Sholom will receive a percentage of the purchase!
- Thank you for your continued support of Temple Beth Sholom!

Men's Club

We will be hosting its annual Men's Club service on Friday, November 9th at 8:00 p.m.

Two days later, join us for a Veteran's Day breakfast on Sunday, November 11th, featuring a screening of the movie "G.I. Jews". The documentary tells the true story of Jewish Americans in World War II tells the story of the 550,000 Jewish American men and women who fought in World War II. In their own words, veterans both famous (director Mel Brooks, former Secretary of State Henry Kissinger) and unknown share their war experiences: how they fought for their nation and people, struggled with anti-Semitism within their ranks, and emerged transformed.

Men's Club hosts monthly bowling sessions at Jib Lanes in Flushing, the first Thursday of every month at 8:00 p.m. For $15, you get two games of bowling, free shoe rental, and the opportunity to interact with members of the congregation - bowling is not restricted to men's club membership. The next two bowling sessions are Thursday, October 3rd and Thursday, November 1st.

Men's Club has now collected and sorted more than 13,900 books for this year's Bazaar and Book Sale! "Filled with fascinating details about the art world and colorful real-life characters, this novel may appeal to historical fiction fans who enjoyed Natasha Solomons' The House at Tyneford and Tatiana de Rosnay's Sarah's Key."—Library Journal

An exquisite, haunting exploration of the complex mind of Marc Chagall through the eyes of his daughter — great for fans of Mrs. Poe and The Paris Wife.

Beautiful Ida Chagall, the only daughter of Marc Chagall, is blossoming in the Paris art world beyond her father's controlling gaze. But her newfound independence is short-lived. In Nazi-occupied Paris, Chagall's status as a Jewish artist has made them all targets, yet his devotion to his art blinds him to their danger.

When Ida falls in love and Chagall angrily paints an empty wedding chair (The Bridal Chair) in response, she faces an impossible choice: Does she fight to forge her own path outside her father's shadow, or abandon her ambitions to save Chagall from his enemies and himself?

Brimming with historic personalities from Europe, America and Israel, The Bridal Chair is a stunning portrait of love, fortitude, and the sharp divide between art and real life.

"Only Gloria Goldreich could write a novel so grounded in historical truths yet so exuberantly imaginative. The Bridal Chair is Goldreich at her best, with a mesmerizing plot, elegant images, and a remarkable heroine who...will remain with you long after the last page."—Francine Klagsburn, Jewish Week columnist and acclaimed author of Voices of Wisdom.

Cantor's Corner

At the time you're reading this, we've made it through another High Holiday season-no mean feat. The services are long, the mood serious, and the thoughts and ideas are complex. Did I mention that the services are long?

After many years of helping to lead High Holiday services as a cantor, I believe I've finally figured out the real answer to successfully navigating this massive musical challenge. It has nothing to do one's voice or throat, and nothing to do with one's choice of music. It has everything to do with a good, comfortable pair of shoes!

I, perhaps like some of you, have flat feet. Along with that, I've got some problems with my lower back. Taken together, these issues make standing for hours on end quite a challenge.

Thinking about that just before Rosh Hashanah sent me to the computer to look for footwear that felt like sneakers, but looked like dress shoes. Lo and behold, I found some. My wife Zo and I ran out to the store, made the purchase, and I was all set.

Well, the shoes performed well, and even drew a few compliments. That was nice. Even nicer was the fact that my feet felt pretty good throughout both Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. Not perfect, but better. What can I tell you-it's the little things that can make a big difference.

Anyway, I hope that each and every one of you had a meaningful and worthwhile holiday season. Now, we return you to our regular programming. And that means that we need to see you as often as possible at Temple Beth Sholom. We need you for services on Friday nights and special services. We need you to participate in Sisterhood or Men's Club. We need you to volunteer. WE NEED YOU!

Once you begin to get involved, you'll realize that the congregation at Temple Beth Sholom is your extended family. You'll start to feel more and more comfortable, to sink in. Sort of like wearing your old, comfortable pair of shoes (those shoes I bought seem to have really made an impression). I'm looking forward to singing with you all as often as possible. Stay well!

With affection,
Cantor Jerry Korobow

Pulpit and Ritual Committee

Todah Rabah! Many thanks to the Rabbi and Cantor for leading the congregation in beautiful, meaningful, and engaging High Holiday services. We also appreciate the participation of all of our members who helped to make the services that much more special!

Please also remember that Rabbi and Cantor do an amazing service every Shabbat Friday evening! See you there!

Religious School News

In between holidays, it is great to be back at Hebrew School. We may be small, but we are mighty! The spirit of friendship and camaraderie was evident as students and teachers greeted each other after the summer break! I, as always, marveled at how much all of our students have grown and matured over the summer months.

I was especially proud at High Holiday children's services to see so many of our Academy students on the bima conducting services. Our younger students were well represented sitting with their families and their friends in the pews.

We welcomed Sukkot by making beautiful (and waterproof) decorations for our Sukkah. The light but persistent rain did not prevent us from joining in prayer at our outdoor Sukkot service followed by pizza and dessert in the hut and a chance to make a lulav (and etrog) shake!

We are enjoying our days of celebration, but will also be pleased to settle down for some solid weeks of learning together. This month, both Jewish Start and Junior Congregation will be added to our schedules.

We have already begun singing with Cantor Korobow. A schedule will be emailed shortly. We will add regular library visits to the schedule as well.

It's not too late to join us for a year of Jewish learning. If you have friends who are looking for a program, invite them to come and visit.

Looking forward to a great year.

Scoop's Schmooze

Long before I knew there was a company that was represented by a smiling stick figure named Jake, created in Boston by the Jacobs brothers, and shortly after that business was founded, while I was on vacation in Aruba, a person by the name of Rafi Maduro would say to me at least once a day three prophetic words that are also the name of that company--- "Life Is Good." And while life is good, unfortunately, it can also be difficult and painful, frustrating, heartbreaking and unexplainable.

And, as these high holy days are upon us, and in particular this Day of Atonement, where we pause to reflect on this past year of 5778, and all of the others that came before, and look forward to 5779, I took the opportunity to dwell on the past and gaze ahead as we were visiting my family in Boston just before the holidays. I went to the cemetery with my parents and visited my mother's parents, my father's parents and my aunt and uncle, all who are located in the same general area of Sharon Memorial Park, in a triangular formation with 27 steps in between each of the three couples' plaques; which, ironically is one of these unique instances that seemingly happen to take place quite often in Judaism, as my sister and I were both born on the 27th of the month. I sat and "talked" with these six people who were some of the greatest influences and role models in my life, and tried to get their sage words of advice and find out why life's things happen as they do.

Could they explain why in exactly a three-week span, our country lost icons Aretha Franklin, John McCain, Neil Simon, and Burt Reynolds. They were some of the greats of the great.

Or could they tell me how Bill Becker, Joel Dubrow, David Fransman, and Murt Gruber were also lost in a four-week time frame from the middle of August to the beginning of September. You may wonder who these four men are, as they are names that I am fairly sure are not known here, yet they touch me in a deep emotional sense. You see, all four of these men were the fathers of people who I grew up with; some of our friendships starting as young as kindergarten and first grade to junior high school, along with my college roommate who is still one of the best friends I have ever had.

The thing is, I am truly blessed that at 56, while so many of my friends my age have lost parents, I not only have one father and mother, but I have two of each; who are all doing relatively well. After recovering from her medical issues last year, my mother-in-law Rose is back playing the piano and walking. My 93 year-old father-in-law, Isidore has grown giant butternut squash that are hanging from the trellis at their Fresh Meadows home; waiting to be harvested and donated to Temple for bazaar. My mother at 80 still teaches ballet and takes lessons twice a week, while my father, also at 80, became a paraprofessional in the local school system, because after more than 50 years as a pharmacist, he couldn't stay retired. So, you can see that God has indeed blessed me like nobody else.

And, on top of all of that, is there anybody luckier than me who has so much gratitude for the so many awe-inspiring members of my extended family who reside here at Temple Beth Sholom. Whether it is the warmth of the services, the excitement of the special events, the pride of our congregation's longevity, or the compassionate camaraderie that exists day in and day out, what takes place here is beyond compare.

However, in digressing, even as a writer, I found it quite difficult to find the words to console my friends. So, I asked my grandparents and aunt and uncle to help me find the words that would best comfort the four of them. And they did.

I hope that they are surrounded and enveloped by their family and friends. I hope that they are warmed by the memories that they created with their fathers, and the rest of their family, and they will all last a lifetime. For even though none of them had their names in neon lights; they were all icons in the hearts and minds of my four friends.

And, as we prepare to honor and memorialize those special people who have left us with our Yizkor service tomorrow, may we all be comforted by those treasured memories that will always be cherished and ingrained in our hearts and minds that nobody can take from us.

Actually, one of those special memories came to my mind as I was reading Newsday last week when I saw the recent obituary of Mrs. Jean Baron. Mrs. Baron was the founder and owner of Long Island Business Institute; where I worked for her from 2003-2005, when she was about 70 years old. On most days, when I was getting ready to leave, it would make no difference if it was 3:00 in the afternoon or 9:00 at night; if I saw her before I was leaving, she would look at me and say, "But, the night is still young and beautiful... and so am I...and so are you."

And, as I look out at everybody here; it doesn't matter if it is the unbridled exuberance of the youth of Temple Beth Sholom, the worldly experience and knowledge of those who have paved the way for us and still live life to the fullest, or everybody in between, we ARE all young and we ARE all beautiful.

So as I wish you an easy and meaningful fast and a wonderful 5779, please remember that no matter the challenges we overcome, the heartache or heartbreak we go through, and the disappointment or the discouragement we endure; whether we are related or not, we all are united as one family and... Life IS good.
