From the Rabbi's desk

Shalom!

As we enter the month of February, so ends the Hebrew month of Shevat. We experienced our first ever temple-wide Tu Bishvat Seder and dinner last month. Thank you to everyone who pitched in and made it possible! We celebrated the New Year for trees, ate at least 15 fruits (including the seven biblical ones) and had a wonderful Shabbat meal.

As soon as Tu Bishvat is over, I naturally start thinking about our next holiday, Purim. Normally it falls just four weeks after Tu Bishvat, on the 14th of Adar. This year however, is a little different, as it is a leap year. Since the Jewish months are directly related to the cycle of moon's orbit around the earth, we would lose 11 days a year. Before long, we would be celebrating Passover in December and Chanukah in the summer, which we can't do because we learn in the Torah (Ex. 23:15) "You shall observe the Feast of Matzot...at the set time in the month of Abib" (literally "Spring"). Seven times within a 19 year cycle we add an entire month to the calendar, which works out to every two to three years or so. This extra month becomes Adar II, the 13th month on the calendar. Adar I begins on February 6th, which is actually one day after the Chinese Lunar New Year. Purim will be celebrated in Adar II, which will fall on the evening of March 20th. Essentially there are no Jewish holidays in Adar I except for "Purim Katan" or "Little Purim" on the 14th of the month. In traditional circles, prayers of supplication (tachanun) are not read and fasting and eulogies are prohibited. That's about it.

There are a few explanations as to why we celebrate Purim in Adar II, at the end of our calendar cycle. One is that our sages wanted to keep the time period between Passover and Purim the same—linking the redemption of Esther with the redemption of the children of Israel at the Sea of Reeds. Another comes from a midrash found in the Talmud [Shabbat 88a]: "And they stood under [at the foot] of the mountain" (Ex. 19:17). R. Avdimi bar Hama said: This teaches that the Holy One suspended the mountain upon them, like an inverted vat, and said to them: If you accept the Torah it is well; if not your burial will be right here. R. Ahah bar Jacob said: This story would justify a claim that Israel accepted the Torah under duress [thus nullifying the covenant with God]! Rava said: Nevertheless, the people of Israel freely accepted the Torah in the days of king Ahaseurus, as it is written: "The Jews established and accepted" (Esther 9:27), meaning they established in their time what they had accepted at Sinai.

We come full circle from the first month (Nissan) and Passover, to the last month and the celebration of Purim. An extra month in the calendar, gives us an extra month to prepare! Please e-mail me if you would like to participate in our Purim Shpiel next month, on March 20th. We will have two or three rehearsals.

Blessings,
Rabbi Sharon Ballan

January Board of Trustees Meeting

The Board of Trustees met on Monday, January 14th, 2019. President Fay Schildkraut thanked outgoing Trustees Fran Goldman and Maxine Simon and Financial Secretary Gail Olenick for their service to Temple.

Gail Olenick, Financial Secretary, reported we have 123 member units. Charlene Metz, Treasurer, presented the December Financial Report, which was approved as presented. She also presented the proposed 2019-2020 budget which the Board approved for presentation to the Congregation on January 22nd, 2019 at the January Congregational Meeting.

Rabbi Sharon Ballan reported on recent and upcoming services and special events. She read a thank-you note from The River Fund for our Holiday toy collection. Samuel Field Y also thanked us for the collection of food and toiletries. She said the new TBS Shabbat Siddur is taking shape. Cantor Jerry Korobow reported David Close and Akiva "The Believer" Wharton will return to TBS as guest musicians for the February 1st Installation Service and the March 1st Shabbat Across America Service.

Geri Weiss, Pulpit & Ritual Committee Chair submitted report that included information about plans for a special service for Yom HaShoah on May 3rd. Andrea Odintz, Religious School Board Chair, and Erica Bernstein, Parents' Association Co-President reported the Havdalah Service and Game Night on Jan. 12th were well attended and fun. All are urged to RSVP for the upcoming January 18th, 2019 Tu Bishvat Shabbat dinner and Family Service at 7:00 p.m. The Board approved a motion for the Negotiations Committee to have initial discussion with Cantor Jerry Korobow for the contract year starting July 1st, 2019.

Barbara Gandelman, Sisterhood President stated that the next book club is on Sunday, February 10th at 10:30 a.m. They will be reading "The Man in the White Sharkskin Suit". She asked all to keep a look out in the Voice for option to pay a lump sum to Sistergrams for the rest of the year. Hamantashen baskets will be for sale again this year.

Joy Bobrow, Bazaar Co-Chair and Jeff Cohen (books), reported on efforts already initiated for next year's Bazaar. Jim Kettig, House Committee Chair, updated the Board on his efforts to get bids for ballroom window work. David Chenkin is the Chair of the new Security Committee and he reported to the Board on his vision and time line for design and implementation of an evacuation plan and to address other issues pertaining to current-day security concerns. Eric Bernstein, Adult Education, reported on change in time for Game Day and March Breakfast and Movie plans.

Respectfully submitted,
Gail Tishcoff
Recording Secretary

TBS SISTERHOOD PRESENTS: BOOK CLUB – Sunday February 10, 2019

“The Man in the White Sharkskin Suit”

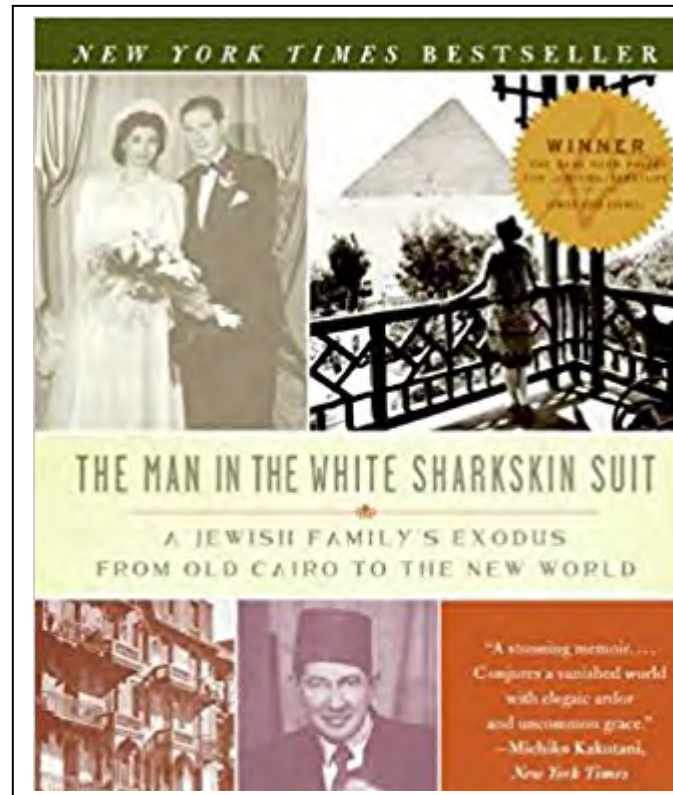

By Lucette Lagnado

Date:

Sunday, February 10th, 2019

Time: 10:30 a.m.

Breakfast will be provided

Lucette Lagnado's father, Leon, is a successful Egyptian businessman and boulevardier who, dressed in his signature white sharkskin suit, makes deals and trades at Shepherd's Hotel and at the dark bar of the Nile Hilton. After the fall of King Farouk and the rise of the Nasser dictatorship, Leon loses everything and his family is forced to flee, abandoning a life once marked by beauty and luxury to plunge into hardship and poverty, as they take flight for any country that would have them.

A vivid, heartbreaking, and powerful inversion of the American dream, Lucette Lagnado's unforgettable memoir is a sweeping story of family, faith, tradition, tragedy, and triumph set against the stunning backdrop of Cairo, Paris, and New York.

Winner of the Sami Rohr Prize for Jewish Literature and hailed by the New York Times Book Review as a "brilliant, crushing book" and the New Yorker as a memoir of ruin "told without melodrama by its youngest survivor," The Man in the White Sharkskin Suit recounts the exile of the author's Jewish Egyptian family from Cairo in 1963 and her father's heroic and tragic struggle to survive his "riches to rags" trajectory.

"In prose as painterly and evocative as Chagall's own dazzling brushstrokes, Gloria Goldreich finely evokes one of the most significant masters of modern art through the discerning eyes of [his] loyally protective daughter."—Cynthia Ozick, award-winning author of Foreign Bodies.

Please read the book and come to our book club meeting with your opinions. If you are using Amazon, don't forget to order through amazon smile to make donations to Temple Beth Shalom!!! and comments.

Refreshments will be served

From The President

February 2019 marks the end of my first year as President but more importantly, it marks another year when TBS remained solvent and vibrant.

It has been a challenging year but with your support, we have successfully overcome most of these challenges. Your generous giving to the Temple building fund has enabled us to do the easy necessary repairs and hopefully with your continued support we will be able to face “the big gorilla” in the spring, replacing the ballroom windows. Please remember that this fund remains open and the need will be with us for several years to come.

We have made some changes last year which have been most rewarding: Musical Shabbat and our combined adult and junior congregation service.

All of our committees have done incredible things this past year. It is also the time when we say goodbye temporarily to some of our board members and to our financial secretary, Gail Olenick. I thank you for your service, your Temple thanks you. At the same time we welcome some new members to the Board and our new financial secretary, Robin Myers. I look forward to working with all of you. I do not see 2019 as being any less challenging, just different challenges, but we are TBS! We can handle it!

We have some exciting events coming up in 2019 just to mention a few:

Shabbat Across America, March 1st, this year will be the best ever!!! We have some surprises in store for you. We have our annual adult Purim Ball March 16th, which is a must!

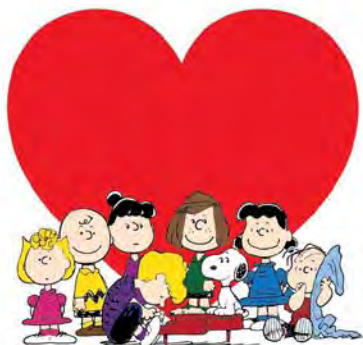

We will also be celebrating our Rabbi's 10th year with us, thank you for your spiritual guidance Rabbi.

It may be cold outside but it is warm inside TBS. I feel more positive than ever about our Temple. One of the things that give me the greatest pleasure is to see how close our Temple family is. Our Caring Committee is doing a fantastic job and our women's discussion group and Chai Mitzvah groups have created amazing bonds of friendship.

One of the greatest things I heard this year came from a long time member who said: “I feel as if I truly belong.” This is what a true family is all about and without hesitation I can say that TBS is a FAMILY!!

Pay attention to your calendars, come home to TBS, let's worship together, let's celebrate together, and let's keep the lights of TBS burning brightly.

Your President,
Fay Schildkraut

Sisterhood Corner

We are now in the middle of winter and we have had many frigid nights but it is always a warm feeling when you step inside the doors of our Temple.

Please join us on Sunday, February 10th at 10:30 a.m. when we will be discussing “The Man in the White Sharkskin Suit” by Lucette Lagnado. This book came highly recommended and it should be a great discussion.

Please remember that our Rummage sale will again be held on Memorial Day. If you are cleaning out your closets, please keep our Temple in mind. This is just a friendly reminder that the clothes that you donate should be gently worn and clean. We appreciate all of your donations.

If you have not paid your dues for this year, please remember to send them to Temple, Attention: Geri Weiss. We really need your participation in Sisterhood. Please consider becoming more active. Volunteer at an event or let me know when you can participate!!

I would like to know what you want from your Sisterhood. If you have any ideas of suggestions, please feel free to contact me.

Purim is coming!! Look for details in the Voice about the upcoming Purim Ball. We will also be sending out Hamentashen baskets again. Look for the flyer in this Voice.

I hope to see all of you at our events, as well as the PA, Men's Club and Temple events that will be coming up in the future.

Sincerely,
Barbara Gandelman,
Sisterhood President

Thank You!

A big thank you for your generous donations to our Building Repair Fund!

Andrea Odintz & Michael Rosenberg
Eric & Lori Lustig

If you have moved, please let the Temple office know. And also call to make certain the Temple Office has birthday and anniversary dates on file if you want to be acknowledged in our Sistergrams.

Bazaar Corner 2018

An early friendly reminder to make sure our Temple family and friends don't forget that Bazaar 2019 will be upon us before we know it. We will be starting off very soon to plan and we would love to hear from you about any ideas that you might have to add some "spice" to Bazaar 2019.

It would be so wonderful if you could frequent the establishments listed in last month's Voice. When you do, remember to thank them for their support of Temple Beth Sholom.

A special thank you to Francine and Max Klimavicius for their continued support of Temple by donating a gift certificate to Sardi's!! Another special thank you to Anne and Mark Pepper for their continued support of Temple and Bazaar.

Sincerely,
Joy Bobrow and Barbara Gandelman
Bazaar 2018 Co-Chairs

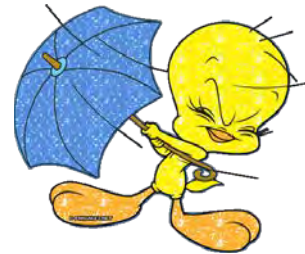

How Can I Contribute to TBS without Spending?

1. If every TBS member and their family and friends open a new, non-interest bearing checking account at TD Bank, you can get $25 AND Temple Beth Sholom will receive $50 for every new checking account opened (that remains open for at least one year). TBS will also receive a small percentage of participants' annual average balances. If you are already a TD Bank customer, Temple will receive $10 for every existing checking account. Visit any one of TD Bank's locations and ask to have your balance included as part of Temple Beth Sholom's Affinity Membership Program, or call the Whitestone branch at (718) 357-4310 for more information. Our code in the program is AF637.
2. When you make a purchase through Amazon, make sure you use Amazon Smile by signing up for Amazon Smile (you don't lose your Prime benefits!) and select Temple Beth Sholom. You can also type in the following URL link which will bring you to the right place so a portion of your purchase supports our Temple: <https://smile.amazon.com/ch/11-1802826>.
3. Lastly, if you are considering purchasing Judaica items, consider buying from the Judaica Webstore: <http://templebethsholom.org/judaica/> as Temple Beth Sholom will receive a percentage of the purchase! Thank you for your continued support of Temple Beth Sholom!

To sponsor an issue of the

The heavy rain has created some uneven areas in the parking lot. Please be mindful of this when using the lot. If you need assistance, kindly let us know and someone will be happy to escort you to and from your vehicle!

Parents' Association

Greetings Temple Beth Sholom family.

We hope that everyone had a happy and healthy holiday season. We thank everyone who attended the Havdalah/Open House/Game Night on January 12th. We had a great service that was run by Rabbi Ballan and Cantor Korobow. Thank you to Barry Packer for organizing the yummy pizza and salad. Thank you to Eric Bernstein for running the fun game shows of Wheel of Fortune and $20,000 Pyramid. Finally, thank you to all of the families who brought in the tasty desserts.

Please come to our Purim Event on Sunday, March 10th which will be at 12:30 p.m. in the Frank S. Greene room. There will be food for sale, bingo games and prizes for all who attend. Please see the attached for more details.

Please come join us at the next Junior Congregational Service on Friday February 8th at 7:30 p.m. Stay for a joyous Oneg and fun game night after services. Before enjoying your February Break, come join your Temple Beth Sholom Family on Friday, February 15th at 7:30 p.m. for a fun Family Shabbat. Our next PA meeting will be held on Sunday February 3rd at 10:00 a.m.

Have a fabulous winter season.

Erica Bernstein and Elana White
Co-PA Presidents

If you will be going to or are in Florida for the Winter, please let the Temple office know which months you will be away, and provide your Florida address so we know where to send your mail and the Voice!

Adult Education

I hope that everyone had a healthy and festive New Year's Eve. On Sunday, February 24th at 10:00 a.m., we will be having our February Game Day. Parents and other temple members will be able to participate in this revised schedule. The cost is $5 and food and drinks will be provided. It is an affordable and fun way to spend a Sunday morning supporting temple events.

On Sunday, March 31st, Adult Education will be having a Breakfast and a Movie. The movie "The Heavens Will Open For You: The Story of Malka Rosenthal" is a documentary on how Malka Rosenthal was taken in by a Polish Family during the German Invasion and had made it to Israel to rebuild her life.

I have started to obtain details about the Celebrate Israel Parade. It will be taking place on Sunday, June 2nd. This year's theme is "Only in Israel". The parade will honor 71 years of Israel being a State. Last year we had a fantastic time with 18 participants and had made the television news. Let's see if we can make it to 20. If you would like to participate in the event and show your support for Israel and recognition of Temple Beth Sholom, please fill out the form included in the Voice. The cost is $18 per person. Participants will receive round-trip transportation from a local temple to the parade and receive a t-shirt. Snacks will also be provided. Please register by Thursday, April 4th to reserve a spot on the bus and receive a T-Shirt. May everyone continue to have a healthy and prosperous year ahead.

Eric Bernstein
Adult Education Chair

The membership committee will again be mailing gift packages of hamantashen to our children who are away. Please give the names and address of your children to Fay so that they can be included!

Dear Members,

As we near the end of Temple's fiscal year, and are about to begin the new fiscal year, we are asking that payment of outstanding dues/school fees for the fiscal year 2018/2019 be made as soon as possible! Your attention to this matter is greatly appreciated. Should you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact Robin Myers, Financial Secretary, at the temple office or by email at robinl.myers@gmail.com. Many thanks!

Temple Beth Sholom Financial Committee

Men's Club

Book donations are a year-round project for Men's Club. Our first sort was completed in January, with 1,200 books pre-sorted for the December 2019 Bazaar. Sorts will proceed monthly until September, at which point they will occur bi-weekly until we're caught up and ready to stock the Book Room around late November. If you know someone who would like to donate books, we need a few simple pieces of information – Can they be dropped off? If not, what's the deadline for their removal? In which case, are they already boxed or is the person making the donation incapable of boxing them? What's the address and contact information? We'll take it from there. Contact Jeff Cohen at MrJeff2000@aol.com.

Due to the planning meetings of the "Israeli Day Parade", the Men's Club bowling league will be meeting on the second Thursday of the month for the remainder of the season. It will still take place at 8:00 p.m. at Jib Lanes. The next bowling event will be held on Thursday, February 14th.

For $15, you get two games of bowling, free shoe rental, and the opportunity to interact with members of the congregation. Bowling is not restricted to men's club members. The next two bowling sessions are Thursday, February 14th and Thursday, March 14th.

Men's Club hopes to have information about an April sports-related speaker in the March VOICE, if not sooner.

Jeff Cohen
Men's Club President

Cantor's Corner

Religious School News

I want to talk about something I've found very interesting over the course of my years as a cantor. That is the psychology of synagogue seating. That phrase probably elicits a rather pregnant pause-what is he talking about?

For those of you who attend our services regularly on Friday nights, you may (or may not) realize that, other than for a "special event", we generally get from eight to twenty people attending. Despite the small number, folks seem to sit as far from each other as possible in the sanctuary. And, they also seem to sit as far as possible from us folks up on the bima. This is not unique to our synagogue. It was also the case in my previous synagogue, and I've often seen it elsewhere. I don't know why this is the case.

The reason I bring this up is that Rabbi Ballan, Karen Feit and I had a completely different experience at Temple on Friday night, December 14th, 2018. That night, there was a combined Junior Congregation/Shabbat service held in the Frank S. Greene Room. Our students led the service along with Karen. The Rabbi and I were basically the backup band. With a full complement of students, many of their parents, and a nice turnout of our Friday night "regulars", we had a very healthy congregation that night which virtually filled up the space.

It appeared that, because of the size and configuration of the space and seating, people had little choice but to sit together. And that simple reality seemed to create a greater feeling of togetherness, participation and engagement. I don't know if congregants felt that way, but certainly I, Rabbi Ballan and Karen did.

Obviously, the smaller the room, the cozier the arrangement was. In the Frank S. Greene Room, virtually everything is moveable-the chairs, the tables, the lectern and the people. Conversely, in the sanctuary, as a practical matter, the only thing that is moveable is you. Don't get me wrong-we have a beautiful sanctuary of which we're all justifiably proud. But I believe we could enjoy it differently if we were all physically closer together within it.

The Rabbi and I often ask people to move forward as we are about to begin a service, and once in a while, people do so. I guess that I'm asking you to consider the idea. It's a kind of strength in numbers thing-if people are sitting together with others who are singing, they're more likely to sing. If you are sitting in closer proximity to others, it is much easier to read aloud and remain "in sync". Let's give it a try-let's come down front, and sit together, and see what happens and how it feels. It felt great at that Junior Congregation/Shabbat service. I believe that that same feeling can be achieved in our sanctuary with a little more "togetherness". Let's see what happens. All the best!

With affection,
Cantor Jerry Korobow

Many people suffer winter doldrums. The lack of warmth and sunlight depresses them and makes them moody. Not our TBS community! Our adult congregation, our Parents' Association, our students, Rabbi Ballan and Cantor Korobow generate positive warmth and light through the ongoing program of events that make TBS such a special place!

We welcomed 2019, with a lively Junior/Senior congregation as our students helped lead the service and our adult community lent its voices in song and prayer. The generations mixed easily both in the service and at the Oneg Shabbat that followed.

Our second annual open house and Havdalah once again brought our community together to bid farewell to Shabbat, to learn, to share, and to enjoy each other's company over pizza and games. I was truly sorry that obligations elsewhere forced me to miss it!

As I write, we are gearing up for our first joint Seder Tu Bishvat. I will finish shopping for fruits and nuts later this afternoon. Friday afternoon will be devoted to making festive platters for the Seder along with Rabbi Ballan. Our Hebrew School students will plant parsley, sample fruits, and sing in honor of the holiday during the week.

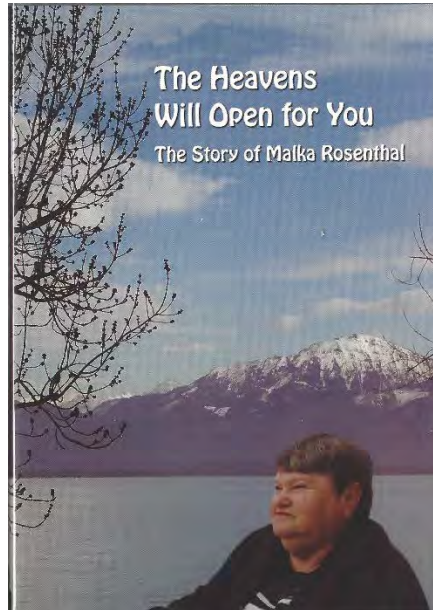

We have discovered a great way for students to practice their Hebrew skills on the go. There is a phone app available at no cost for basic, or a moderate cost for enhanced access called Hebrew Drops. It features games to practice letter recognition and moves up to more complex exercises. The students who have tried it love it, and we see a skill improvement. Try it...you'll like it.

Passover candy order forms are here! See a student or contact Geri Weiss to order goodies and support TBS Hebrew School! Thanks!

Presents
Breakfast and a Movie
“The Heavens Will Open for You”

“This film chronicles the Jewish community in Stanislawow, Eastern Galicia, through the story of Malka Rosenthal. Malka was born in Stanislawow in 1934, the eldest daughter of a wealthy, intellectual family. Over the course of the German occupation, she lost her mother and younger brother. Her father joined the partisans, and Malka was handed over to a Polish family. For one and a half years, she was kept hidden in a barrel underground. After liberation, she was one of the survivors aboard the illegal immigrant ship “Exodus”, and eventually arrived in Israel in 1948. Malka rebuilt her life through her work and education, and by starting a new family. Her touching life story has been published and translated to many languages, portrayed on stage and in children’s books.”

Scoop's Schmooze

Between the writing of this piece in the middle of January and when you will receive The Voice in your mail, is the Torah portion Beshalach, also known as Shabbat Shirah; which actually happens to be the 44th anniversary of my bar mitzvah.

And, there are two bits of irony behind that. One is for those who have sat in close proximity to me during services over the years, for me being a bar mitzvah on the Shabbat of Song; well, that is quite an oxymoron—me and Shabbat of Song. Having Renee Bat Mitzvahed on Shabbat Shira would have made much more sense. Secondly, the candle-lighters for the services that night will be Erica Bernstein and Elana White, whose children Dara, Justin and Seth, respectively, will make up almost half of Temple Beth Sholom's bar and bat mitzvahs for 2019.

The Bar Mitzvah and Bat Mitzvah are among the most special of days in a Jewish person's life when one becomes a Jewish adult. The day includes being called to the Torah, reciting the prayers and many joyous celebrations. But, what may be overlooked is expressed on the website jewishgiftplace.com under the heading of Importance of Becoming a Bar Mitzvah or Bat Mitzvah, where it is stated: "When a Jewish child reaches maturity and has his/her Bar Mitzvah or Bat Mitzvah, the parents celebrate because they have successfully raised their child into adulthood. The child celebrates his/her growth into adulthood."

And maybe that first sentence is why almost half a century later, I am able to look back at this special day as if it were yesterday. For I am so fortunate my parents have kept the memories of my Bar Mitzvah alive since Saturday, January 25th, 1975.

Which is why I can sit in my den and read all of the details of my day that my mother typed years ago on her Smith-Corona—of who had the aliyot, of who were the gabaiim, the hagbah, the gelilah, and who opened and closed the ark. Which is why I can look at my bar mitzvah album and remember the events of that night; and see who wheeled in the cake, brought in the tallit and the candle, and who lit the candles on the cake. To see my eight friends who participated in a unique Havdalah service before the reception; and reflect on all who were there, yet so many who are no longer with us, except for the wonderful memories.

Which is why I can sit and read the speech I wrote four decades ago, and see by my thoughts and ideas then, and who I am now, that the more things change, the more they stay the same. "Deborah was wise, and because of the many good ways she used this wisdom, people admired her. If you use your ability in life the right ways, people will respect you. Having responsibility and sharing leadership is a part of growing and adulthood. Planning each day as it comes will help you to reach new goals in life."

16,055 days later I am blessed that my parents are still celebrating their raising me into adulthood, and that I can plan every day with new goals and dreams.

Important News About Shabbat Services in the Cold Winter Months

Temple Beth Sholom is proud to be a multi-generational congregation. Here, many different ages worship and learn together, but sometimes we naturally become attracted to those in our own age groups.

In order to encourage all generations to attend synagogue, in the past few years TBS has added several special services to the schedule. Simchat Shabbat acknowledges birthday and anniversary celebrants. We have special Shabbatot for the various arms of the congregation, and our newest addition is a monthly musical Shabbat featuring pianist David Close who accompanies Cantor Korobow. This new Service is another way that adults as well as families with children can experience the added beauty of the music of Shabbat.

The Religious School has welcomed everyone to their services on occasions in the past, and has been especially proud to share services with the greater community at closing exercises every June. In order to encourage larger attendance from the entire TBS community especially during the winter months of December, January, and February, the Religious School's Jr. Congregation is welcoming everyone to worship with them in the Frank S. Greene room downstairs at 7:30 p.m. It promises to be their version of a warm, friendly, inclusive, and musical Shabbat service! Rabbi Ballan and Cantor Korobow will join them and the Yahrzeit list and Mi Shebeyrach (healing) prayers that are such an important part of our community worship will be included.

At the Jr. Congregation's Oneg Shabbat we encourage the children to let loose a little and they love to play board games. We hope that everyone will join in this "game night" tradition. Please bring your own board games if you'd like to participate...or you can play one of their games or, just sit and schmooze. There will be tables where people can chat uninterrupted.

WOMEN'S DISCUSSION GROUP

Wed., February 13, 2019

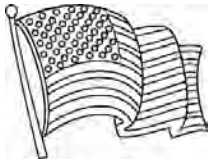

MEETING STARTS AT 7:30 PM

Topic: The Many Types of Self Care

Join with women of all ages and life experience, temple family and friends alike, to share about our lives, our roles, our relationships and our experiences. As women, we seek to learn about ourselves and others, to explore our similarities and differences in a caring and supportive environment.

This group will be facilitated by Dr. Deirdre Weliky, LCSW, a member of our temple family and a social worker and group facilitator with more than 25 years experience.

Meetings will be held in the library.
