From the Rabbi's desk

Shalom,

This month, January, coincides almost entirely with the month of Tevet on the Jewish calendar. Tevet has only one "holiday" in it, Asara B'Tevet, the 10th of Tevet, which is a minor fast day, commemorating the siege of Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar II of Babylonia in 588 BCE. Most of us do not observe this fast—a sunrise to sunset fast.

On the secular calendar, we usher in a new decade, and that is hard to believe! Enter the '20s! We entered a new decade on the Jewish calendar, too—the '80s—5780 that is, but we did that on Rosh HaShannah. As we took stock of our year during the High Holy Days, many people do this again this time of the year. I don't usually make "New Year's resolutions" because I use the Jewish New Year—the High Holidays—to do this. But really, I think that there is nothing wrong with doing teshuvah more than once a year. After all, we learn in Pirkei Avot that we should make teshuvah one day before our death, in essence, every day. The secular New Year, then, is a good time to make an assessment of our progress. Since we began a new decade on both calendars, I am looking back on the entire last decade, because I have spent it with you, the congregation of Temple Beth Shalom. I am proud, grateful and a little amazed that it has been more than ten years that I have been with you!

During the High Holy Days, the process of looking back is called cheshbon hanefesh, an accounting of the soul.

I would like to do a cheshbon hakahal an accounting of our congregation. I think that we have come a long way in ten years. Ten years ago, at my installation, I spoke about TBS becoming a holy community, a K'hilah Kadoshah, and that I entered into a covenant with you, a holy partnership.

In a holy partnership our destinies are joined; our successes and disappointments are not ours alone, they are shared. As in marriage, (also a holy partnership) we don't make decisions alone, but make them with our partners. A holy partnership is about forming relationships; of being there for one another through simchas (the joyous times) and tragedies, and every lifecycle event in between; and it most importantly, it is creating a vibrant community, a k'hila kedoshah a holy community.

I think we have indeed become a vibrant, k'hilah kedoshah. We are doing relatively well financially, and I believe that we are spiritually in a good place, too. Our congregation has come together to help and support our members through our caring committee, and strong Sisterhood, Parents' Association and Men's Club. Our worship services have been well attended, musical and uplifting. Our children are learning all about Judaism and menschlekite in our Religious School. We may be a little smaller, but I think our congregation is all the more stronger and cohesive. May we continue to thrive in the years to come.

Adult Education

Welcome back to another year at Temple Beth Sholom. I hope that everyone had a healthy and festive year.

Adult Education is starting off the year with several events.

If you receive this newsletter before Sunday, January 5th, please join us for Breakfast and a Movie where we will be showing "when jews were funny" at 9:30 am. You can learn about the history of Jewish comedy while learning what it means to be Jewish in America.

On Sunday, February 23rd, Paul Rabinowitz will be returning to speak about planning a trip to Israel. Whether you are interested in planning your Bar/Bat Mitzvah or planning a vacation, this is a great way to plan or provide the interest points.

Stay tuned for upcoming Adult Education events in the year ahead.

Eric Bernstein
Adult Education Chair

If you have moved, please let the Temple office know. And also call to make certain the Temple Office has birthday and anniversary dates on file if you want to be acknowledged in our Sistergrams

PLEASE PATRONIZE OUR ADVERTISERS!

When you shop at their establishments, please them know that you saw their ad in the TBS Voice

Men's Club

Men's Club wants to thank all the volunteers at last month's Bazaar and Book Bonanza. The book room was one of the biggest revenue generators at the event. We are already collecting books for 2020 and will be announcing a late January-February sort date in the near future.

Men's Club monthly bowling continues at Jib Lanes in Flushing on the first Thursday of every month at 8:00 pm. For $15, you get two games of bowling, free shoe rental, and the opportunity to interact with members of the congregation - bowling is not restricted to men's club membership. The next two bowling sessions are Thursday, February 6th and March 5th. We look forward to seeing you there.

Men's Club is doing its annual Super Bowl grid - for $5/box you can support the temple as well as possibly win money each quarter of the big game, being held on Sunday, February 2nd. Look for me or Eric Bernstein collecting money and filling boxes at Friday night services, Wednesday Hebrew School sessions, and on Sundays!

Many thanks!

From The President

The year 2019 seemed to be my shortest year yet. For Temple Beth Shalom, it has been a year of much happiness and celebrations and some sadness too. We have lost some very dear friends and temple members. Our latest is Bernice Berman. We will miss them but they will forever remain in our hearts.

We have also happily welcomed several new members to our TBS family.

It has been a year when everyone was on their "A" game. The Clergy, Board of Trustees, the committees, office staff, custodial staff, and you my beloved congregation, you gave it your all.

We had another successful Bazaar this year thanks to our chairs Barbara Gandelman and Joy Bobrow. Of course, as both ladies will attest, none of this would be possible without you. Thank you to all of our volunteers, angels, office and custodial staff. I can only describe the spirit and hard work that went into Bazaar 2019 as a true labor of love. Thank you.

2019 has ended, and so has my term as your President. It has been an honor and privilege to serve for the past two years. I could not ask for anymore from a Board and congregation. You have given of your time, money and support. Thank you and bless you. Of course, a great deal of thanks to our office and custodial staff who went above and beyond the call of duty every day. You have been a true supporting team.

Although we have made great strides, there is still a lot of work that needs to be done. Your donations to the Building Repair Fund have been most generous allowing us to keep up with our repairs and make plans for the ballroom window replacement. We should be able to take care of the windows in the Spring. At the same time however, we have to replace our stair lift and take care of some A/C repairs. There is no denying that the building needs our love and attention but if we take care of one problem at a time, there is nothing we cannot handle.

2020 promises to be a banner year for TBS. Just to mention a few things: Shabbat Across America February 28th; a fun time to celebrate our gift of Shabbat and the Purim Ball on March 7th where we can let our hair down, have fun and dance the night away. We also eagerly anticipate the gala dinner dance celebrating our Temple's 70th birthday and our Rabbi's 10th anniversary with us on Sunday, June 14th. As well as Renee Katz-Packer's cabaret show on April 26th. And, I am sure our cantor will have a few surprises for us as well.

Sometime in the summer, our building will be buzzing when another Jewish congregation, Temple Gates of Prayer, joins us for a couple of years. The extra prayers within our four walls can only be a blessing.

Two years have come and gone so fast for me. I thank you all for the opportunity to serve. I thank you for your support and encouragement. To all the many people who have worked so hard with me these past two years, thank you.

As I have said in the past, we are a small but mighty army. Let us continue to work together as one temple family. Yes, TOGETHER, we CAN do anything!

Your President,
Fay Schildkraut

Sisterhood Corner

Happy New Year! I hope that you all had a happy holiday season and were able to spend some time with your family.

I would like to take a moment to thank everyone who helped with Bazaar this year. We had a successful Bazaar and could not have done it without your help.

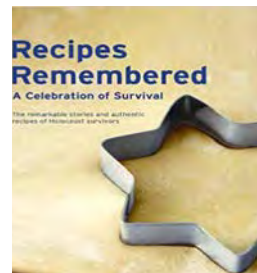

We will be having another Book Club on Sunday, February 9th at 10:30 am. The book is Lilac Girls by Martha Hall Kelly.

Please continue to read your Voice for more details. As a gentle reminder, if you have not already paid your Sisterhood dues, Geri Weiss is still accepting the dues for the 2019-2020 year.

Look for the upcoming Temple events and come join in the fun!

I hope to see you all soon,

Sincerely,
Barbara Gandelman,
Sisterhood President

This book tells over 80 stories of survivors of the Holocaust, and includes over 170 recipes of theirs from all their different countries of origin. These are remarkable and inspiring stories that will fill you with a sense of hope and optimism, along with a chance to take a culinary trip as diverse as the survivors themselves.

December Board of Trustees Meeting

The Board of Trustees met on Monday, December 16, 2019. President Fay Schildkraut reported the President of Temple Gates of Prayer told her they have signed the contract to sell their building so they have to vacate and plan their temporary move with us very soon.

Robin Myers, Financial Secretary, reported membership is now at 118 member units after the sad passing of Bernice Berman. The Board approved the November Financial Report as submitted by Treasurer Charlene Metz.

Rabbi Ballan and Cantor Korobow reported on upcoming Chanukah services and events. Pulpit and Ritual Committee Chair Geri Weiss reported on recent analysis of High Holiday attendance compared to last year and noted increased member participation. Siddurs with dedications will be identified with a binder dot for distribution at services.

Sam Rosenberg was thanked for always beautifying our Synagogue with flowers and his many contributions to TBS. The committee planning the Gala in honor of Rabbi Ballan's 10th anniversary with us and Temple's 70th birthday in June is making progress.

Membership Committee Chair Fay Schildkraut presented new members Amy Edelstein and Michael Gross to the Board for unanimous approval. Sisterhood President Barbara Gandelman reported the next book club meeting is on Sunday, February 9th; the book is Lilac Girls by Martha Hall Kelly.

The Board approved a motion to enable the Religious School Board to present Karen Feit with a 2-year contract renewal as Religious School Principal. Men's Club President Jeffrey Cohen reported they are doing the Super Bowl 50-50 pool again this year. He reported on post-Bazaar book sale related updates, and a connection made this year with a man who collects sports memorabilia and may want to work with Men's Club on doing a Collectables show at TBS; possible date May 15th.

Religious School Board Committee Chair Andrea Odintz reported after several fund raisers, they still need funding to pay for a flat-screen TV for the school. Stephanie Rosenberg volunteered to donate the difference and purchase it so it can be installed in January. Long time teacher Rob is leaving the school to pursue a Nursing career. There are some plans in place to cover for him while they seek his replacement.

Jim Kettig, Nominating Committee Chair, presented the Board with the following slate from the Nominating Committee: President: Joy Bobrow, First Vice President: Fay Schildkraut, Second Vice President: Eric Lustig, Third Vice President: Barry Packer, Treasurer: Charlene Metz, Financial Secretary: Robin Myers, Recording Secretary: Gail Tishcoff. 3-Year Trustees: Maxine Simon, Ilyne Rabinowitz, Iris Bass, Fran Goldman and Gloria Shapiro. 2-year Trustee: Jeffrey Cohen. This will be presented at the January Congregational Meeting for vote.

House committee chair Jim Kettig reported on progress toward the ballroom windows renovation project, slated to start in March at approximate cost of $36,000.00. Proposal to make necessary repairs to the Cooling Tower is estimated at $13,000.00. They are researching ways and costs to replace the stair lift.

Ways and Means committee chair Barry Packer reported they hope to set next year's Chicken Soup Cook-off date as November 7th. Bazaar Co-Chair Joy Bobrow reported Bazaar was quite successful this year but they will need ideas for next year and will be meeting in January.

Eric Bernstein reported Adult Education will have Breakfast and a Movie on 1/5/20 to see "when jews were funny" about Jewish comedy. The Board unanimously approved motions for a one-year contract with Cantor Jerry Korobow and a three-year contract with Rabbi Sharon Ballan. Details will be presented for ratification by the Congregation at the January Congregational Meeting.

Respectfully submitted,
Gail Tishcoff
Recording Secretary

Bazaar Corner 2019

I really try to keep the articles regarding Bazaar short but as this is the recap to a wonderful time, please indulge me and read on.

We are so pleased to report that Bazaar was again a success, despite cold weather on Saturday and Sunday and the awful rain on Monday! As you all should know by now, Bazaar is a major fundraiser that helps sustain TBS. We were successful this year because several of our Temple families gave so much time and effort in setting up Bazaar and making pickups throughout the year. We need many more of you next year! We won't mention the names of, Jeff Cohen, Adam Fertig or Al Eckman whose enthusiasm and dedication know no bounds and truly are the backbones of Bazaar setup. Jeff again did an amazing job with books this year! By the time you read this he will have already made at least one pick up of books for Bazaar 2020. And of course, without Adam Gandelman, Gail Olenick and Barry Packer, the food you ate would not have been so delicious! Thanks to Andrew and Elaine Larkin for your generous contribution which enabled the continuing of the egg cream tradition of an esteemed past president, Roger Opstbaum! And our wonderful children, who did the walk-arounds for Bazaar – they truly rocked!!! We hope more children and their parents will join us next year!!

As corny as it sounds, it really takes a village to make a Bazaar and there are so many other people who really work hard during Bazaar – too many to mention (Lori and Eric Lustig, Bonnie Wilichinsky, Ellen Coleman, Iris Bass, Ilyne Rabinowitz, Dr. Fay Schildkraut, Geri Weiss, Amy Edelstein and Michael Gross – and behind the locked doors counting money: Robin and Ron Meyers, Charlene Metz!) But please know that the entire Bazaar team so appreciates everything you all do every year without being asked! Remember that volunteering in any way, for any amount of time, goes a long way in making Bazaar successful. It is also a way to get to know your temple family which is truly a wonderful family. Please think about joining the team next year as we need your help and input for Bazaar 2020, so that the TBS family can come together and have a good time in addition to raising money!

Of course there are so many volunteers to thank from temple members, friends of temple members (some of whose names we may not have gotten) to former temple members (please think about rejoining!!) who worked in the booths, set up the booths, baked, cooked, shopped, got gift certificates, and worked so hard to make Bazaar 2019 a success. Thank you to our "Angels" who do so without the publicizing of their names, but whose donations enabled us to cover some of the costs of our purchases. A special thank you goes to Beth Dulberg for her annual donation of a beautiful basket for "Across the Board." (One day either Barbara or I will win it!!!) Shout out to Gail Olenick, Lisa Olivero and Susan Huertas for their donation of holiday baskets. Thanks to our office staff, Rita Bellock & Natalie Strauss, who work behind the scenes and in front of the scenes, and always with a smile!

And a special thank you goes to Jose Urbina & Jose Santos - without their dedication and hard work, Bazaar would not be possible.

We tried to keep track of everyone who volunteered; you will find their names in alphabetical order by first name in this issue of the Voice.

Last names were omitted again purposefully. If we inadvertently omitted someone from this list, forgive us, and please send us your name so that we can publicly thank you in next month's Voice! We hope to see you when we have our Post-Bazaar 2019 meeting. We will be looking for ideas!!! We cannot stress enough how important a fundraiser this is for Temple and we really need your help!

We again had several outside vendors who were pleased with the response to their products! As we need to keep trying new ways to raise money, please join the team and share your ideas to make Bazaar 2020 even more successful!!!

Lastly, thank you to Cantor for working with our Religious School students so that they could perform beautifully at our Pre-Bazaar Pancake Breakfast. Thank you to Rabbi and Principal Karen for also performing, it was a lovely morning! Of course, we wouldn't have such tasty pancakes if not for Chef Adam buying the ingredients and the Boy Scouts for cooking and serving!! And of course, thank you to all the parents and temple members for attending!

Mazel Tov to our temple member I. Donald Weston who was the grand prize winner of our Big Raffle! And, this year there were other temple members and the mishpacha of temple members who won prizes in the Big Raffle!

Sincerely,
Joy and Barbara

Cantor's Corner

Zo and I just returned from a trip to visit our dear friend Ray in Wales. As usual, we had a delightful time. Ray and his family and friends are always warm and welcoming, and the Welsh countryside is beautiful.

Whenever we go over, Ray and I spend many evenings playing with other musicians in the local pubs and clubs. Despite often expressed concerns, the ancient pub tradition seems to be alive and well in the UK. A very broad spectrum of musicians and listeners is likely to show up on any given night to revel in music making, and a general good time.

One of the things I find so heartening at these informal "open mics" or "sings" is that everyone gives everyone a chance. It doesn't seem to matter what style of music you play/sing-people are respectful, and they listen and participate.

I can safely say that there were folks ranging in age from perhaps 16 to 85 at many of the musical events we attended and participated in. As a result, it's really fascinating what kind of material you're likely to hear. One person gets up and sings country tunes, while the next does Pink Floyd material. After that, it might be folk music, or the Beatles. Then, on to blues, or maybe even someone beatboxing. We even witnessed a woman attempting to sing operatic material along with backing tapes! Absolutely wild!

As we've returned over the years, I've gotten to know more and more musicians and their friends in that part of Wales. And as you might expect, I think it's pretty cool that I look forward to seeing and playing with musical friends on "the other side of the pond", and they look forward to seeing and playing with me. But after all is said and done, it's good to be home, and on to more musical adventures here at Temple Beth Sholom. See you at services!

With affection,
Cantor Jerry Korobow

Religious School News

As I write to you today, there is snow on the ground. It is a beautiful sight, but one I am not happy to see. Traffic will be problematic, walking on slippery paths can be dangerous...but one can't help but admire the beauty of snow covered tree branches and lawns.

My father always told me, "You have to take the bitter with the better." Today, when I have to take a long drive, I hear his voice in my head although he has been gone for over twenty-seven years. This is true both about snowstorms and synagogue life.

Many people bemoan the fact that our Hebrew School is small. We would be thrilled to welcome new students and their families to TBS. Sure, there are advantages to having a large population, but there are rewards that come with our size. We are able to get to know each student and his or her parents well, so that we provide the support each one needs. We are better able to communicate with each other because we are not strangers. We can't have lavish, expensive events like some Hebrew Schools, but it is far easier to make challah for Shabbat, hamantaschen, for Purim, or work together as a whole school team on decorating the Sukkah and putting on a Purimspiel.

We have grown closer as an inclusive and intergenerational Jewish community through events like the Pancake Breakfast, Bazaar, Mitzvah Day and, most recently, our Shared Shabbat Program.

Our adult congregants who do not have school aged children and our kids are no longer strangers. We share the joy of Shabbat in song and prayer and we nurture our sense that the Temple Beth Sholom community is our extended family.

As we welcome 2020, I urge you to look at the world through the lens of the wonderful spirit we share here at TBS.

Wishing all of us a healthy, happy, prosperous and peaceful 2020!

B'shalom,
Karen Feit
Principal of the Religious School

Scoop's Schmooze

The street address number is 223.

In Jersey City, New Jersey, JC Kosher Supermarket is three feet away from a yeshiva. It is directly across the street from a Catholic parish. A few storefronts away in one direction is an African hair braiding salon. In the other direction is a mosque. The street that all of this resides on bears the name of one of Israel's greatest friends—Martin Luther King, Jr.; who on March 25, 1968, less than two weeks before he was tragically assassinated, in a speech to the Rabbinical Assembly said: "peace for Israel means security, and we must stand with all our might to protect its right to exist, its territorial integrity. I see Israel as one of the great outposts of democracy in the world, and a marvelous example of what can be done, how desert land can be transformed into an oasis of brotherhood and democracy. Peace for Israel means security and that security must be a reality." And, 223 Martin Luther King, Jr. Boulevard, where JC Kosher Supermarket is located, just happens to be less than three miles from the most welcoming iconic symbol in the world--the Statue of Liberty.

And, while that area of MLK Boulevard seemed to be the epitome of a prototypical melting pot, on Tuesday, December 10, 2019, it actually turned into a war zone.

Heartbreakingly, in the blink of an eye at the supermarket, Moshe Deutsch, Mindy Ferencz and Miguel Rodriguez; along with Detective Joseph Seals beforehand, fell victim to anti-Semitic and anti-police hatred. That is the same anti-Semitism that in New York City, through September, is up 63% compared to the same time period of 2018 and that has made up more than 50% of the City's reported hate crimes. The Mayor of Jersey City, Steven Fulop, who comes from a family of Holocaust survivors, where 35 members of his immediate family were taken to Auschwitz and only seven survived, appallingly and sadly feels the actual target of the attack was the attached to the market yeshiva with 50 children inside.

This unforgivable and insane unspeakable horror took place the day after the conclusion of Temple Beth Sholom's annual Bazaar and a month after our Chicken Soup Cook-Off. And, as I sat and relived all that took place during those two events--the preparation of and the actual happening, I reflected on all of the people who were there; the diversity of vendors, of attendees and, yes, of our Temple Family. And, as was said numerous times by multiple people during the last month--these were special family events for very special people worked by very special people. So many helped out one way or another, so many participated. And, whoever did whatever, for everyone, it was nothing short of a true labor of love.

And, at the risk of leaving people, businesses and organizations out who participated in these events, or having my column run on page after page by listing everyone;

may it just be said that the unbelievably wide array of backgrounds that these wonderful and thoughtful, generous and dedicated people come from indeed make Temple Beth Sholom its own melting pot. Every day we are blessed to share happiness and joy, safety and peace with each other---those who are guests or those of us who make Temple Beth Sholom of Flushing our second home.

So, while none of us have probably ever met Moshe Deutsch, Mindy Ferencz, Miguel Rodriguez, or Detective Joseph Seals, I know that they will never be forgotten by our TBS family.
